LOCALETTES.

April showers next. Sunlight is increasing. Fittings are beginning. The buds will soon swell. Lighter light bills just now. Blue ice cream is the latest edible novelty. Soon time to exercise with spade and rake. No one can be a hero when his liver is out of order.

It doesn't make a life any whiter to put it on a tombstone. It won't be very long now until plagues will be suggested.

Weather prophet Foster predicts a warm and dry April. A soft hat does not necessarily infer that the wearer has a soft head. What is monopoly? A corporation in which other fellows hold all the stock.

Silver articles are called plate from the Spanish word plata, which means silver. Before marriage a woman wants tenderness. In a little while she is satisfied with legal tenders.

"I do love leap year," said Miss Antique. "One lives a whole extra day without increasing one's years a jot."

If you intend to move, notify the letter carriers.

See that your cellars and backyards are thoroughly cleaned, and avoid pestilence. Get used to the fire alarm system.

Two new mail agents will be put on the route between Port Clinton and Williamsport on the 10th of April.

A new directory of the town will not come unless after April 1st. The number of changes will be great.

The Republicans of town are getting ready for their primaries on Saturday.

Death of Benjamin N. Adams.

MENFORD, N. H., March 29.—Benjamin N. Adams died in this city Sunday night of Bright's disease. He was a member of the staff of General Palmer, National Commander of the G. A. R., and also served on the staff of ex-Commander Vandev. Mr. Adams was born in Surrey, N. H., in 1843, and served in both the army and navy during the late war.

Serious Charges Against Her Husband.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Mrs. B. C. Thomas, a well known society woman of Englewood, has caused the arrest of her husband, who is private secretary to his father, the president of the Belt Line Railway, on the charge of non-support, continual abuse and attempting to poison her.

Another Railroad Deal.

BOSTON, March 29.—The Old Colony management confirm the report that the New York, Providence & Boston Railroad has been secured by the New York, New Haven & Hartford. The Providence & Worcester, leased to the New York, Providence & Boston, is included in the lease.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—For New England: Generally fair weather; northwesterly winds, followed by warmer and southerly winds. For Eastern New York and Eastern Pennsylvania: Fair weather; slight changes in temperature; northerly winds. For New Jersey: Fair; northerly winds; slight changes in temperature.

For Western New York and Western Pennsylvania: Generally fair; westerly winds, becoming variable; slightly warmer, except in western portion of Western New York, stationary temperature.

Coming Events.

Mar. 30.—"The Tatling Tongue," lecture by Rev. H. G. James in the P. M. church, for the benefit of a sick and needy family.

April 21.—A marriage tea in Robbins' hall, under the auspices of the degree staff Lydia Degree Lodge, No. 112, L. O. O. F.

Fishing Tackle.

A large lot of the best fishing tackle, cheaper and better than ever, just received. Come and see us before purchasing elsewhere and you will save money.

MAX BERRY'S, Ferguson House, 11 W. Centre St. Waters' Weas beer is the best. John A. Reilly sole agent.

Found Out.

The best and easiest way to get rid of a cough or cold that may develop into consumption is to invest 25 cents in a bottle of Pan-Yna, the great remedy for Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Throat and Lung Disorders. Trial bottles free at P. P. D. Kirtin's drug store.

Special Religious Announcement.
Rev. D. M. Stearns, of Scranton, has been invited by the ministers of town to give bible readings every alternate Wednesday. He has accepted the invitation and will give his first bible reading tomorrow afternoon, at 1:45 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church. The subject will be the first psalm, the Sunday school lesson for next Sabbath. The church-going people will find this meeting a means of grace, as well as instruction, and should avail themselves of this opportunity of hearing one of the best bible students in this state. Rev. Stearns has bible classes in about a dozen different towns and cities, for which labor he asks no compensation.

Not Her Son, After All.

Pottsville furnishes a remarkable case of mistaken identity. Several days ago the body of a young man found dead at Johnstown was identified by Mrs. Guthrie, of Pottsville, as that of her son, Luther B. Guthrie. The remains were sent on to Pottsville and buried at that place on Saturday last. Yesterday Mrs. Guthrie received a letter dated at Pittsburg and written by her son, who is at that place. The letter was written on the day the body of the stranger was buried. Steps are now being taken to fix the identity of the corpse. Guthrie is well known in this town, having served as a "typo" on the HERALD about a year ago.

A Big Success.
The World's Museum was visited by nearly fifteen hundred people last evening to see the wonders of the world.

A Pleasant Time.
The "Y's" held a social in Robbins' lower hall last night. Nearly two hundred young people participated in the festivities. Ice cream and cake were served during the evening, and games were followed by a cake walk, which was won by George L. Hafner and Miss Nettie Vernooy.

NOTICE OF DECREE CHANGING THE name of John Shoeler to John Luszczynski.
In the Court of Common Pleas of Shenandoah county. In the matter of the petition of John Shoeler for a decree changing his name to John Luszczynski. And now, March 21, 1892, three months after the presentation of the foregoing petition, and on motion of J. H. Pomeroy, attorney for said petitioner, the court decrees that the name of said John Shoeler be changed to John Luszczynski, and the Shenandoah EVENING HERALD, a newspaper published in said county, be designated for the publication of the notice of this decree for four successive weeks, unless cause be shown to the contrary.

A Cheerful Home.
"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."
"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zerbe & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And best of it is cheaper. Matt Shoemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."
