This week is a busy one for the banks.
There is much complaint about the crossings.
The hardest headed man was born with a soft spot.

The spring girl is here away ahead of the robins.
The dress maker must now be a designer as well.

It is to be hoped the new council will fix the streets.

Why should not Shenandoah inaugurate a system of street parking?
The April showers will soon be here to bring us the May flowers.

March came in like a lion and it kept up a lion-like disposition very well.
Church choirs and Sunday schools are already practicing on Easter music.

Moving has already commenced and for the next few days will be lively.
People are unreasonable—they expect a man to give his promise and to keep it too.

You must now wait until the snow has left us before you put down any garden seed.

More Seats For Reporters at Minneapolis.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 30.—The official convention hall plans provided for 224 seats for the representatives of the press. The Press Committee fancied that these accommodations were insufficient. Some members of the National Committee thought that more seats for the press would crowd out some of the spectators. Architect Hayes, however, has found that fifty more seats can be added in the space already allowed to the press without crowding, and it has been decided that 274 seats will be reserved for the newspaper men.

Succeeds Cardinal Manning.

LONDON, March 30.—It is officially announced that the Rt. Rev. Herbert Vaughan, Bishop of Salford, has been appointed to the place of Cardinal Manning. The Pope is said to be delighted with the appointment of Bishop Vaughan, as the latter is in thorough sympathy with the Pontiff's utterances on the labor question, and is as famous in England for his philanthropy as was Cardinal Manning.

Coming Events.

Mar. 30—"The Tattling Tongue," lecture by Rev. H. G. James in the P. M. church, for the benefit of a sick and needy family.

April 21.—A marigold tea in Robbins' hall, under the auspices of the degree staff Lydia Degree Lodge, No. 112, I. O. O. F.

A Very Neat Reply.
This week Judge makes a very neat reply to the late Democratic campaign cry of "Grandpa's Hat" in his front cartoon Uncle Sam stands before a counter in a hat store gazing at two characteristic hats, labeled respectively "Harrison" and "D. B. Hill." Behind the hats are the printed records of the wearers of them. Even the average Democrat must admit that this cartoon makes a very effective argument. The double page is a very clever cartoon taking of Cleveland's letter to General Brazz. Cleveland is represented as poor old Rip Van Winkle coming back to the fn after a sleep of only four years to find a great change in affairs. The fun is just beginning and if you want to be politically happy, buy this week's copy of your news dealer.

FAIRER FROWN.
"I want my money back," said the square-jawed woman. "This stuff ain't what it's cracked up to be, by a heap."
"No?" ventured the druggist.
"No, indeed. Doesn't it say on the bottle that 'three applications to the hair will convert the most pronounced brunette into a charming blonde'?"
"I guess it does."
"Well, it didn't work with me. I'm blonde enough, but I don't seem to get any more of it. He's gone and married that pug-nosed widdler on Central avenue."—Indianapolis Journal.

Found Out.

A Cheerful Home.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire!"

"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zerbe & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And, besides, it is cheaper. Mart Shoemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into partition. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men couldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $2 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from 50c up to $2.
