This, the latest novel of Marie Bernhardt, author of "The Rector of St. Luke's," is a charming story of life among the highest circles of society, the scene being laid at the present time. POLITICAL PARAGRAPHS.

Comments on the Approaching Primaries and Other Affairs.

The lines are drawn. The Republican primaries to be held Saturday will be interesting.

District Attorney Keck is in the field for Judge. So is W. D. Selzer, Esq.

The friends of Judge Pershing are making a hard fight to have him either nominated by the Republican convention next Tuesday, or have some action taken by which it will be understood that he will be endorsed if the Democrats nominate him. If there are any who believe Hon. Luther R. Keefe is sleeping and not paying attention to the Senatorship in the 23rd district they will discover next week that the belief is an erroneous one.

The death of M. M. L'Velle Esq., it is thought by many, will throw considerable strength to the support of McHenry Wilhelm, of Ashland. "Mac" is popular and can be elected, if any Republican can.

New candidates for the Legislature are springing up in this district.
Poor Director Tracey will seek a re-nomination on the Democratic ticket. Tracey has a clean record and is very popular. He should experience no trouble in securing a re-nomination.

The contests for delegates to the State and National conventions will be spirited. It is said the statesman from Schuylkill Haven, when in town last week, was working in the interest of Pershing for Judge and Gressang for national delegate.

There will be a number of surprises at next Tuesday's convention.

We are opposed to taking two bites at a cherry. Let next Tuesday's convention finish its work, if possible. A good ticket can just as well be nominated next week as later on.

Hon. C. N. Brumm will no doubt be nominated for Congress. There is no reason why he should not receive the support of all Republicans before and after the convention.

Signs of Spring.

Bock beer signs.
Blue birds are here.
Teams for moving are in demand.
Fittings have already commenced.
Carpenters and painters are already busy.

Cylinders are being cleaned and white-washed.
The scissor and organ grinder were in town yesterday.

Repairing fences and hauling away winter refuse is keeping heads of families at home just now.

Necktie Social.

On Tuesday evening the many young friends of Miss Lizzie Keitman tendered in her honor a "Necktie Social," at the residence of her parents, on North Main street. Quite a number of young folks of this and adjoining towns were present, and participated in the enjoyment of the evening. All present expressed themselves very favorably as to the merits of Miss Lizzie and her estimable parents as entertainers.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat is not worth powder enough to blow it into perdition. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $2 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from 25c up to $2. All the newest things in gents' underwear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."
"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Verbe & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And, besides, it is cheaper. Mrs. Shemmer takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."
