AGAINST MONMOUTH PARK.

Asbury Park Indignant at the Prospective Reopening of the Track.

ASBUBY PARK, N. J., April 4.—Considerable indignation exists here over the prospective reopening of, the Monmouth Park race track, and mass meetings protesting against the making of books will be held along the northern New Jersey sea coast; Petitions will be circulated for signatures, calling upon both the State and county authorities for a strict enforcement of the State laws a strict enforcement of the State laws against bookmaking, pool selling and other modes of gambling.

Rev. S. Edward Young, pastor of the Westminster Prosbyterian Church here, denounced race track gambling in his sermon. He said the bookmakers ruined thousands of men every year and that racing brought to Monmouth Park the moral slops of New York, Brooklyn and adjacent cities.

A Curious Clerical Error.

Loxpon, April 4.-Lady Brooke has just had an extraordinary strake of luck in the will of the late Sir Victor Brooks, which has just been probated. It is by a curious clerical error which occurs in the will that she inherits heavily from the estate. The provision inserted was that "if she declines to receive certain moneys due to her from her graudfather upon her father's death," her annuity from Sir Victor is to be reduced from 12,000 to 900 pounds. The mistake is in the word decline, which should, of course, have been decide. She thus gets both

BURGLARS CAPTURED.

They Sawed Their Way Out of the Mas sachusetts State's Prison.

NEW YORK, April 4 .- Two desperate burglars who recently escaped from a Massachusetts prison, were captured in this city.

They were taken into custody by two members of Inspector Byrnes' staff after a slight struggle. A companion at-tempted to assault the detectives, but he, too, was arrested.

"Dick" Drohan and George E. Welles are the two thieves who sawed their way out of the Charlestown State Prison last March. Both were known to be desperate characters, who would stop at nothing in order to gain thair liberty. The prison was crowded, however, and they were confined in the same cell. An armed guard paced their cell door every 20 minutes, but in spite of this they managed, with steel ribbon saws which had been smuggled in to them, to cat as under the steel hars on the window of asunder the steel bars on the window of their cell. They then pried off the bars, descended from the window by means of ropes made from their bed clothing, and scaling the walls were free.

ALWAYS READY FOR BUSINESS.

Manufacturer Oliver Tells His Ex-perience with Senator Quay. H. W. Oliver is one of the best known manufacturers in western Pennsylvania. He has as wide an influence in the Republican party in his section of the state as he exerts in the commercial werld. He was a delegate to the last Republican national convention, and was the author of the tariff plank upon which General Harrison was elected president.

Mr. Oliver was one of the first to reply to the charge of absenteeism preply to the charge of atmenteersm pre-ferred against Senator Quay by the Philadelphia mugwump clique. He demonstrated that Colonel Quay did more work on the tariff bill than most people know. It is well known, par-ticularly in Democratic circles, that but for nim the bill could not have been
