The silver ghost bobs up in Washington again this week to disturb Democratic serenity. The free silver men in Congress threaten to blockade all legislation, appropriation bills included, unless their pet measure is given the right of way. What a cumbersome and dangerous thing to itself as well as to the public, is a Democratic majority!

The recent decline in silver is said to be due to the fact that enormous quantities of bullion have been held back by the producers in anticipation of the passage of the Bland bill, but now this superabundance of the precious metal is coming upon the market. The silver mine owners evidently had confidence in the fraud silver professions of the Democracy. They forgot that a Republican President, pledged to honest money, occupied the Executive chair.

SPOILS, not principles, animate the Hill as well as the Tammany and in New York. The midwinter "snap" convention of the Hill men in New York had been preceded by a Cleveland "snap" convention in Pennsylvania, and Hill's electioneering tour of the South is rivaled by Cleveland's electioneering tour in Rhode Island. It is a fight between factions with which principle has nothing to do.

WHILE the vote in local elections in Ohio Monday was light, it is conceded on all sides the advantage was with the Republicans, and the gains are quite marked. There was a touch of that old-time "radical difference" between the parties illustrated in the Columbus contest. The decent Democrats joined with the Republicans, and thus checked a Democratic plot to legislate the municipality into a party machine.

THE burning of the N. & G. Taylor tin works in Philadelphia directs attention to a new industry about which there has been much dispute. This experimental factory was, we believe, the first to take advantage of the McKinley act. Its capacity is reported to be 150 boxes a day and the product nearly that much. The work done is the dipping of the plates, which are either American or foreign. Mr. Taylor says that the American plates are all that could be desired, but at present the product is not equal to the demand. New mills are being put up and soon American iron may be exclusively used. A ship load of American tin arrived recently from California, but most of the block tin used comes from the East Indies by way of London, the principal market. It is said to cost less for freight to Philadelphia than to the factories in Wales reached by rail. There are other tin plate factories in that city, and Mr. Taylor knows of about 23 in the country, of which at least 20 have their products on the market. Nearly all of them are producing good qualities of tin, the market being stocked with cheap tin before the advance in duty. The N. & G. Taylor Company is erecting a large new factory, with 24 stacks and a capacity of 20,000 boxes a week of common tin, or 7,000 boxes of the finest grade, the firm having faith that American tin can be sold at a fair percentage of profit on the cost without regard to foreign prices.

THE discovery of the attempt to blow up the Spanish Cortes with dynamite and the arrest of the parties who had determined to do the infernal work, has raised an excitement throughout Spain that will abate only when the guilty parties are executed. That is the evident turn affairs have taken, and the government is represented as being in full accord with public sentiment on the subject.

MEETING OF THE DISTRICT DELEGATES

COYLE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR LEGISLATURE.

HE RECEIVED IT BY AGLAMATION

William H. Lewis and John F. Finney Elected State Delegates—R. T. Lewis and John A. Latham Alternates. A Harmonious Convention.

HEREFUL prospects for the whole Republican ticket have already asserted themselves. The First Legislative District Convention in Robbins' opera house was one of the most harmonious assemblies ever held here and after the close of the convention congratulations were extended on all sides. If there were any dissatisfied people they failed to present themselves.

Chairman James called the convention to order at 10 a. m. and made the following appointments: Tellers, M. J. Lawlor and W. J. Morgan; Secretary, W. J. Watkins, of the HERALD, Sergeants-at-arms, Thomas Tush and Tallison Phillips.

After a recess of ten minutes the committee presented the following resolution:

The election of state delegates brought out three candidates, with the following result on the first ballot:

The call issued for a special meeting of the Borough Council to be held last evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of placing obstacles in the way of the management of the electric railway by getting out an injunction against the road, was not fruitful of much satisfaction to the promoters of the movement. The members of Council were very tardy in putting in an appearance, the majority having wisely decided not to be a party to the affair, and therefore made their absence conspicuous.

COYLE THE REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR LEGISLATURE.

He received it by acclamation.

Shenandoah, First ward—David Bonnie and John Kendrick.

Second ward—John F. Finney and Thomas Baird.

Third ward—F. C. Reese and Robert Oiver.

Fourth Ward—Daniel Reigel and Louis Leha, Jr.

Upon the close of the 29th Senatorial District Republican convention at Pottsville, yesterday afternoon, the Fourth Legislative District convention convened.

Hon. Elias Davis, Samuel A. Loech and August Schrick were elected delegates to the State Convention on the first ballot.

There were ten candidates for the Legislature. On the second ballot S. A. Losch and Dr. George W. Kennedy, of Pottsville, were nominated; and S. S. Cooper, of Tremont, was nominated on the fourth ballot.

Judge W. F. Sadler, of Carlisle, arrived in town last evening.

James Hughes, Jr., went to Pottsville on the early train this morning.

Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, and Postmaster Eberley, of Girardville, were in town last evening.

Thomas T. Hughes, a prominent contractor of Andover, Pa., paid the HERALD a business visit yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marsden, of West Oak street, arranged for a birthday party for their seventeen-year-old son and fixed the event for Tuesday evening.

The call issued for a special meeting of the Borough Council to be held last evening at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of placing obstacles in the way of the management of the electric railway by getting out an injunction against the road, was not fruitful of much satisfaction to the promoters of the movement.

Wherever any of our old citizens locate, in or out of the state, they find themselves in demand to fill responsible positions.

A MEETING OF THE SCHOOL DIRECTORS

MATTERS PERTAINING TO THE CAUSE OF EDUCATION.

THE WHITE STREET BUILDING

Steps Will be Taken to Decide Its Fate at an Early Date—Arrangements for the Graduating Exercises are Already Under Way.

SCHOOL matters of importance were discussed by the School Board at its regular monthly meeting last night. The members present were Messrs. Boddal, Ogdon Williams, Treasler, Bachman, Gable, Hanna, Brennan, O'Hearn, Muldoon and Gallagher.

William H. Dittrey, representing a committee in behalf of the J. O. U. A. M., asked for privilege to raise a United States flag on the main street building on the fourth of July, but through pressure of other business the request was overlooked when the time arrived to consider it.

A letter from E. A. Boddal, Esq., was read. It stated that the Supreme Court had affirmed the judgment of the School Board obtained against ex-Tax Collector Titman.

The Board then listened to the preliminary report of Howard Murphy, of Philadelphia, on the condition of the White street school building. The report was referred to in detail in a recent issue of the HERALD.

Quite a discussion followed. Mr. O'Hearn wanted the report laid on the table. Mr. Bachman wanted to know why surveys of the building had not been sent to Mr. Murphy, so that a final report could be made; and Mr. Boddal said the surveys had been held back so that the Board could be first informed in the matter.

Mr. Muldoon was of the opinion that it was not necessary to remove the third story of the building. He thought the source of trouble was in the walls from the surface to the roof, and if the walls could be rebuilt the building would be all right.

Mr. O'Hearn thought the window space should be reduced.

Mr. Muldoon was of the opinion that it was not necessary to remove the third story of the building. He thought the source of trouble was in the walls from the surface to the roof, and if the walls could be rebuilt the building would be all right.

Superintendent Freeman said the graduating classes for this year will be larger than usual and he asked permission to do away with one of the usual afternoon sessions so as to have three instead of four. He also stated that one of the classes will have about 48 members, and asked for permission to employ carpenters to erect tiers of seats on the stage for their accommodation. Both requests were granted.

A suggestion that the rules adopted by the board for the graduating exercises last year be applied to the coming exercises was not adopted because objection was raised to the rule requiring prayer before the exercises.

Mr. Hanna thought that the adoption of the rule last year caused the defeat of Citizens' candidates for the School Board in the late spring election, because many thought the adoption of such a rule was only a wedge for something else.

Mr. Gallagher was not in favor of the rule and it was finally decided to let the matter rest until a future meeting.

On motion, it was decided to place a pavement on the street in front of the West Coal street school building.

The board then granted recommendations for state normal diplomas to Misses Hattie Hass, Corinne Tumpst, Nellie Baird, Mary Roberts and Hannah Morrison.

he did not like the way the secretary treated fourteen members of the Board at the organization.

A point of order being raised, Mr. Boddal moved that the motion which reduced the secretary's salary be reconsidered. The motion was carried.

Mr. Boddal then renewed his previous motion and it was seconded by Mr. Ogdon Messrs. Gallagher and O'Hearn then raised the point that after already granting an order for half a year's salary that granting could not be increased.

Mr. Hanna said he looked at the matter in what he considered a light of justice to the secretary and Board, and he thought the motion could be carried with propriety; but it was finally decided to withdraw the motion until the next meeting, when more members will very likely be in attendance.

This postponement and the previous one on the question as to whether or not the graduating exercises shall be opened with prayer promises to make the next meeting of the board a lively one.

The reading and acceptance of bills concluded the business of the evening.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.
Picked up Along the Line While the Wires Are Laid.

"Dave" Llewellyn, who has been bossing the electric railway gang on Main street this week, is making a record. A gentleman said last night, "You may say what you please about 'Dave' Llewellyn, but you can't deny that he is a hustler."

School Director Conry's face was missed at the meeting last night. He was busy with Foreman "Charley" Amour getting the to-be popular electric railway in working order.

"Did you see der landslide on Main street?" asked an urban in his chum this morning.

"No!" was the astonished answer. "Where wuz it?"

"Go up there and see de landslide off de Hittian's shovels," rejoined the first speaker as he knelt to shoot his marble.

Vice President Sadler and Secretary and Treasurer Finney have a neat and cozy office in Relewich's building.

"Boy!" exclaimed an elderly lady at the corner of Main and Centre streets yesterday, addressing a Young America, "Where does this railroad go?"

"It doesn't go, mum; but the cars will in a few days," was the truthful answer of the youngster.

The report that children under 50 years of age are to ride on the electric railway on half fare is officially denied. Some say the report was circulated as seed for sarcasm.

It is not to early too state that boys will save themselves from a sudden calling, and their parents an unexpected outlay of funeral expenses, by refraining from monkeying with the trolley wire when the current is started.
