NETTLETON LEAVE

Secretary Foster Transfers th Immigration Business.

MR.	SPAULDING			IN	CHARGE
The	Change	Made			Nettleton's

Request.

He Will be Gons from Washington Two Weeks, and it is Understood That He Will Enter Private Business at the End of That Time-Before Leaving He Ad dressed a Lattar to Immigration Commissioner Weber.

WASHINGTON, April 8.- Assistant Secre tary of the Treasury Nettleton has left Washington, to be absent two or three weeks. It is understood that Mr. Nettleton, at the expiration of that time, will enter into private business, a stop which he has postponed for the past month because of the pending Congressional investigation into Ellis Island.

At the request of Mr. Nettleton, Secre tary Foster transferred the emigration business of the Treasury Department, heretofore under his charge, to Assistant Secretary Spaulding.

Prior to leaving, Assistant Secretary Nettleton addressed the following letter to Colonel Wober, superintendent of immigration at New York:

"Dear Sir-On the 16th ultimo I addressed you a letter which seemed to imply criticism of your official course in landing certain classes of immigrants upon receiving the assurance of persons or societies that they should not become a public charge. That letter correctly stated the attitude of this department on the main question referred to, which is that whenever an immigrant is found upon inspection to be likely to become public charge, he will not be landed be ratise of any written or oral assurance of any person or society, except upon distinct written authorization of the Secretary of the Treasury. But your subsequent oral explanations drave convinced me that we did not place the same construction on certain language of your former letter, which furnished the basis of mine.

'In your communication, after referring to certain destitute alien immi-grants who had been landed by the authority of the Superintendent of Immi-gration at Washington, upon the guar-anty of certain parties that they would not become a public charge, you used this language: 'These allens in question would be considered in the catagory of persons likely to become a public charge.

"From this language, and from the fact that these cases had been held up and referred to the Department at all, I fully understood that they had been duly inspected, found to be persons likely to become a public charge, and yet had been finally landed contrary to law, upon the assurance of some charitable society that they should not in fact become a burden upon the public. This under-standing of mine was not modified by standing of mine was not modified by your next santence, to wit; 'The deter-mination of this likelihood depends upon the circumstances surrounding the case in point.

"You now explain that the misleading reference of these cases to the Departnent was an error committed during your temporary abseace. You farther partment, and in very good hum rexplain that the language first above Referring to the subject Gen. Tracy quoted from your letter meant simply said; that these particular immigrants, being "I otherwise eligible, were persons whose status on gnal inspectiun would be prop-erly considered in connection with the provision of law, excluding persons likely to become a public charge. You further inform me that at the date of your action, and of your letter, you were not aware of the Department circular fixing the authority of the Superintendent of Immigration

"In the light of this explanation there was, of course, nothing in your official action calling for criticism, and I cheer-fully make the correction. My letter to you was based upon the statement con-tained in the first quotation from your language herein given, and upon the attendant circumstances." Colonel Daniel Grosvenor, the Chief of the First Division of the Comp-troller's Office of the United States was based upon the statement con-come.

WASHINGTON, April 7 .- The absorbing excitement of Congress and the interest caused by varying schemes and various measures have been overshadowed of late in Washington by he revelation of the alarming death ate among public men, and the additional fact that in nearly every case the cause of the death can be traced to ne source. Congressman Springer's langerous and long continued illness, the sudden death of Senator Plumb. and Mr. Blaine's constant ill health have mustered from the grave the memory of an army of public men who have died in the harness.

Senator Beck dropped insensible in the Potomac Depot on the exact spot where President Garfield was shot. Secretary Folger worked to the last, and died without warning. Secretary Windom died while speaking at a banquet. Secretary Chandler was found dead in his bed at the Grand Pacific Hotel. Senator Tom Corwin expired at a ccention while talking with Salmon P. Chase, Ben Wade, Senator Scheuck and John Sherman.

The Hon. Hannibal Hamlin died at he c'ub while chatting with his friends.

Minister Pendleton passed away thile seated in a railroad train.

Senstor Charles Sumner, Massachusetts's pride, died suddenly, workog faithfally to the hour of his death. Senator Simon Cameron feels the nysteriouscreepings of paralysis, and fails in the arms of his friends. Salmon P. Chase passed away peacefully while seated at his desk with his pen in his hand.

It has dawned upon the public men of the country, the heads of depart-ments in Washington, and discerning people generally, that there must be some one great reason for all of those antimely deaths. It was with a view, if possible, of solving this question that I called upon a number of prom-inent men, the results of which are tiven herewith. It is well known hat one of the nation's greatest nien Gen B. F. Tracy, Secretary of the Navy, and that no man in Washingwar with Chili was being agitated, must necessarily have brought a great strain upon hissystem. He was found, however, at the head of the N avy De-

IS THE MYSTERY SOLVED ? It is Sain That the Missing Charley Ross

Has Been Found.

Sr. Louis, April 8 .- According to the firm belief of H. G. Sparks, a reputable citizen of Benton, a suburban town west of this city, the missing Charley Ross, stolen from his parents in Philadelphia on July 1, 1874, is found.

If Mr. Sparks is correct in his belief, Charley Ross, now arrived at man's es-tate, is at present living with and em-ployed by him at Benton, and the world famous mystery of the greatest abduetion sensation known to criminal annals is about to be cleared up forever.

So strong is the evidence already gath-ered in the case that a relative of the boy is now enroute from Philadelphis to Benton. Mo., to meet the young man. The relative is expected to reach here today.

Mr. Sparks says that about four months ago a young man bearing the appearance of a tramp applied to him for work. After becoming acquainted with him the young man told him enough of his his-tory and so far as he could remember it, to convince Mr. Sparks that he was Charley Ross.

A MODUS VIVENDI.

The Agreement Signed by Mr. Bl. ine and Sir Jullan Pauncefote. WASHINGTON, April 8-There are strong reasons for believing that a renewed modus vivendi on the Behring Sea matter, the terms of which were agreed upon between Sir Julian Pauncefote and Mr. Blaine, was submitted to the President by Gen. J. W. Foster yesterday morning and, meeting with his entire approval, was signed by Mr. Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote.

Confirmation of this belief is found in the fact that Lord Salisbury started for the Continent last night, undoubtedly with a view of laying the matter before the Queen. If further confirmation were the Queen. A further confirmation were needed it might perhaps be found in the facts that our own State Department officials have suddenly become dumb as oysters, and that President Harrison has gone snipe shooting.

Didn't Think It Was Loaded.

Prirssung, Fa., April 8.-Jacob Elk, butcher, shot his sweetheart, Ida Ida Engel, of Spring Garden avenue, Alle-gheny, through the heart Wednesday night. There was no one present at the time and Elk claims the shooting was an night. accident. He says he was under the im-pression that the revolver was "not loaded" and anapped it at her to frighton her, when it went off. He is wild with grief, and when arrested begged the officers to shoot him. He will be held to await the Coroner's inquest.

The unfortunate animals, although in the greatest agony, were, when discovered, still endeavoring to suckle their lambs.
