LOCALETTES.

Lettuce is here.
Blue birds sing merrily.
Quite a crowd in town yesterday.
The April moon will be full on the 12th.
The store windows are gay with spring goods.
Blooming plants are the preferred Easter gift.
The early potato will soon be shooting out its eyes.
A good many people changed residence this spring.
Soon the parson will be coming into popular favor.
Ice cream served in calla lilies is an Easter novelty.
The robins and blue birds are beginning to feel at home.
Little onions will soon be placed in their spring beds.
Tree trimmers are at work, so are political trimmers.
Good Friday is the next legal holiday and due on the 15th.
Spring shoppers are surging their way through the stores.
There will be a run on the drug stores shortly for egg dyes.
Easter is approaching and of course eggs will be in demand.
The days are now over 12 hours long and constantly in the increase.
To validate a deed it must be recorded within six months after date of purchase.
The grim monster, death, has been making fearful throats throughout our county this season.
Easter egg dyes are now offered in drug stores and some of the colors are exceedingly pretty.
This is the time of year when the foolish man throws off his overcoat and makes the doctor smile.
The ladies, bless 'em, are now bothering their pretty heads about spring wraps, hats, dresses, etc.
The most wonderful thing about a shad is how the meat ever got in between the bones.
As to artistic taste and the workmanship, the work turned out by our job department is unsurpassed.

"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."

"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Zeigler & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And besides, it is cheaper. Mart Shoemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into perfumery. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men wouldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our 50c Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from 50c up to $2. All the newest things in men's underwear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price.
