LOCALETTES.

Flies are here.
Buds swelling.
Shad are plenty.
The soda fountains will soon start.
There is a growing demand for farming implements.
The shovel and rake is a good cure for the spring fever.
The spring is almost always apparent in the spring chicken.
The April moon is gaining nightly in size and power to light.
It takes two to make a bargain, but only one of them gets it.
The lover who is jilted should cover his wounds with court plaster.
The outcome of a man's life usually depends upon the road he takes.
The newspaper soil is in its most excellent condition for planting a spring advertisement.
Man is not merely the architect of his own fortune, but he must lay the bricks himself.
Tastes differ—some people can see beauty even in a looking glass; others cannot.
Now that moving day is past, the next thing in order will be the general spring cleaning.

A Leader.

Since its first introduction, Electric Bitters has gained rapidly in popular favor until now it is clearly in the lead among pure medicinal tonics and alternatives—containing nothing which permits its use as a beverage or intoxicant, it is recognized as the best and purest medicine for all ailments of Stomach, Liver or Kidneys. It will cure Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, and drive Malaria from the system. Satisfaction guaranteed with each bottle or the money will be refunded. Price only 50c. per bottle. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch.

Fishing Tackle.

A large lot of the finest fishing tackle, cheaper and better than ever, just received. Come and see me before purchasing elsewhere and you will save money at

FOOD FOR REFLECTION.

A Few Short Paragraphs on Important Events of the Day.

Let the obstructionists resign.
The innocent suffer for the doings of the eight kickers.

No more out-of-town capital will be invested in Shenandoah under existing conditions.

The fool killer is around, looking for the members of the Ancient Order of Kickers.

Unless the out-bound organization of Council is broken up no further outside enterprises will be started here.

If the eight members of Council are sworn to stick together to knock out the electric road and those that are interested in it for one year, they have ten months yet to do their worst.

Isn't it about time an injunction was taken out to prevent the eight members of Council who are against "de gang" from committing suicide?

The Pottsville organ of the kickers hasn't said anything lately in favor of the order. A vote taken now would demonstrate most forcibly that the kickers are not "in it."

People who make their money in town and invest it out of town, are good leaders against the advancement of Shenandoah.

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggist to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, Coughs and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer did we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store. Large size 50c; an $1.00

Notice to the Public.

Corner Stone for Grant's Tomb.
New York, April 9.—The corner stone of the tomb and monument to be erected in this city to the memory of General Grant, will be laid on the 27th inst. Mayor Grant has issued a proclamation calling the attention of the citizens of this city to the fact that the present time is a fitting one for the completion of the fund necessary to carry out the undertaking.

Died from His Injuries.

TECKERTON, N. J., April 9.—Mrs. Lucy Hillier, while cleaning house put some old paper in the stove to be burned up. Among the rubbish was a bag of gunpowder. It instantly ignited, blowing the stove to pieces. Mrs. Hillier was not injured, but her 4-year-old boy, who was standing by, was severely injured that he died.

To Fight the Rice Trust.

NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—New Orleans rice merchants have organized a stock company with $500,000 capital to fight the rice trust. A new rice mill will be erected here, as all the present mills are in the trust. It is thought the farmers will join issues with the new company and fight the trust.

The Force Reduced.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Secretary Foster has begun a reduction of the force at Ellis Island, New York, discharging twelve workmen and a watchman, and directed that a surgeon from the Marine Hospital be detailed for service at Ellis Island in place of Dr. Tauner, the contract surgeon.

Suicide of an Old Woman.

HAMLEN, N. Y., April 9.—Mrs. Michael Bauer, living near Sandy Creek, in this town, aged nearly 70 years, committed suicide by plunging into the creek. Loss of her husband a short time ago by death was the cause.

Unanimously Approved.

PARIS, April 9.—The Customs Committee of the Chamber of Deputies has unanimously approved the commercial agreement between France and the United States negotiated by Mr. Whitelaw Reid.

Killed by an Apple Tree.

DOVERSTOWN, Pa., April 9.—The 14-year-old son of Taylor Worthington, living near Fountainville, this county, was killed by being cut down by an apple tree, when it fell and crushed him to death.

A Cheerful Home.
"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."
"Yes, 'tis true; we always have a good fire since we got our coal from Kerbs & Co's Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And, besides, it is cheaper. Matt Sheemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

CORNER CENTRE AND WEST STREETS.

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into position. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men couldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $50 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from 25c up to $2. All the newest things in men's underwear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price.
