THERE is quite a difference between building "palaces and halls of commerce" and electric railways.

THE Cincinnati Inquirer, which is good Democratic authority, says that "$100,000 good Democratic campaign money" was spent to carry Rhode Island and "it was all thrown away."

THE writing upon the wall was correctly interpreted when we said Archibald Belahazar Lamb's political life was of short duration. Recent events go to prove the assertion.

NEVER in the history of the world has clothing been as cheap as it is today. It is constantly becoming cheaper. What can be the excuse therefore for taking the duty off wool and robbing our farmers of their already too small profits?

TO TAKE the duty off wool will be to take a long step toward reducing the farmers of this country to the condition of the poverty-stricken serfs at Europe and Asia. With the assistance given by their little flocks thousands of small farmers are now able to show a profit at the end of each season's operations. Without this assistance they cannot hope to maintain their independent lives, and must sink to the condition of slaves on the estate of nabobs.

A LARGE edition of the speech of General Bankhead (ex-Confederate) in the House in denunciation of Union pensions is being printed for circulation in the South. This is the speech in which Bankhead threatened a disruption of the Union if the South is not relieved of the pension tax. According to Bankhead the North

THE vote in the House on the Bland silver bill means that the Democrats are afraid to do anything in face of a Presidential election. They have decided to fall back on the time-honored custom of doing nothing and having no platform. They can now promise the people this fall that want silver that the bill will be passed next winter and those who do not want it that the bill is dead. Then they can come back next winter and pass the bill.

JUDGE FINLETTER, of Philadelphia, has given a decision that may possibly have considerable influence upon the happiness and harmony of some lives. He laid down as law that a man had a right to kill a cat that was trespassing upon his premises, the only point connected with the shooting of the intruding feline being whether it was intended to kill or merely to wound. If the former was the intention then the deed was lawful; if the latter, the party shooting and wounding the animal without intent to kill would be amenable to law. Owners of tramp pussies will do well to take this decision into thoughtful consideration and keep Thomas and Kitty at home o' nights, or run the risk of having them killed without redress on their part.

THE TWO LEADING TOPIQS OF THE DAY.

EFFECT OF THE DECISION IN THE WATER CASE.

THE INJUNCTION STOPS ALL WORK

The Joint Committee of the Borough Council and Citizens Declared Powerless and No Special Election Can be Held Under Its Movement.

THE announcement yesterday of the decision in the injunction suit of the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company against the borough, whereby the injunction is made permanent and the joint committee of Councilmen and citizens are enjoined from taking any further steps in the matter, other than, perhaps, appealing to a higher court, fell upon some of the Councilmen with the effect of a ten-pound weight falling upon a burlesque on a man's neck. But some of them maintained a stiff upper lip and when spoken to on the matter answered, rather inconsistently, "Well, I expected that."

A pretended indifference of this character will not excuse the Councilmen who acted on that water committee before the eyes of the people. They were warned time and again that some of the most eminent members of the bar had declared that now water works could not be established under the special election of ten years ago, but they went ahead stubbornly and blinded with their project. They had plenty time before the water company obtained its injunction to retreat and make arrangements to have the question decided at the last spring election, but this they would not do. They had laid out their course and they practically declared that they would follow it at all cost. They have done so—at the cost of their constituents.

THE HERALD sounded the warning time and again, repeatedly declaring that another special election or a vote at the last spring election would be necessary. Messrs. Gable, Lamb, James and others at once stamped the HERALD as an old water company ally and made a pet organ of the Sunday News, which proceeded to tickle them by blowing encouragement through its horn, "Go on! Go on! Down the water company and the HERALD, you are all right!" And since the time the HERALD first declared itself for a vote at the spring election, or a special election, Gable, Lamb, James & Co. opposed and tried to defeat everything the HERALD has advocated. This combine is now in the soup.

A gentleman speaking of the decision in the injunction case stated to-day that the joint committee is bound hand and foot. Not only is it powerless to proceed with its plans, but it is also unable to retreat and prepare for a special election.

We may expect that the Councilmen who have placed themselves hors de combat will now declare that the three judges of the Pottsville court are allies of the water company and enemies of the people. All who do not agree with them are enemies of the people.

But now it is time for the people to act. This public water works farce has gone on long enough. The joint committee has taken nearly $2,000, and perhaps more, out of the borough treasury to pay for surveys, to pay watchmen "to guard the streams," to pay this, that and the other thing, and now the people will have to go down into their pockets to pay the expenses and costs in the law suit which the water company has just won. Add to this the judgment the water company previously secured and the cost; add the cost of water for fire plugs for the hereafter; add the loss the borough sustains by the rejection of the water company's offer to cancel all claims and furnish water for fire purposes for any term Council might name, and no one will find difficulty in fixing upon their minds the fact that Lamb, Gable, James & Co. have been reckless, at least, in representing their constituents on the Borough Council.

There is a moral furnished by the water case and other matters: Lamb, Gable, James & Co., before attempting to down "Finney and de gang," should down themselves, i. e. step down and out.

But whether or not they do so, it is time the people called upon them for an itemized statement of everything they have done, together with an itemized statement of the disposition of the funds taken out of the borough treasury on the strength of a promise that the money would be returned from the funds that were expected from the issue of bonds under the special election of ten years ago.

AFTER THIRTY YEARS

Domiatek O'Donnell Visits His Sister—A War Incident.

On Friday last a stranger, tall and stately, alighted from the Reading train at Mt. Carmel and made inquiries for Martin Gibbons. He was directed to his residence and in connection with finding that gentleman in a romance that would give substance to a good sized history. The person proved to be Domiatek O'Donnell, who enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam in 1861 and of whom but little was known up to the present time. No tidings of him had been conveyed since his enlistment and he was supposed dead.

A reporter called at the Gibbons residence and found a dozen of Mr. O'Donnell's admirers seated in the parlor enjoying his tales of warfare and listening to his recitals of exciting experience. He is of fine physique and has that dignified bearing characteristic of the soldier. Mr. O'Donnell modestly conferred on his career in a most entertaining manner and depicted his experience from "the pomp and splendor of war" clean down to the excruciating horrors of the prison pen.

He enlisted at Ashland in 1861 under Captain Jos. Anthony, afterward Major Anthony, in the 96th Pennsylvania Volunteers. While at Pottsville they received orders to proceed to the front. The first engagement was at Mechanicsville, in Virginia. On the second day of the seven days battle O'Donnell was shot in the side and seriously wounded. He was taken prisoner and incarcerated in the famous Libby prison at Richmond. He was then paroled and afterward exchanged. At Baltimore he experienced a set-back with his wound and went to the hospital, remaining there until his discharge in 1863. He re-enlisted in the service of the government and has since been on trips to Europe, the West Indies, Cuba and many other parts of the globe. He is at present enjoying a furlough and took advantage of it to trace up his relatives. Mrs. Gibbons is his sister and the meeting of the long separated couple was a most affectionate one.

Jewish Feast of Passover.

While the Christian festival of Easter is in commemoration of the Crucifixion of Christ, or the Paschal Lamb and the Resurrection, the Hebrews celebrate their Exodus from Egypt with the Feast of Passover, which lasts for seven days, and consists of abstinence from leavened bread. It began last evening and ends with moonrise Sunday. The Hebrews celebrate their festival by the 14th day of the moon. When the fast begins they give the Sedar, or reading of the Haggada. The caren of leavened bread is gathered and burned. The Paschal Lamb is represented by the shank bone of the animal roasted upon the coals.

Mr. Franey Explains.

J. J. Franey claims the HERALD did him an injustice yesterday in the recent report concerning him. He says he raised the rents of two tenants $1.50 each per month and lowered the rent of another tenant in the same row $2.50. The increase was made, he says, because of additional yard room he gave them by the purchase of property in the rear. The decrease was made because the tenant who used the front rooms for a store went out of business.

Enterprising.

Louis Goldin, one of the most enterprising clothing merchants in the coal region, now occupies the whole of the large building on Main street, near corner of Centre, and is displaying one of the finest stocks of clothing, gent's furnishing goods, etc., this side of the Broad Mountain. His stock is all spick-span new—not shrewd or moth eaten. His store is now the largest in the county.

"Joe."

Our former townman, J. L. Tempst, who several years ago wrote a western drama entitled "Joe," in which he played the leading character, has organized another company and will produce his sensational drama in Ferguson's theatre shortly. Mr. Tempst has improved the parts and secured the best talent he could get. He intends putting three companies on the road next season which are to be backed by a stock company of town.

THE RUSSIAN FAMINE RELIEF MOVEMENT.

RESULT OF THE MEETING IN FERGUSON'S THEATRE.

FUNDS TO BE RAISED BY A CONCERT

A Committee Appointed to Select Home Talent and Make Other Arrangements for the Entertainment and a General Committee Appointed.

WHETHER or not the people of Shenandoah and vicinity will make a substantial donation to the fund for the relief of the distressed and starving people of Russia is a question that will be decided within a very short time. The indications point that the contribution will be a handsome one.

A meeting of the citizens was held in Ferguson's theatre last night and an organization to carry out the purpose of the call was effected. Superintendent L. A. Freeman was made President, P. J. Ferguson Treasurer and W. J. Watkins Secretary.

There was a lengthy discussion on the question of what steps should be taken to raise funds. Messrs. Freeman, Charles Bowman, P. J. Ferguson, J. J. Franey, T. J. Davies, Edward Casper, H. P. Mellet, John Grant, Drs. Stein and Matter, and Revs. O'Boyle, Powick, Evans, Grubler and James spoke on the matter and it was finally decided that Messrs. J. J. Franey, H. P. Mellet, T. J. Davies, Charles Bowman and John Grant be appointed a committee to arrange a programme for a concert to be held in Ferguson's theatre on Saturday evening, April 23d, the concert to be given by home talent.

The following gentlemen were named as a general committee: Division Superintendent John L. Williams, L. A. Freeman, and Revs. D. I. Evans, William Powick, John Grubler, Robert O'Boyle, H. G. James, Dr. J. S. Kistler, Edward Casper, Charles Bowman, John Grant, Dr. James Stein, T. J. Davies, W. J. Watkins, H. H. Zalik, M. S. Riggs, H. P. Mellet, William Broughall, P. J. Ferguson, Dr. Matter, M. P. Fowler, J. J. Bradburn, Marshal Baugh, J. J. Franey, H. C. Boyer, Thomas Baird, Joseph Knapp, Yatesville; William H. Lewis, Wm. Penn; M. E. Doyle, Dr. J. S. Callen, Dr. D. W. Straub, J. G. Davis, Gilbertson; Edward Reese, Centralia; Dr. Spalding, Senator B. J. Monaghan, Representative J. E. Brennan, Dr. Langton, Levi Refowich, Dr. Hamilton, Max Reese, John W. Morgan, John H. Evans, L. Goldin, Charles Radziewicz, William Cyszkowski, William Szaymanski, E. B. Hunter, S. W. Yost, H. E. Dengler, John A. Reilly, B. R. Severn, John Robbins, C. W. Dengler, C. Holderman, W. F. Sadler, Jr., F. J. Peritz, John F. Finney, Chief Burgess, James Smith and William N. Ehrhart. The secretary was instructed to keep the roll open for additional names that may be submitted by members.

This committee will meet in Ferguson's theatre to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Ferguson has very kindly tendered the use of his theatre for meeting nights when it is not required for other purposes.

The Father of Many Ills.

Contipation leads to a multitude of physical troubles. It is generally the result of carelessness or indifference to the simplest rule of health. Eugene McKay of Brantford, Ont., writes: "I had for several years been a sufferer from constipation, had taken a great many different remedies, some of which did me good for a time but only for a time, then my trouble came back worse than ever. I was induced by a friend, whom Brandreth's Pills had benefited, to try them. Took two each night for a week, then one every night for about six weeks. Since that time I have not experienced the slightest difficulty whatever, and my bowels move regularly every day. I believe firmly that for sluggishness of the bowels and biliousness Brandreth's Pills are far superior to any other."

"The Electric."

Our worthy ex-Chief Burgess, P. J. Mutholland, has taken McNeil's old stand in Egan's building, near corner of Main street, and will entirely renovate and improve the place, and will restock it with the best and purest liquors, &c., in the market. He expects to have his place open by Friday or Saturday.

There never was a season when so many people appear to have coughs and colds. Those who know the value of Dr. Cox's Wild Cherry and Sassafras prefer it to all other remedies.

GOING HOME.

Thirty-one Disgraced Hungarians Leave the Region.

The Hazleton Plain Speaker is authorized for the statement that thirty-one Hungarians left that place on Friday for New York, where they took the steamer on Saturday for their homes in the old country. They were a jubilant crowd leaving the Westinghouse street station, seemingly glad it were, that they were leaving the country.

A reporter, in conversation with one of them, learned that they were disgusted with this section and all they had seen of America, and that they met with nothing but hardships and hard knocks every place they went. Many of them would not have been in the country at all, if it were not for the false representations that were made to them, before emigrating, by agents who were traveling through Europe.

When asked what they would do when they went back again, they said that many of them had little patches of land that they could make a living on and be more contented than in this country. One remarked that if he took a notion again to come to this country that he would give the coal region a wide berth, and in fact that seemed to be the notion of all of them.

Such papers as the New York Herald, Dramatic News, Chicago Inter-Ocean, Chicago Tribune, and leading papers in Philadelphia and others of our largest cities speak in very complimentary terms of the performance. It is said to be exceedingly amusing. We do love a hearty good laugh once in a while, such as we may expect from reading the notices referred to.
