YOUNG DISMISSED

Charged With Betraying Secrets of the Senate.

HIS FRIENDS ARE INDIGNANT.

Senator Sherman Demands that the Courtosy of the Senate be Upheld.

The Committee on Foreign Relations say They Have Proof of the Executive Clerk's Guilt, and that He Was Not a Proper Person to Hold the Office-Many Senators Say the Action of the Senate is Ontrageous.

WASHINGTON, April 12 - The United States Senate in secret session yesterday declared vacant the office of executive clerk, held by Mr. James Russell Young of Fennsylvania.

Mr. Young was charged with betraying Executive secrets, but as proof of his alleged guilt was brought forward, and according to information obtained from sources thoroughly reliable he was legislated out of office against the conscientions convictions of a number of those who voted to thus stigmatize him to observe the procedent of Senatorial courtesy in sustaining the Committee on Foreign Relations which reported in favor of declaring Mr. Young's office vacant.

The Senate went into secret session at The Senate went into secret session at 1:10 o'clock on motion of Mr. Cameron, who secured Mr. Young the position of executive clerk. Immediately after the doors were closed Senator Manderson brought forward his resolution provid-ing for the re-admittance to secret sesions of the clerks on the Executive force who have been excluded from the Senate on the ground that they were re-sponsible for the betrayal of Executive BOUTUDE.

This suspicion was the outcome of fhe This suspicion was the outcome of the accurate reports which have appeared in the newspapers of the proceeding of the Senate in secret session on the case of Judge Woods of Indians and the Behring Sea Treaty. There was a short debate on this resolution, Mr. Manderson speaking earn-estly in favor of its adoption as an act of justice to Mr. Young and his subordinates en the executive force, and My. Sherman opposing it with equal vehemence. Many Senators were absent when a vote was taken, and the resolution was re-

Then Mr. Sherman called up the reso-lution declaring vacant the office of executive clork, reported favorably from the Committee on Foreign Rela-

Mr. Sherman said that the committee had reasons for believing that the office should be declared vacant; that it had had evidence of Mr. Young's guilt, and that the committee's word had been that the committee's word had been given that Mr Young was not the proper person to hold the office. He also made some comment on the largeness of the executive force, contending that the executive secrets were confided to too many persons not members of the Senate, and that it was not strange that

Senate, and that it was not strange that secret proceedings should come to the knowledge of newspaper men. Mr. Sherman urged upon the Senate the necessity for sustaining the com-mittee, and hinted that if it were not sustained that those Senators who voted against the adoption of the resolution ould be guilty of a violation of Senatorial courtesy. Mr. Hale, who introduced the resolution for Mr. Young's removal, made an earnest appeal for its adoption.

He contended that the betrayal of Ex-ecutive secrets had reached a point where stringent methods for its stoppage should be resorted to. He was particu-larly severe on Mr. Young, and made the charge that he was guilty of the allega-tion brought against him. Mr. Hale is not a member of the Committee ou Foreign Relations. Senators Manderson and Paddock made earnest appeals for the rejection of the resolution

FOR A NEW SETTLEMENT. ALL FOR THE POOR Unallotted Lands of the Sisseton Reservation to be Opened.

WASHINGTON, April 12 .- The President esterday signed the proclamation opening to settlement the unallotted lands of the Sisseton and Wahpeto Reservation in North and South Dakota known as the Lake Traverse Reservation at 12 o'clock noon on the 15th inst. Warning is given that until the lands are opened to settlement all persons save the Indiads who are members of the Sisseton and Wapto bind are forbilden to enter upon and occupy any part of it. It is also or-dered that the lands (described in the proclamation) shall be attached to the Fargo and Watertown land districts.

The agreement made between the Gov-ernment and the Sisseton and Wahpete Indians under an act of Congress for the cession of their lands was signed on De-cember 18, 1889. An allottment of 160 cemper 18, 1858. An allottment of 169 acres has been made to every member of the bands. Under the law, it is pro-vided that patents shall not issue until the settler or entryman has paid $2.50 for each acre taken up by him, and the title to the lands shall remain in the United States until the full amount has been paid by the entryman or his legal representative.

LARGE LOSS OF LIFE.

Bundreds of Homes Swept Away by Floods in the South.

Columnus, Miss., April 12.-The past week has been the most distressing this section has ever experienced. Wednesday morning the Tombigbee River, already full, began rising rapidly. By Thursday all the low lands were submerged, the river having risen 14 feet that night. It continued to rise all that day and by Friday morning it was seven feet higher than was ever known before. Black and Luxapilis creeks joined their waters with the Tombigbee and the Col-umbus was then literally an island with fives miles of water in every direction. There has been great loss of life, and an immense amount of property dean immedise information property de-stoyed. Fourteen negroes were drawned within a few miles of this place. A low estimate puts the loss of life at fifty in this county. Up to this time no whites have been reported drawned.

The flood has carried destruction in all directions. Hundreds of homes have been swept away, miles and miles of fences destroyed, and the loss of mules and cattle is fearful.

A Mystery Cleared Up.

Pono, Cal., April 12.—The mystery of the robbery of George E. Holden of New York of $8,000 in a Pullman car last November has just been cleared up. Holden has identified the securities which prove that the money and bonds were stolen by Oliver Curtis Perry, who made the sensational attempt to rob the New York Central train last February. Perry was on the train with Holden, but represented himself as a New Mexican cattle rancher. After stealing Hol-den's valuables he left the train in the night. Pinkerton detectives have found the bonds and jewelry, but Perry spent all the money.

For Attempting to Poison His Wife,

NEWARK, April 12 .- Damiano, the Italian saloon keeper who was arrested Saturday night charged with attempting to poison his wife by giving her arsonic. has been held to await the action of the has been held to await the action of the grand jury. Patrick Mullin, his com-panion, is held as a witness. Mullin has confessed that Damiano intended to kill his wife. It is understood that Mullin first informed the police of the affair, as be had become frightened at Damiano's talk about poisoning his wife.

Efforts to Commend Parkhurst Failed. NEW YOAR, April 12.—At the meeting of the New York Methodist preachers, the Rev. Dr. Atkinson, of Newark, N. J., offered a resolution commending the sermon of Dr. Parkhurst in which he so vigorously attacked the police and city authorities, but it made such a commotion and so many energetic protests against committing the Methodist preachers to the indorsement, that the Doctor withdrew his resolution of excise to pass upon written com-plaints of excise violation within thirty days after the bearing in a case is closed; Rich Salvationists to Work in the Slums of New York.

ROMANTIC STORY OF A COUPLE.

Mrs and Mrs. Montgomery as Soldiers of the Gross.

"hey Are Wealthy and Devote Their Time and Riches to the Advancement of Re-Ugion-Both Are Privates in General Booth's Army, and Ardont Believers in the Faith Cure, to Which They Attribate Their Recovery from Disease.

NEW YORK, April 12 .- Mr. and Mrs-George Montgomery, a wealthy California couple, who belong to the rank and file of the Salvation Army, have arrived in this city, and will begin to study the condition of the people in the slums.

The story of this couple, who have dedicated their wealth and energy to the advancement of religion, is strangely interesting, and reads like a page from a romance

George Montgomery is a native Callfornian. On the Pacific slope he is rated as a millionaire. He ownes several mines in Mexico and he has valuable holdings in real estate. In his younger days he was one of the gay young men of San Francisco. He fell a victim to a fatal disease, and was told that he could not live. He was cured, as he firmly believes, by faith. His wife was formerly Carrie Judd, of Buffalo. Her father was O. K. Judd, for thirty years in the employ of the Ameri-can Express Company. Carrie was a delicate girl, and in her youth was prosdelicate girl, and in her youth was pros-trated by a spinal trouble that doctors pronounced incurable. She was bed-ridden for two years, but was miracul-ously cured, as she also believes, by the prayers of a faith healer, a colored woman, Mrs. Edward Mix, who lived in Walcottville, Conn. This was in 1879. The sumakable sume sum its meetilar The remarkable cure and its peculiar

The remarkable cure and its peculiar features are well remembered by the residents of Buffalo. When Carrie Judd and George Mont-gomery met at a faith cure convention in Chicago in June, 1889, the similarity of their experiences was the magnet that down them toward such other. In Max drew them toward each other. In May, 1800, they were married in Buffalo. While on their welding trip they chanced to attend a meeting of the Salvation Army in Boston. Their attention was arrested by the earnest spirit of the soldiers of the cross. On their return to San Francisco, Mr.

and Mrs. Montgomery established a mis-sion in the alums of that city which they conducted for a year or more. Last Thanksgiving Day they joined the Salvation Army in San Francisco, their action causing considerable of a sensation. Mr. Montgomery has founded a S

Mr. Montgomery has founded a Salva-tiou Army town near Oakland, Cal. It is called Beulah. There a refuge for fallen women is soon to be erected on land given by Mr. Montgomery, as well as a home for superanuated Salvation Army soldiers. In addition to these good works, Mr. Montgomery proposes to open a great earmy meeting ground at to open a great camp meeting ground at Cazadena, 85 miles from San Francisco. He owns 1,359 acres of land there and a summer hotel. The place is described as extremely deautiful. The groves of mammoth redwood trees, some of them 75 feet around and 300 feet high, are noted for their grandeur.

They stated in substance that the Committee ou Foreign Relations was going too far in attempting to secure the re-moval of hn honorable gentleman who was known never to have betrayed the trust imposed in him. Senators knew only too well where accounts of executive proceedings came from; they knew that they did not emanate from Mr. Young

Senator Manderson was particularly vehament in his desunciation of such a course as the Committee would have the Senate pursue; to make a scapegrace of an innocent man, deprive him of a position he had filled well and cast upon him a stigma which he did not deserve.

Senator Camerou read a letter from Mr. Young claiming the right to be heard, requesting an investigation and asserting his entire innocemen. Mr. Cam-eron made a short appeal in behalf of Mr. Young's releption. Other Senators also spoke in behalf of

Mr. Young, some of them urging an investigation, but Mr. Sherman's per-gonal appeal for the exercise of Senatorial courtesy in sustaining the Com-mittee on Foreign Relations had its effect, and the resolution was adopted by a majority of ten. It was directed that Mr. Young be informed of the action of the Senate.

The session waxed warm at times and was interesting by reason of its personal expect. Many Senators privately ex-pressed themselves in conversation with olleagues after the final vote had been taken, that the action of the Senate was outrageous, and some Senators who voted for the resolution acknowledged that they had been actuated in so voting by the appeal for the indorsement of the Committee on Foreign Relations more than by the merits of the case.

Newspaper correspondents in Wash-ington were treated without gloves by Mr. Hale and some others in favor of the resolution. An effort will be made by Senators who believe Mr. Young has been treated unjustly to have the de-tailed vote on the resolution made public.
