THE NATIONAL GAME.

Battles for the League Championship Begin To-day. NEW YORK, April 12.—To-day the League diamonds will resound to the clash of bats, the hoarse cries of coaches and the howls of an enthusiastic public. The fact that twelve clubs are contending for the coveted flag will have a tendency to sharpen public interest, and it is likely that fully as great a number of people will witness the opening games to-day as at the beginning of any League season in recent years.

The Giants will play in Philadelphia, where they will tackle Harry Wright's Quakers. There is no prophesying upon the result. It will be a hammer-and-tongs battle, full of dash and ginger, and it is possible that over 12,000 people will witness it.

Although not exactly in the best of condition at present, the Giants are "comers," and their admirers should not lose heart at the loss of half a dozen games. President Day is confident that the boys are pennant winners.

Johnny Ward's men will make their debut in Baltimore against Barrie's Orioles. John has a great team this year and will make the best of them hustles. A large crowd of Brooklynites left for Baltimore last night and Ward will not lack vocal encouragement.

The champion Boston's should not have much trouble in defeating the Washingtons at the capital, although Nash's men have not been putting up their usual game of late. As far as the Western contingent are concerned, Anson will be extremely lucky if he gets away from St. Louis with his scalp. In Cincinnati the fight between the teams of Comiskey and Hanlon will be one of the closest of the day's series of battles. Cleveland and Louisville are also well matched. The weather prophets predict a fair day, which means large crowds all over the country.

ACCEPTED OUR PROTECTION. Distinguished Chileans Now Being Entertained at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Washington is entertaining just now two distinguished Chilean gentlemen—Juan E. Mackenna and Julio Banados Espinosa. They were members of Balmaceda's Cabinet, which was overthrown in the revolution of last year, and who later, were among those who accepted the hospitality and security of the American Legation in Santiago.

Their visit to Washington is for the purpose of expressing to Secretary Blaine their gratitude for the favor shown them by Minister Egan, at a time when his protection was the means of saving their lives and their property.

They are profuse in the expressions of their thanks for the service rendered. Messrs. Mackenna and Espinosa are making a trip through the United States, expecting to remain here some time.

CARPENTER'S PAINTING. The Present From American Women to Queen Victoria.

LONDON, April 12.—The Queen has just sent another testimonial of her appreciation of Carpenter's International Arbitration picture, which has been placed by her orders in the royal banquetting room of Windsor Castle, to Mrs. Carson, of Newburgh, N. Y., who presented the painting to Her Majesty in the name of the women of the United States.

In addition to the royal acknowledgment from the Queen dated February 27, the day the court mourning for the Duke of Clarence expired, Her Majesty has now sent a second letter asking Mrs. Carson's acceptance of a full length portrait of herself, mounted and framed, with the date in Her Majesty's handwriting, together with her autograph, in the right hand corner of the picture.

Goron, head of the Detective Department. When the latter came to question the outlaw, he found that instead of examining Ravachol, he was being examined by him.

"Don't you see, remarked the dynamiter, 'I am the apostle of the Anarchical idea, which is the idea of the future. Others will take my place hereafter. They will be an army.'"

DESPERATE TRAIN ROBBERS. Three Captured and One Killed in a Fight. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 12.—A desperate encounter took place yesterday near Falkwith, Morgan County, between four black train robbers and a posse of officers. Tom Wright, one of the robbers, was killed. Tom Head, Tom Randall and Henry Williams, the others, were arrested and put in jail.

When freight train No. 72, on the Louisville & Nashville road, reached White yesterday morning, four negroes attempted in daylight to break open a sealed freight car. When Conductor Martin and his brakemen interfered, the negroes drew pistols and defied them. Just then the train pulled out. The trainmen jumped aboard, the robbers shooting at them.

At Falkwith the officers were notified, and a posse of officers and section men started in search of the robbers, who were met near town. The negroes refused to surrender and drew pistols. A fight occurred, both sides firing several shots.

One of the robbers, Tom Wright, was killed. Tom Randall, another, was captured. The other two fled. Conductor Rudder, of a construction train, boarded his engine and pursued them, capturing Tom Head, after a desperate resistance, on Sand Mountain. Henry Williams, the fourth man, was caught at Lacotte. He made a confession in which he said the gang were the same ones who, on the night of March 30, held up and robbed the Georgia Pacific mail train at Weems, seven miles east of here. He also said they were the parties who attempted to wreck the Louisville & Nashville train near Boyle's recently, and shot at the flagman.

They reside here and are most desperate characters. Their captors will get the $5,000 reward offered by the Governor for their arrest.

He claims to have settled a quarter of a million Germans in Brazil. The Government is considering the proposition.

SPRECKELS IN LUCK

Said to Have Made $5,000,000 by the Sugar Deal.

THE TRUST HAD TO KNUCKLE. It Became Weary of the Struggle Against the King.

Some New Facts Given by One of Spreckels' Most Intimate Friends—The Story of How He Used the Sugar Trust to His Own Advantage—The Old Man is Immensely Wealthy and Made it All Out of Sugar.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 12.—Since Claus Spreckels, the sugar millionaire, returned here, there have been many conjectures as to the real status of the compromise between him and the Sugar Trust. Some of the trust people declared that the combine had brought Spreckels to his knees, while Spreckels' friends assert that he had made practically his own terms. One of Spreckels' most intimate friends gave new facts in regard to the recent dicker between the California sugar king and the trust. He said: "The formation of the trust about five years ago was a surprise to Spreckels, but he was still more surprised when the trust gave him the option of going in with them or being crushed. Their offensive way of bluffing him aroused the old man's wrath, and he defied them to do their worst. While they were laying plans to shut down the refineries here he went to Philadelphia, built a $3,000,000 refinery, and opened an active fight in their own camp."

"They stood the competition until this winter, when they became weary of the struggle and agreed to Spreckels' terms, $8,000,000 for his Philadelphia refinery and liberty to control all the sugar interests on the coast. So Spreckels came back with his $5,000,000 in profits, ready to meet the Hawaiian planters and secure control of all the sugar crop of the islands. Spreckels gave $1,000,000 each to his three children. The old man is worth fully $20,000,000, all made out of sugar."

A son, Louis Wohlman, now a pauper and will make a contest for the property on the ground that the woman who lived with his father was not the latter's legal wife. Proof has been forwarded from Warsaw which shows that Wohlman's wife, whom he deserted 40 years ago, is living there in destitute circumstances.
