THE EVENING HERALD.

ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.
Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

We would like to know who attempted to bribe you, Mr. Lamb, by offering you a block of electric railway stock?

COUNCILMAN LAMB has publicly stated that an attempt was made to bribe him with a block of electric railway stock. He should now publicly state who attempted to bribe him.

We are still anxious to know if "date" will give the particulars of the written agreement into which they entered before Council was re-organized. Some say the agreement was only binding for the re-organization. Others say it is binding until the close of the present fiscal year. If the latter statement is true the public should be given the particulars of the agreement.

ADVERTISERS in the Sunday News now know that their announcements are read by very, very few of our people. Mr. Lamb's alleged vindication appeared in that paper on Sunday, yet the gentleman, because of the limited circulation of the News, was compelled to print a garbled account of the meeting in circular form. Moral: Advertise in a paper that is generally read.

THE committee appointed at the mass meeting on Friday night by Chairman Holloper to draft a document for presentation to the Borough Council at its meeting on Thursday evening urging the extension of the electric railway, will meet this evening. The gentlemen of the committee are: Hon. M. C. Watson, M. Owens, Charles Strouse, M. J. Scanlan and J. B. Monaghan, all business men on South Main street.

THE GIBSON AND GALLAGHER FIGHT

IN THE GIRARDVILLE OPERA HOUSE LAST NIGHT.

IT WAS A BRUTAL EXHIBITION.

The Combatants Were Allowed to Fight as They Pleas'd and Fools Were Not Regarded—Gallagher Kicked Gibson—Declared a Draw.

JOHN L. SULLIVAN would have been disgusted had he witnessed the alleged glove fight in the Girardville opera house last night. It was a fake, pure and simple. As an exhibition of the "manly art" it was a disgusting imitation that would have caused even "Chawley" Mitchell to shed tears of indignation.

About a month ago William Gibson, of town, and John Gallagher, of Girardville, were matched to fight fifteen rounds with five-ounce gloves for a purse of $100. The two men met in the Girardville opera house at 9 o'clock last night. Gibson weighed 151 pounds and Gallagher 133. Gallagher was the favorite until the close of the first round, when the odds turned to 2 to 1 in favor of Gibson. Gallagher excelled in height, weight and reach, but was not "in it" so far as science was concerned.

T. Murphy seconded Gallagher. H. Williams looked after Gibson. Con. O'Brien, of Pottsville, acted as referee and Mart Cardin, of Girardville, was the time-keeper.

Gibson was the first to lead. Gallagher rushed and Gibson stopped him with a right hander on the nose, drawing first blood. In the second round there were but few exchanges and the honors were even. Gibson had the best of the third and fourth rounds. Gallagher excelled in the fifth.

In the sixth round Gibson forced Gallagher to his corner. Gibson's friends claimed that the referee stopped the round too soon.

Gibson forced Gallagher to the wall in the seventh round and the latter was in a limp condition as Gibson pounded him.

Gibson led in the eighth round and Gallagher clinched. Both men fell, with Gallagher on top. While they were down Gallagher punched Gibson and when the former got up he kicked Gibson on the right shoulder and head.

Gallagher's actions enraged the audience and the referee stopped the fight by declaring it a draw.

Several claims of foul were made during the fight, but the referee would not entertain them. He said the fight was more for blood than anything else and no claims of foul would be allowed.

If the Girardville opera house is to be rented for such disgusting affairs its career will be suddenly cut short.

A Boy Injured.
William Reese, the 15-year-old son of Rees Reese, of South West street, was injured in the West Shenandoah mine yesterday by being squeezed between a car and a piece of timber. The boy was employed as a driver. The full extent of his injuries will not be known for a day or two.

A Correspondent Reviews Borough Affairs and Strikes Hard.

EDITOR HERALD:—I noticed in your paper last week a very important item calling the attention of our borough officials to the filthy condition of our streets and alleys. Whether they have decided to better the sanitary condition of these thoroughfares or not remains to be seen. It would seem to me that our borough officials take no interest in the health of their constituency, but rather take delight in waging war against some who may differ from them as to politics, or otherwise, thus allowing all the major points of interest to the general taxpayers to become a secondary consideration at their meetings. As to whether the Council or any member thereof has a desire to down the social of Finney gang or not, is it right that the people of Shenandoah should suffer on this account? Certainly not. I am acquainted with Mr. Finney and have always found him a perfect gentleman. I am also acquainted with the members of Council and regard them as far as I know—respectable men; yet I do say that when a body, such as our Council, is elected to look after the interests of those whom they represent and fail to do it, fully, or from a want of knowledge to discharge the duties incumbent upon them, they are drones in the hive and ought to be stepped down and got out. It has been often remarked, and much to be regretted, that in this borough the best recommendation a candidate can have to secure the most votes to elect him to Council or School Board is that he pledge himself to be a party to down some "gang," or promise to help consummate some mean, unmanly, dishonest, scheme to benefit some low, groveling money-seeker. The welfare of the borough taxpayers is voted in this election by the people, and those elected should be the most intelligent. And right here, let every good thinking taxpayer ask him self the question: Have I voted for the most intelligent men, and are those who are responsible for the healthy sanitary condition of our town attending to their duty? And after some reflection take a walk through some of the streets and alleys and note the heaps of ashes and garbage from the kitchens which lay for months before being removed and which are laboratories voluntarily manufacturing deadly gases which contaminate the air and prevent us from breathing a pure and healthy atmosphere. I am without fear of contradiction that any one making an investigation as above suggested would readily determine that disease and death are consequent to negligent and ignorant officials in not looking, or not being able to look after, the health of the people they represent. I have been a resident of Shenandoah for many years and noticed that very little attention has been given to cleanliness which gives health and comfort. I have also given some attention to the expenditure of our borough money, and must say that the old adage, "Pound foolish and penny wise" has been too often exemplified, for money spent for work done of a temporary character means a continual drainage on the treasury without accomplishing a necessary permanent result. Hoping I have not taken up too much of your valuable space, and that you may by your infrequent and very much appreciated remarks be the means of arousing those interested to inaugurate a better system of keeping our town clean in the future. A RESIDENT.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved
From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Grand Scenery.
"Joe," as it will be produced at Ferguson's theatre on Thursday evening, will be remarkable for the immense amount of elaborate scenery introduced during the production. The scenery was painted expressly for this play and covers 8,000 feet of canvas. It is remarkably realistic and striking. The scenes depicting the burning ship on the Delaware river, the Hudson river by moonlight and the great storm scene in the third act are superb. The "Honest Rube" Stock Company is very strong this season.

DESPERATE FIGHT IN THE FIRST WARD.

HUNS AND POLES HAVE A DESPERATE FIGHT.

SEVERAL OF THEM INJURED

It Was a Regular Riot for a While and Considerable Difficulty Was Experienced in Suppressing It—Four of Them Placed Under Arrest.

POLES and Hungarians numbering fifty or sixty engaged in desperate combat Bradley's row in the First ward yesterday afternoon and the special police in that section were kept busy making arrests. For a time the fight was a regular riot. Sticks, stones and base ball bats were used on all sides and the men, who seemed wild with anger, struck right and left, indifferent as to who received the blows.

It was a very small thing that led to the outbreak. A Hungarian was carrying a pitcher of beer to his boarding house and a boy, engaged with others in a game of baseball, tried to throw the ball to one of the players, but struck the pitcher instead and broke it, allowing the beer to ripple to the ground. The Hun dropped the broken pitcher and pounced upon the boys. Polish men went to the assistance of the youths and their friends of the Hungarian jumped in, whereupon the fight became a general one. Several of the men were pretty badly cut and bruised. "Charley" Timan, who happened to be driving near the scene, says "They went into the fight to kill and I am surprised that some of them were not killed." Squire Monaghan issued several warrants and four of the men were placed in the lockup. The police are on the lookout for others.

FROM THE "RAP."
Again We Hear From the Famous "Powder Keg Johnny."

The opening and operation of the electric railway through Rappahannock has made the place as lively as Shenandoah in a way night. Everybody seems delighted and those who haven't a nickel wherewith to pay fare feel exceedingly dejected. The young ladies are especially delighted over the opening of the road, as it enables them to visit and receive visits frequently. They always have company now. As a saver of shoe leather the "electric" takes the lead.

The novelty of the road will not wear off for some time. There are many people in the valley and each one must be satisfied as to what a ride on the electric road is like.

The road will have a bad effect on some of the company stores along the line because the women and children can now visit Shenandoah, Girardville or Ashland and return home in good time. Heretofore they were obliged to patronize the nearest store, await their turn at the crowded counter, and then wait for hours for the store wagon to deliver the goods.

I wonder at the people in Shenandoah kicking against the road on every little pretext. The people in this valley would be satisfied with its rails, rather than be deprived of the road. It is a great accommodation and the men who engineered the scheme and furnished the capital to put it in operation deserve our thanks. Thanks are especially due to his Honor, Judge Sadler, Hon. D. D. Phillips and Major John P. Finney. In my mind "Little Johnny" Finney is the best class hustler in this valley, more so than many think. He has been the most abused man in the valley for some time, but the attacks have only served to make him more popular.

It behooves our people to make improvements about their premises. There are too many unlighted buildings and fences. Plenty paint and whitewash should be used in honor of the new means of travel. The "Rap" is not a large place, but that is no reason for not putting on a store clothes appearance once in a while.

The McCarthy Funeral.
The funeral of the late Cornelius J. McCarthy took place this morning at 8:30 o'clock. High Mass was celebrated in the Annunciation church, Rev. H. P. O'Reilly officiating. The church was crowded with friends of the deceased. After the services the remains were taken to the Lehigh depot and placed on the 10:15 train for Shamokin. The friends filled five cars. The remains were encased in a handsome cloth-covered casket on the top which rested three beautiful floral offerings, two crosses, and a heart, the latter bearing the words, "My Husband." On one of the crosses was the name "Cornelius." It was presented by ten friends.

Obituary.
Dr. William Owens, brother of Noah J. and Moses Owens, of town, died at Shemokin last night.

HERE IS A POSER.

A Story an Ex-Borough Official Will Swear To.

Councilman Lewis' tale of attempted bribery, with the alleged briber in the dark, has brought to the front the following story: Before the last re-organization of the Borough Council a now ex-official went into a certain store in town and met there a Councilman, who said, "Go up stairs, — wants to see you." The visitor followed the instructions and met —, who said, "Everything is all right, but one thing. They cannot agree on Hon. Goodman and that place is still open. If I were you I would go and see —." The visitor asked, "Why should I go and see —?" To which an answer came, "Because they haven't confirmed Hon. Goodman and that place is still open. Suppose you go and see — and offer him $100?" The visitor in a decided tone, answered, "No! If I have to pay for the job I don't want it."

As to the truth of this story the HERALD has the word of an ex-official with the assurance that he is willing to swear to it.

His Life in Danger.
Special Officers D. J. Connors and Anthony Alexis last week took Peter and Joe Sorbolls and Peter Vauganski to the Pottsville jail to await the result of injuries they inflicted upon one Joe Ruskowsky. The men are still in jail and last night it was reported that the injured man was in a critical condition.

Lord & Thomas.
A few weeks since among the list of corporation licenses, issued by the Secretary of this state, was one issued to Messrs. Lord & Thomas. This advertising firm has become incorporated for the primary object of giving employees that have been with them a number of years an opportunity to become interested in the business. This co-operative feature has become popular with some of the larger firms in our city, and has proved a profitable move on their part. There is no doubt the same success will follow Lord & Thomas. They have made a name which is a synonym of honest and fair dealing, and their business has grown to large proportions.—Chicago Tribune.

Parade and Ball.
The ball of the Phoenix Hose Company in Robbins' opera house last night was a splendid success. The attendance was large and everything passed off with entire satisfaction to the patrons and management. The music was furnished by Prof. King's orchestra. Before the ball there was a parade in which the Phoenix, Rescue and Columbia companies and the St. Patrick's band participated.

Electric Bumping Time.
The electric cars now leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 6 a. m. and leave at intervals of 45 minutes thereafter until 11 p. m. This schedule will be subject to a change from day to day, as the work of putting in the turnouts progresses. The miners will find the early morning cars convenient.

The Deal Changes.
It is authoritatively stated that the Reading and Lehigh Valley Railroad changes under the "deal" will positively go into effect Saturday next. The Lehigh Valley local freight train runs over up to the P. & R. freight depot yesterday.
