THE EVENING HERALD. ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

EX-GOVERNOR CAMPBELL, of Ohio, will certainly get a place on the Democratic ticket, as he demands either first place or no place.

SENATOR HILL claims to be a Jacksonian Democrat; yet while he was in South Carolina he praised John C. Calhoun to the skies, Oh, Andy!

QUAY is still strong with the Republicans. Nine out of every ten attendees at the state convention yesterday were admirers of the junior Senator.

COL. WOOLLEY, of Cincinnati, suggests Gray, of Delaware, and Boies, of Iowa, as "matchless" for national Democratic purposes. That would indeed be a wild and Woolley ticket.

YESTERDAY'S gathering at Harrisburg was decidedly a Blaine assemblage. When the great statesman's name was mentioned the applause went through the large hall in a tremendous volume and continued so long that business was entirely suspended. Such a manifestation was quite unexpected. It showed that Mr. Blaine is the idol of Pennsylvania Republicans.

"A TARIFF for revenue only," is the Democratic doctrine. Now, what does that mean? It means a duty on such articles as are not grown or manufactured in this country, or so low a duty on such as are, as to allow foreign articles of the same kind to compete in our markets with the home product. Tea, coffee, India rubber and sugar are the leading articles on which a duty should be laid to secure a tariff for revenue only. How would the people like that kind of a tariff?

OFFICIAL P. & R. RAILROAD ORDERS.

CHANGES IN THE RUNNING OF PASSENGER TRAINS.

WILL GO INTO EFFECT ON MONDAY

The Philadelphia and Reading Passenger Trains Will be Run Over the Lehigh Valley Railroad From Town to Packer Colliery No. 2.

READING Railroad changes of considerable importance will go into effect in a week next Monday. The company officially announced to-day that commencing next Monday all passenger trains on its Shenandoah branch will leave and arrive at the Lehigh Valley station, and the old station at Centre and Union streets will be abandoned so far as passenger business is concerned.

It was thought that something definite regarding the proposed working force of the company would follow upon the heels of this announcement, but diligent inquiry to-day failed to lead to an inkling in that connection. This part of the arrangements is carefully guarded by secrecy and it looks as if the plans for the working force will not be made known until almost the last minute.

It is certain, however, that there will be a reduction of the Lehigh depot force and then some of the people now employed there will either be laid off or transferred to the P. & R. freight depot on Main street where all the freight business of both the Lehigh and Reading roads will be transacted after Saturday, next. The fate of the P. & R. passenger depot is in the balance, but it is quite likely that the combined freight business will make it a branch of the Main street depot.

That there will be any changes in either the Lehigh or Reading schedule on account of the change next Monday is not known. It is believed that no changes will be made but that the trains of both lines will make their usual connections, with the exception that no passenger trains will be run through Wm. Penn. The Reading trains will leave their main road at Lost Creek and cross over to the Lehigh Valley road, making connection at Packer colliery No. 2. The trains will lay on the Lehigh Valley side track upon their arrival here until the time for departure.

The old bridge over the stream at Lost Creek has been replaced by an entire new structure, and to-day the company had a ballast train and a large force of men at work on the tracks there. The road will be ready for traffic by Saturday night.

Jubilate John.
John M. Boek, letter carrier No. 5, of town, to-day received notice of his eligibility for a position as railway mail clerk from the United States Civil Service Commissioners at Washington, D. C. The notice states that Mr. Boek successfully passed the examination at Williamsport on March 11th, last, with a general average of 79.84. The average required for eligibility is 70. Mr. Boek has been made happy by the news and his many friends, who predicted his success, are extending congratulations.

The Russian Relief Concert.
The concert to be given in Ferguson's theatre Saturday night in aid of the fund for the relief of the starving Russians will be one of the finest musical events held in this town for some time. The Grant Cornet Band and Shenandoah Choral Union will furnish selections of a high grade. But aside from the character of the entertainment, the concert is one that appeals strongly to the hearty support of our townsmen, as its object is one of humanity.

Pure and Wholesome Quality
Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system effectually, it promotes the health and comfort of all who use it, and with millions it is the best and only remedy.

OUR HAT IS OFF.

What Our Brother Journalists Think of Our Special Edition.

We publish below a few clippings from our exchanges complimenting the HERALD upon the excellent "special" edition issued from this office.

From Shamokin Herald.

Saturday the Shenandoah HERALD published a twelve-page souvenir edition commemorative of the new street railway opening. The edition is clever indeed and Mr. Boyer and his able corps deserve credit.

From Evening Chronicle.

The Shenandoah HERALD on Saturday issued a twelve-page souvenir edition in honor of the opening of the electric railway. The paper was profusely illustrated, nicely printed, and reflects great credit on the HERALD establishment.

From Sunday News.

From Ashland Telegram.

The Shenandoah HERALD outdid itself in its souvenir edition on Saturday. The HERALD is improving.

From Wilkes-Barre Record.

The Shenandoah EVENING HERALD sends out an eight-page souvenir that is a decided credit to all engaged in its production. It is handsomely illustrated, its columns teem with interesting reading matter and the press work and paper are first class.

From Pottsville Journal.

The Shenandoah HERALD on Saturday signalled the opening of the electric railway in that town by issuing a handsome twelve-page edition. The paper used upon this occasion was of a superior quality, and the publishers of the HERALD are to be congratulated upon the success of their efforts. The edition is filled with interesting reading matter, besides displaying the business establishments of the town in neatly arranged advertisements.

From Shamokin Dispatch.

The souvenir twelve page edition of the Shenandoah HERALD, commemorative of the opening for public travel of the Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Girardville and Ashland Electric Railway, is a credit to the town from which it is issued and stamps Editors Boyer and Watkins as enterprising and hustling newsmen who are always on the alert to supply their readers with a paper that is brimful of the good things of this life. The HERALD was foremost in the agitation of the new electric railway and to it is due much of the credit for securing this innovation, which will no doubt advance the business interests of the people. Under the supervision of Maj. Geo. F. Finney the cars are now being successfully run from Shenandoah to Girardville a distance of eight miles, and the work of extending the road to Ashland and Mahanoy City will be completed within the next sixty days.

PERSONAL.

C. Holdeman and son visited Philadelphia yesterday.

Messrs. B. J. Yost and H. C. Boyer returned from Harrisburg last evening.

George Folmer, Jr., of Frackville, was in town last evening. He will soon take up his residence in Philadelphia.

Ephraim Phillips, of Pottsville, who was in town the other day, felt like kicking himself when he stood at the corner of Main and Centre streets looking at the Ferguson House. It was a case of "what might have been."

Imitators and Impostors.

The unequalled success of Alcock's Porous Plasters as an external remedy has induced unscrupulous parties to offer imitations, which they endeavor to sell on the reputation of Alcock's. It is an absurdity to speak of them in the same category as the genuine porous plaster. Their pretensions are unfounded, their vaunted superiority to or equality with Alcock's a false pretense.

The ablest medical practitioners and chemists and thousands of grateful patients unite in declaring Alcock's Porous Plasters the best external remedy ever produced.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

Make the Move Now.
If Conclinton wants to be true to themselves and their constituents they should authorize the appointment of a Board of Health and decide the eligibility of membership for the police force, as called for by the ordinance. There are other important matters to be considered, but these two should receive first attention.

Post Office Don'ts.
Don't fail to give the street and house number of the person for whom mail matter is intended in addressing it to a city or large town.
Don't mail any letter until you are sure that it is properly stamped.
Don't fail to place the stamp in the upper right hand corner.
Don't write on the envelope "In haste," "Care of postmaster," etc.; it does no good and tends to confusion in the rapid handling of mail matter.
Don't fail to bear in mind that it is unlawful to enclose matter of a higher class in one that is lower; e. g., merchandise, in newspapers.

Cummings is the town agent for the roofing. 4-13-eod-3w

SUNDAY ADVERTISING.

A Court Holds That For B. Cannot be Recovered.

Some time ago the HERALD stated that Sunday advertising was illegal and when "de ate" of our Borough Council decided that all publications of borough affairs ordered by Council should be given to the Sunday News and the HERALD should not receive any, the HERALD again made the declaration. A decision sustaining the position taken by the HERALD has just been rendered by Judge Clark, of Atlantic, Ga., in a suit brought by George P. Rowell & Co., against the Walter Taylor Drug Company. In 1889 Walter Taylor, as manager of the company, wrote to Rowell for an estimate for advertising in a number of Western papers. The agency furnished the estimate and it was accepted by him and the advertising was published. The results were not so great as Taylor expected, and he requested Rowell & Co. to discontinue the publication of the matter furnished. This they declined to do, and wrote Taylor that they would continue to publish a list of the advertising. He refused to pay the bill in full when it was rendered, and suit was brought for the amount due. The case was brought to trial and when counsel for Rowell read the bill furnished it was found that a considerable portion was for Sunday advertising. Judge Clark ruled that Sunday advertising was not legal, and in consequence could not be sued for.

"Uncle Hiram."
This season "Uncle Hiram" has been entirely re-written and revised and is now one of the strongest sensational comedy dramas before the public. A special effort has been made in the way of scenic effects which appeals to every eye from the gallery to the logs. Mr. Woodhull has for years been one of our cleverest comedians and author and now his versatility in producing a saw mill and railroad train in full working order in view of the audience. The latter howl themselves hoarse over the thrilling situations and pack the house nightly. A competent supporting company, including Miss Trija Griswold, the pretty singer and dancer, ably seconded Mr. Woodhull and faithfully portrays the various characters. The plot is simple and treats of a conspiracy to blight a man's reputation, but the dénouement is a happy ending and ends happily.—Saturday Daily.

"Uncle Hiram" appears at Ferguson's theatre to-morrow night.
