HARRISBURG, Pa., April 21.—When the Republican State Convention reassembled yesterday afternoon the Committee on Permanent Organization recommended E. K. Martin of Lancaster for permanent chairman, and he was accordingly selected.

Nominations for Judge of the Supreme Court were then in order, and the following names were presented: Judge John Dean, of Blair; Judge John G. There was great confusion during the progress of the eight ballots taken before a nomination was made. The last ballot stood: Dean 133, Henderson 127, Ewing 7, Sadler 1.

Judge Dean's nomination was made unanimous, and the convention then took a recess until 9 o'clock.

BAY STATE REPUBLICANS.

An Enthusiastic Convention Yesterday—Delegates Elected.

BOSTON, April 21.—The Republican State Convention for the election of four delegates at large and four alternates to the National Convention at Minneapolis, June 21, was held in Tremont Temple yesterday. Mr. Roschinsky, the secretary of the Republican State Committee, read the call at 11:15, and Mr. E. S. Draper was made temporary chairman of the convention.

After the appointment of the regular committees the Committee on Permanent Organization made their report, and Hon. William C. Lovering of Taunton, the permanent chairman, was conducted to the chair. Mr. Lovering was greeted with applause, and made a lengthy address.

The platform was then adopted. It declares against free silver; declares that the substitution of a free trade for a protective tariff would be fraught with disaster; commends the system of commercial treaties which seeks the rational expansion of our foreign trade arrangements having regard to the peculiar laws and products of each nation; commends the Civil Service law; denounces the revolutionary acts of the Democrats in Republican States where they have gained control, either by accident or fraud; favors the enactment of a national bankruptcy law, and endorses the administration of President Harrison.

Nominations were then made and the convention, after taking a ballot, adjourned, and upon reconvening the result was announced as follows: Whole number of ballots, 1,129; necessary to a choice, 665; W. Murray Crane of Dalton, 1,091; William W. Crapo of New Boston, 1,060; William Cogswell of Salina, 1,057; J. Q. A. Brackett of Arlington, 989; Oliver Ames of Easton, 107; Elmer H. Copen of Somerville, 99; scattering, 18.

Messrs. Crane, Crapo, Cogswell and Brackett were declared elected.

Delegates Instructed to Vote for Harrison to the End.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 21.—The State Convention of old line Republicans continued in session until daylight. George W. Murray, a negro from Sumter, was chosen permanent chairman, and the colored portion of the convention saw to it that they had equal share of all the offices filled.

Resolutions were adopted denouncing the so-called "reform" or white man Republican party in this State as a fraudulent imposture; endorsing the present National administration, and reiterating loyalty to the principles of National Republicanism.

The following were elected delegates-at-large to the National Republican Convention at Minneapolis: E. A. Webster, white, present State Chairman and Collector of Internal Revenue; Elery M. Brynton, ex-State Chairman and ex-Collector; Dr. W. B. Crum of Charleston, a light mulatto and E. H. Beas of Darlington, also colored.

A resolution was adopted instructing the delegation to support the nomination of Harrison for President as long as his name is before the convention.

Indian Democratic State Convention. INDIANAPOLIS, April 21.—The Democratic State Convention meets in this city to-day. It will choose four delegates

TO SING IN OPERA

Sister Mary Celesta Leaves Convent for Stage.

It Is Thought She Will Renounce Both Her Religion and Vow.

Sensation Among Catholics

Miss Lulu Wilcox, a Member of One of Hartford's Most Aristocratic Families, Entered St. Joseph's Convent Fifteen Years Ago—She Was a Convert to Catholicism—No Reason Given for Her Sudden Determination.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 21.—A bombshell has been thrown into the camp of Catholicism in this part of Connecticut by the withdrawal of the most prominent nun in the State from Mount St. Joseph's Convent to become a member of a comic opera company. Hartford people remember the stir occasioned some 15 years ago by the conversion from Protestantism to the Roman Catholic Church of Miss Lulu Wilcox, a member of one of the most aristocratic families in the city, and a beautiful, charming and brilliant girl.

It was while pursuing her secular studies that Miss Wilcox became imbued with the idea that Catholicity, and that alone, would work out her soul's salvation. With her, to think was to act, and, though bitterly opposed by her people when she formally announced her change of faith, she was not deterred.

Shortly after her conversion she entered the convent as a postulant, and in due time she was regularly received into the Sisterhood of Mercy.

Only the bare fact that Miss Wilcox has withdrawn from the order is known. That she left voluntarily, however, is beyond question. During all her years as a sister her conduct had been exemplary. Miss Wilcox entered the convent in the full bloom of youth; she leaves with all the charm of a gracious young womanhood. Her religious name is Sister Mary Celesta. She was an especial favorite of all the scores of pupils who have attended the seminary since she became a member of the order.

Whatever may be the reason why Miss Wilcox left the convent she was led to make that resolve quickly. Only the day before she gave up her garb and ring to the Mother Superior she seemed to be contented with her lot to the extent of extreme happiness.

When she announced her intention of leaving she was prevailed upon to remain until the bishop, who was away, would return, when she could apply for a dispensation; but she declined to do this, saying that she had made up her mind to leave and that it was best that she should go at once. This looks as if she meant to renounce the Roman Catholic religion as well as her vow. She intends to join a comic opera troupe, where her musical accomplishments will be utilized.

ANNIE WALDEN'S CASE.

Beginning of Her Trial for the Murder of Her Youthful Husband.

NEW YORK, April 21.—Annie Walden, the 21-year-old girl who is charged with the premeditated murder of her 29-year-old husband, James Walden, son of Peter Walden, the horse trainer, on the night of Oct. 31, 1891, on Broadway, has been placed on trial for her life in the Court of Oyer and Terminer.

The girl, it is charged, got young Walden to leave a house of questionable character on the night of the murder in thirty-eight street and shot him. The prisoner is a pretty woman. She is about 5 feet 2 inches tall, has a small, neat figure, and very pretty brown eyes and hair.

In court to-day the frail little creature was dressed in deep mourning, and wore a black veil completely hiding her face. She seems to have had no girlhood, for she had attained a questionable sort of fame long before she married Jimmie Walden in Camden while both were on a spree last September.

Annie was known to men who frequent the race tracks as Kittie Marshall, who bet her money on the horses just like a man, only more recklessly and with phenomenal luck.

She had been the heroine of at least one liaison before she met Jeter Walden's boy, and once called herself Mrs. Katie Delmar, in honor of otherwise of a Brooklyn man with whom she had lived.

Mrs. Walden was accompanied by three women friends. She was looking much better and brighter than she has since her case was called. She said that she felt much better, too. Her confinement in the Tombs told terribly on her.

Before the case was resumed Judge Ingraham sentenced John Osmond, who was convicted last week of the murder of his wife, to death. Osmond shot and killed his wife Mary and his cousin, John C. Burchell, at 659 Third avenue on October 3, 1891. Jealousy was at the bottom of it.

Instructions were immediately telegraphed to all United States Chinese inspectors and Customs officials on the border to keep a close look-out for the Chinese, as it is feared that they will endeavor to come into the United States.

The deputies were not injured.
