JOHN R. COYLE, Attorney-nt-Law and Real Estate Agent, Office-Beddall's Building, Shenandoah, Pa. SHOBER HAB A HEARING.

A Committee Investigating the Alleged Drunkenness of the Pastor.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., April 21 .- A committee, constituted by the venerable Archdeacon Ziegenfuss, of Poughkeepsle; Rev. Dr. Wright, of Highland; Rev. Dr. Olmstead, of Rhinebeck; Hon. Robert F. Wilkinson, of Poughkeepsie, and Dr. Langdon of the Hudson River State Hospital, met in the choir room of St. John's Episcopal Church at Barrytown, Dutchers County, resterday, at the direction of Bishop Potter, for the purpose of hearing testimony as to the in-temperate habits of Francis E. Shober who, until recently, was paster of St. John's Church

A large number of witnesses were examined, but the hearing was strictly private.

This is the case which caused a great sensation in social and religious circles hereabout last December. Mr. Shober, who was formerly a student at St. Stephen's College, married one of the Aspinwalls, and it was thought that their home, one of the grandest massions on the Hudson, was a happy one. Suddenly there came a separation and the report from three doctors that the young clergyman had suffered an attack of delerium tremens. His deposition from the ministry followed shortly afterwards and then the separation. A young student from St. Stephen's sensation in social and religious circles

A young student from St. Stephen's named Carver, of Philadelphia, was named as the principal cause of the diffi-

The hearing was demanded by Mr. Shober, who insists that he has been cruelly wronged, and that the charges of intemperance are without foundation of intemperance are without foundation of fact. This being proved, he will ask to be reinstated in the ministry. The evidence adduced will be transmitted to Bishop Potter at once.

Mr. Shober has temporarily entered the newspaper field and is employed on the staff of the Poughkeepsis "News-Press" at the respect times.

LADY SOMERSET'S VIEWS.

She Thinks the Temperance Question is the Coming Issue in the United States.

LIVERPOOL, April 21 .- Lady Somerset, who has just arrived here from New York, allowed herself to be interviewed at length on American politics. She thinks that the temperance question is the coming issue in the United States and shortly will overshadow the Free Trade and Free Silver question.

She is confident that the Prohibition-ists and the Farmers' Alliance people will form a coalition against the other parties, and that they will make Prohi-bition the test question in Presidential the progress of the temperance people in American politics has been so enormous of late years, she says, that Englishmen who have not visited America recently have no conception of the political power of the Prohibitionists. As as on as the coalition of the two parties shall have been accomplished they will be able to dictate terms in many of the Western States and a few Eastern ones.

The Law Don't Expire Until 1803.

Washington, April 21 .- Mr. Sherman washington, April 21.—Mr. Sherman who had given notice of an intention to call up for immediate action the Chinese restriction bill, announced in the Senate that at that time the Committee on Foreign Relations had been of the opinion that the present restriction law would expire on the 6th of May next, But on a more careful examination of the amendments made to the act. May, 1862, he became satisfied that the re-striction laws did not expire until July, 1894, so that their was no immediate pressure for the passage of the bili re-ported by the Committee on Foreign Relations.
