They Instruct Their National Delegation fer Cleveland-State Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 22 .- One of the largest Democratic conventions in the history of Indiana convened in this city at 10:30 yesterday forenoon. Every county in the State was represented by a full delegation and 3,000 enthusiastic Democrats from throughout the State crowded to galleries and aisles.

After the call of delegations by the secretary the various committees were announced and made their reports. There were loud cheers when the Committee on Permanent Organization re-ported United States Senator Turple as chairman of the convention and Senator Voorhees, Hugh Dougherty, Charles L. Jewett and Samuel E. Morse as delegates-at-large to the National Convention.

tion. A platform was then unanimously adopted that affirmed the devotion of the convention to the principles of the Democratic party. Any enlargement or concentration of Federal powers was op-posed, and individual rights firmly as-serted to be a necessity. The administration was arraigned for the schemeling to the schemeling of the

The automistration was arraigned for its subserviency to the interests of the money power as illustrated in the ap-pointments of John Wanamaker and William A. Woods.

A radical and comprehensive measure of tariff raform was favored and reci-procity condemned. The circulation of procity condemned. The circulation of a full and sufficient volume of money was demanded and the election of United States Senators directly by the people was favored, as was the Austral-ian election system. Senators Voorhees and Turpie were endorsed, as were the School Book enactments. Just and lib-eral pensions were favored, but com-mission Haum was denounced. A State tax for revenue was endorsed, and Indi-ana Senators and Representatives wers instructed to use their influence in favor of making greenbacks taxable as other of making greenbacks taxable as other property. The administration of Grover Cleveland was endorsed as wise and patriotic, his message of 1897 on tariff reform was and increased on 1991 on tarin reform was eulogized, and upon this isans Cleveland was endorsed as the logical candidate of the party. Gov. Gray was highly en-dorsed and the delegation was instructed to place his name before the convention provided the nomination of Cleveland was found inevrodient provided the hommation of Unevenant was found inexpedient. The ticket nominated is as follows: For Governor, Claude Matthews; for Licutenant-Governor, Mortimer Nye; for Secretary of State, Capt. W. R. Myses Myers.

Mrs. Parnell Sues for Rent.

Mrs. Parnell Sacs for Rent. DURIN, April 23. — At the Wicklow Sessions Mrs. Parnell, widow of Charles Stewart Parnell, brought suit against twelve of her tenants for non-paymont of rent. Several of the applications were dismissed by the court on the tenants producing receipts showing that their rent was not yet due. In the other cases the tenants refused to pay unless the abatement allowed by Mr. Parnell some time before his death was given to them.

SEARCHING FOR THE BODIES. Ten Men Still in the Flooded Mine a Minersville, Pa.

MINERSVILLE, Pa., April 22. - There are 10 men still in the Lyttle Coal Company's colliery, all of whom are supposed to be drowned. The names of the unfor tunats men are: Thomas Buggy, and John Zerby, both miners, engaged in timbering; Albert Sabella, contractor, and his gang of laborers. They were en-gaged in driving a gangway in the lower part of the mins. Zarby is married and has several children. Buggy is the son of a widowed mother, and was her only support support. Several immense pumps, each lifting 1,000,000 galions a day, are rapidly low-ering the water in the mine. Up to this morning nothing has been seen or heard of the eight Italians and two Americans who are undoubtedly drowned. It is expected their bodies will not be reached before this evening.
