A TIMELY WARNING.

Secretary Harity Calls Attention to an Important Matter.

Secretary Harity has sent the following letter to all county commissioners: "I think it proper to request that you call the particular attention of the chairman of county committees, and of others who may be in a position to give information upon the subject, to the importance of exercising great care in the matter of certifying nominations to the State Department, as well as in certifying nominations to county commissioners and township auditors. The certification of some nominations of Legislative candidates already made, disclose the fact that sufficient care has not been taken by those whose duty it has been to certify such nominations. If errors in certifications are not avoided confusion and trouble will ensue. Instructions sent by you to the chairmen of county committees, and others connected with political organizations, will be of great benefit in preventing errors in certifications. In this connection I venture to suggest that copies of the official form of certification should be sent out with such instructions."

SCARCITY OF WILD ANIMALS.

Increasing Value of Rare Wild Animals. Forepaugh's Great Collection.

It is a well-known fact that wild animals are yearly becoming scarcer and more valuable. Every place making pretensions as a city of the first-class seems to think it must not only have a park system, but also one or more collections of animals which they dignify with the title of a zoological garden. This has so increased the demand for wild animals that European dealers advance their prices annually. Thus the Government collects a duty of 45 per cent. of their value in the foreign market or their appraised value in the American port of entry. Thus it requires an expenditure of a vast amount of money to secure even a small collection of animals. The largest menagerie in America is the one connected with the Adam Forepaugh Shows. It contains a representative of nearly all the various species of wild and trained beasts. Its visit to this city on Monday, May 9th, means therefore an opportunity for all visitors to see the greatest and richest collection of wild animals not only in America, but also larger than any in Europe; and besides the menagerie, a circus, museum, an equestrian circus, a genuine Moorish Circus Co., and a splendid spectacle, "The Fall of Ninmah," the whole exhibition being, so the press wherever it appears unanimously declares, by far the largest and by far the best shows that have ever been seen in America. It is certainly a tremendous show for only 50 cents, and it seems as if no one could so easily afford to miss seeing it.

THE GRANT MONUMENT.

Elaborate Preparations for the Corner Stone Laying Wednesday.

NEW YORK, April 25.—President Harrison will leave Washington on Tuesday afternoon by the Pennsylvania Railroad to attend the laying of the corner stone of the Grant monument, arriving in New York about 9:30.

He will be accompanied by his Cabinet and their families.
The party will stay at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Gov. Flower and his staff, and the members of the Legislature have been invited to be present at the corner stone ceremony. Invitations have been extended to the Mayors and Boards of New York and Brooklyn, the Senators and Representatives of the State of New York in Congress, the General of the Army, the Admiral of the Navy, Gen. O. O. Howard and his staff from Governor's Island, the Commandant of the Brooklyn Navy Yard and his staff, the Department Commanders of the Grand Army of the Republic from all the States, the members of the Loyal Legion of New York City, and the 473 members of the Monument Committee.

The Committee of Arrangements are informed that Mrs. Grant with members of her family will be present.

About noon on Wednesday the President and his party will be escorted from the Fifth Avenue Hotel to the monument grounds by Troop A of the National Guard of the State of New York, Capt. Charles G. Lewis, commanding.

The ceremonies at the monument will be opened by prayer, following which will be a statement from the President of the Grant Monument Association in relation to the progress of the work. President Harrison will then lay the corner stone and after this ceremony will make a short address.
This will be followed by an oration by Chauncey M. Depew.
It is expected that the ceremonies will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and be closed in time to permit President Harrison to take a special train about 5 o'clock for Washington.

The arrangements for the parade are not yet completed. It is not yet known whether the Governor will order out the First Brigade of the National Guard, but all the United States troops hereabouts will take part, and arrangements have been made by the Secretary of the Navy for the Navy to be represented in the North River.

The Grand Army of the Republic will be out in large numbers.

Climb our stairs, it will pay you. We are better situated than any ground floor gallery in the town. Hall's, 20 W. Centre street.

A Corner in Hats.

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a hat that isn't worth powder enough to blow it into perdition. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men couldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $3 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from $2 up to $5. All the newest things in gents' underwear, collars and cuffs. Everything at rock bottom price.
