THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

THE POLITICAL BOILING AT THE COUNTY SEAT.

The Prospects Some Republicans Have for Election and the Chances of Some Democrats for Nomination—A Sky-Glance Over the Field.

Special Correspondence of the Herald.

POTTSVILLE, April 26, 1892.

There have been many exciting political contests in old Schuylkill. The one last year, for instance, which gave Judge Green another lease of ten years on the bench, was no slouch—nor were the several campaigns in which Hon. James B. Reilly was defeated once for Congress and twice for Judge, small affairs of their kind. And then what is the matter with that presidential contest of 1884, when the "Plumed Knight" carried this stronghold of Democracy by a plurality of seventy-two, overturning the whole political shooting match, so to speak? But all these contests, it is prophesied by the wisecracks of the county seat, will sink into insignificance when that of 1892 shall have been brought into comparison. Your correspondent is of the same opinion.

Commencing with the head of the county ticket, what of it?

The Republican convention did itself great credit and the party an honor by placing in the field for Judge, District Attorney R. H. Koch. He is enlisted for the campaign and will stick to his colors. On the bench he will sink partisanship under the keel of the good ship Public Good, and be a righteous Judge. He says so at least, and he is to be believed. He also says he will defeat any man the Democrats may nominate. That is the way to talk. Pluck is always to be admired. Koch early learned to know these lines from Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar.

"There is a tide in the affairs of men, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune; Omitted at the ebb, the whole of their life is bound in shallows and in miseries."

McKeech is less than forty years of age. Judge John Dean, who was nominated last week by the Republican State Convention for Supreme Judge, was less than 25 years of age when he began his judicial career. He will soon take a life position in the highest court of the Commonwealth. If Mr. Koch goes on the Schuylkill bench next January he will be a judge as long as he wants to be. He has magnetism and ability, two elements that always do and always will command position and power. Who his antagonist will be is all conjecture.

Perhaps the Pershing people were not cabined when the Republicans showed them this year that the judge had no mortgage on their party which he could foreclose every ten years, and it may be the owner of the Mines' Journal isn't helping mad because his father-in-law was left this time. Just glance over the milk and water editorials of the Journal these days and notice the lukewarm way in which the county ticket is supported.

But it is more than likely that Judge Pershing will be nominated by the Democratic County Convention, not "renominated" as the Philadelphia Times puts it, because the judge has never been the nominated candidate of the county Democracy. Mr. Koch has discounted this nomination and has said to several, including the writer, that he is confident of winning no matter who the untariffed plies in the field against him.

So much for the head of the ticket. For Congress the Republicans have placed an old winner in the field in the person of Ex-Congressman Brumm. He is as confident as of yore of success, and he don't seem to care whether Mr. Reilly or Mr. Shepherd is named as his antagonist. The nomination will go to Reilly if young James Ryan, who leads for District Attorney, keeps his hands off. But if Mr. Ryan, whose relatives in this county are legion, should see that his interest lies in Shepherd's success in the convention, Mr. Reilly may be placed on the retired list. Mr. Ryan and his friends are taking in the situation and bearing well in mind the fact that it won't do to have too many of one nationality on the ticket. For, look you, the Senatorial nomination will be taken by Murtha P. Quinn. This is conceded and Mr. Keefer has already commenced his labors of undermining the foundation walls of Mr. Quinn's strongholds. So that Mr. Ryan and his cohorts will naturally prefer Mr. Shepherd to Mr. Reilly, whether he shall displace Reilly or Reilly shall combine with B. W. Cumming, Jr., or John D. Sells, and keep Ryan off the ticket is one of the absorbing topics in political circles here. Many think Ryan, through his many family connections, is the stronger, and that he will be able to dictate the Congressional nomination.

Looking over the field so early in the campaign does not reward one in search of much that is positively "just so," but you can record it as a fact that there is disruption in the Democratic ranks; also that there is more than a fighting chance for Koch and Brumm; also, that five of the seven Democratic workers composing the Wall Paper Syndicate, which did so much to re-elect Judge Green, are out of it; Judge-making business this year, so far as Mr. Pershing is concerned, and this is grieve to Mr. Koch's mill.

In the sweet bye and bye we shall let your dear readers know more. There was considerable friction in the meeting of the Republican County Committee to-day, when action was taken on the selection of a Chairman. Ellis Davis, ex-member of the Legislature was chosen. He was opposed by the Koch and Leech men and championed by the Brumm-Keefer people. It is believed all the differences resulting from this contest will be healed later on in the campaign. N.
