NO STOP TO ANARCHY

More Dynamite Explosions in Europe.
A NUMBER OF PEOPLE INJURED.

Workingmen's Club Near Paris Responsible for Another Outrage.
Many Arrests on Suspicion—Prime Minister of France Loubet is Not Afraid of Trouble on May Day—Comments of the Newspapers on the Verdict in Ravachol's Case—Discovery of a Plot to Kill King Ferdinand.

ROME, April 29.—A dynamite bomb was exploded in Faenza, near Ravenna, at 3 o'clock in the entrance of the subprefecture of police. The door and steps were blown away, the whole front of the building was cracked, and houses nearby were damaged badly.

Four policemen were injured seriously by falling ceilings, and one on the ground floor received from a flying piece of stone a blow which probably will prove fatal. Seven arrests have been made.

A bomb was also exploded late yesterday afternoon in the main street of Corleone, Sicily. All the windows in the neighborhood were broken, but nobody was injured.

All places of business were closed immediately after the explosion. A half hour later an anarchist was arrested pasting a placard on a church door. Seven printers were arrested, and a great quantity of inflammatory literature, dated May 1, in red letters, was seized.

Large, April 29.—A bomb was exploded on the steps of the Widow Myst's house in St. Pierre Place at 9 o'clock yesterday evening. All the lower rooms were wrecked and the furniture was smashed to splinters. Nobody was injured. The motive of the dynamitards is a mystery, as the widow lives alone and has no enemies.

PARIS, April 29.—Bombs were exploded before five houses in Langeac in the Department of Haute-Loire. The doors and windows were broken and the occupants were thrown into a panic. Nobody was injured. The town has a considerable laboring population and two workmen's clubs, one of which is supposed to be responsible for the explosion. The people of the village are badly frightened, and the factories are guarded day and night. More trouble is expected to come on May Day and extra constables have been sworn in.

LOUBET IS NOT AFRAID.
The French Prime Minister's Preparations for May Day.
PARIS, April 29.—In an interview on the anarchist question, M. Loubet, the Prime Minister and Minister of the Interior, said:
"We are suffering from the faults of our predecessors who for a succession of years allowed everything to be done and said under the guise of liberty of speech and pen to prostitute the cause of liberty, and this has resulted in the recent outbreak of Anarchism."
"I am collecting every thread of evidence against the agitators and their plots, and intend to continue to do so. There is absolutely no reason to fear that disturbances will occur on May Day. Precise instructions have been sent everywhere, and every contingency has been provided for."
"France may honestly and frankly be reassured."
"The police are satisfied that Francis and Lapeyre, the men arrested on Tuesday, were not the authors of the explosion at Ver's restaurant. The culprit is believed to have been the anarchist Mathieu or an Italian named Pine, who organized a band of desperadoes and stole much money."
A majority of the Ravachol jurymen, during their open discussion of the case, declared that they were strongly opposed to finding extenuating circumstances, but on a secret ballot seven of them voted for leniency and five against it.
Most of the papers declare that the verdict was an inexcusable miscarriage of justice.
"La Lanterne" and "Le Journal" approve the verdict. "La Lanterne" says that if Ravachol had been sentenced to death it would have been a consecration by a baptism of blood, elevating the assassin into a martyr.
Drumont congratulates the jury upon taking into consideration the influence the demoralizing spectacle of present morals is likely to exercise upon primitive natures like Ravachol's. The verdict, he says, was humane and wise.

To Kill King Ferdinand.
VIENNA, April 29.—A despatch from Galatz, Roumania, says that the police believe that they have discovered a conspiracy against the life of King Ferdinand, of Roumania. Owing to certain revelations made to the Roumanian authorities search was made in a shoemaker's shop and the police found there eighteen dynamite bombs. The shoemaker and his wife were arrested and it is reported that they have made a confession which gives a clue to the conspirators.

Incendiaries Active in Vienna.
VIENNA, April 29.—Incendiaries, supposed to be Anarchists, are again active in this city and vicinity. Their latest outrage is the burning of the panorama of "Christ Crucified," by Pignelli, a work of great labor and considerable art. There is no doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin, and the Anarchist circulars and documents discovered in Austria and Galicia have all contained blasphemous and denunciatory allusions to religious subjects.

The Mississippi Steadily Rising.
NEW ORLEANS, April 29.—The Mississippi River continues to rise here, and is now within less than a foot of the highest point ever reached. Several breaks have occurred on Bayou Lafourche and below New Orleans, the most serious of which are at the former place. Here a crevasse appeared with such suddenness and force that it carried away 50 feet of the levee at once, sweeping away a school in its path, the children in which escaped with great difficulty.

PRISON DAYS OVER

Ferdinand Ward Leaves Sing Sing To-Morrow.
HE HAS FEARS OF RE-ARREST.

Without Friends or Money He Will Emigrate to Begin Life Anew.

Ward is Still a Young Man, Being Only Thirty-four—He Will Join His Son in Connecticut, and Expects to Work at His Trade of Printer—His Old Partner, Flash, is Said, Will Have Nothing to Do With the Released Convict.

SING SING, N. Y., April 29.—After nearly eight years of imprisonment at hard labor in Sing Sing Prison, Ferdinand Ward will be free to-morrow. An obedient and well behaved convict he has reaped his full reward in commuted time, and with the famous Marine Bank defaultation far behind him will start life anew.

All arrangements for the departure have been made, and although in strict accordance with prison rules, Ward still works hard at his duties in the printing department. To-morrow he will be in readiness to take the train and start at once for Connecticut, where his motherless 8-year-old son is living.

With Warden Brown Ward has earnestly discussed the chances of his being arrested on other indictments which are out against him. He says that as he has served his time justice should be content, and he sees little satisfaction to the law in inflicting further punishment. He declares, however, that were the option his of fleeing to Canada or remaining in Sing Sing he would choose the latter.

When he comes out Ward will find many changes. He will be nearly alone. His devoted wife, heartbroken at his disgrace, died three years ago, still firmly believing in him. From the "Young Napoleon of Finance," whose every word Wall Street bent to, he has become a cipher. His old partner, Flash, still lives in retirement, but he will be no friend to the liberated convict.

Friends and money, so Ward claims, are alike gone, and he will emerge penniless to begin again the struggle of life. He is still young, comparatively, being only 34, and in the prime of health and vigor.

WILLIAM ASTOR'S WILL

The Late Millionaire's Lawyers Deny That It Has Been Made Public.

NEW YORK, April 29.—Messrs. Lord, Day & Lord denied the story this morning which appeared in a morning newspaper purporting to divulge the contents of William Astor's will. According to the story Mr. Astor's entire fortune amounts to about $70,000,000. Each of the three daughters will receive $2,000,000, and when the other bequests are deducted there will be in the neighborhood of $60,000,000 to be handed over to John Jacob.

The widow will receive an annual income of $300,000 while she lives. At her death this will go to her son, John Jacob. She will also receive the family residences in New York and Newport, including the new city mansion for which plans were recently made.
John Jacob Astor will receive the great fortune left by his father in trust for his children. There is now one son, William Vincent Astor, about six months old.

Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton, the second daughter, instead of being cut off without a shilling, as some people supposed she would be on account of the Drayton-Borrowes scandal, receives as much as the other daughters.
Under the will she receives $2,000,000, to be added to the $600,000 given her at her marriage.
Mrs. Orme Wilson and Mrs. Roosevelt, the other daughters, will each receive $2,000,000. Both already have large fortunes.

Astor's Funeral in Paris.
PARIS, April 29.—The funeral services over the late Mr. William Astor took place during the afternoon in the chapel of the American Episcopal Church, in the Avenue de l'Alma.

The members of the family present were: Mrs. Astor, Mr. and Mrs. Orme Wilson and Mrs. J. Coleman Drayton. The latter arrived here from London and will return to New York with her mother.
After the service the body of Mr. Astor was transferred to a vault, and on Saturday it will be forwarded to New York by the steamship La Bourgogne.

Hanged 33 Minutes, But is Alive.

HARRISBURG, Miss., April 29.—Coleman Blackburn, who was hanged here April 29, is alive at the home of relatives in Franklin County. He was hanged by the neck 33 minutes, and was pronounced dead by three physicians. His body was turned over to relatives and placed in a coffin. While enroute to the grave yard a scratching was heard inside. The coffin lid was removed and the supposed corpse was found to be alive. He has recovered sufficiently to be able to walk around the room and tell his feelings while swinging in mid-air.

Escaped Murderer Recaptured.
DENVER, Col., April 29.—Henderson Russell, a convicted murderer, who escaped from prison while under the death sentence, was recaptured here last night. His crime is the murder of Marshal Woods Price last July. On his person was found a letter of confession addressed to his sister. Russell intimates that he will take his own life before he is brought back to McComb City, Miss., where he committed the crime.

To Dredge the Liverpool Bar.
LIVERPOOL, April 29.—The city of Liverpool has voted £200,000 more for the dredging of the bar. Coasters are already able to cross at all times, and the new dredgers will deepen the channel 25 feet so that the largest ocean steamships may be able to cross at any hour of the day.

Supposed Murderer Arrested.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 29.—Adam Mottis, charged with the murder of Edward Cransy at Shipton, Schuylkill county, was arrested at Hanover last night.
