An Entertaining Manager.
Harry Becker, manager of the Girardville opera house, is one of the most enterprising and energetic men in his line of business in this state. He has one of the prettiest and best arranged places of amusement we know of and has made it a most popular home of amusements. The restaurant which Mr. Becker recently opened under the theatre is also a gem. It is spacious, well appointed, handsomely decorated and in ways suited to meet the demands of the public. During the coming summer season Mr. Becker, instead of closing his theatre for the season, will give variety entertainments every evening at popular prices, giving a change of programme every night and engaging a new company of artists every week.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.
Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a dread, all cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

Electric Railway Notes.
The cars were crowded all day yesterday and carried passengers in large numbers both ways until nearly midnight.
The travel on the road Saturday was very large.
All the turnouts are now being used and the cars are running on a twenty-minute schedule.
The cars now make a trip to the power house and back to town in an hour and fifteen minutes. This time includes a wait of twelve minutes at the power house.
It is expected that two additional cars will be put on the road by Thursday, next. Conductor John Hesser collected 108 5-cent fares on one trip yesterday. This was extraordinary.
Work on the electric road at Mahanoy City will probably begin to-morrow.

Insanity Follows an Assault.
Several weeks ago Joseph Rutkowski, a Polish resident of town, was assaulted and severely beaten by three of his countrymen. The injuries confined the victim to his bed for some time, and when he became able to walk about with the assistance of a cane his mind seemed to be affected. Today Drs. Kistler and Straup, upon solicitation of friends, made an examination of Rutkowski's condition and declared him insane. He was placed in the care of Special Officer Connors to be taken to the county insane asylum. Rutkowski's assailants are in jail awaiting trial.

A Considerate Passenger.
Worried Mother (in railroad train)—I hope my baby's crying doesn't disturb you. I can't stop it.
Old Bachelor (genially)—I'm all right, madam. Don't worry about me. I'm afraid, though, the noise is a sort of a wet blanket on those young people, yonder.
"Dear me! Why?"
"They're on their wedding tour."
Brooklyn Life.

Reasoned Out.
"Ma, do the Esquimaux live on oil?"
"Yes, my child, very largely."
"And is oil fat?"
"Yes, child."
"And does oil ever come out of the ground?"
"Yes."
"Well, the Esquimaux live on the fat of the land, then, don't they?"—Demorest's Magazine.

Rather Out of Place.
Mrs. Shoddy—I want to make my son's wife a birthday present.
Jeweler—Would you like to see our styles of diamond necklaces?
Mrs. Shoddy—Yes, I want to get her something handsome to wear around her throat. Give me some of those diamond tiaras I have read about in the paper.—Texas Siftings.

A Very Common Disease.
"I heard that you were suddenly called to attend Mrs. Schmidt, the wife of a rich banker."
"So I was."
"She is troubled with an affection of the lungs."
"No, she is not troubled with any affection at all. It is affection that's the matter with her."
When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
Lost Creek Won.
The base ball clubs of Mahanoy City and Lost Creek played at the latter place yesterday afternoon and the home club won by a score of 9 to 8. The visitors had the game well in hand up to the sixth inning, when they went to pieces and allowed the home team to score seven runs.

A Cheerful Home.
"Well, Mary, how cheerful your home is. You always have such a cheerful fire."
"Yes, 'tis true. We always have a good fire. Since we got our coal from Zerbo & Co.'s Mountain Colliery. Before we always had such a time getting a fire in the morning. That made us all cross and crabbed; but now everything is lovely. And, besides, it is cheaper. Mart Shoemaker takes orders, does the collecting and delivering."

Some hats are neither worth throwing nor taking out of a corner. A good hat is light, durable, shapely and a pleasure to the wearer; a bad hat isn't worth powder enough to blow it into perdition. Good hats are no more expensive than bad ones, but bad hats are expensive at any price and sensible men couldn't be paid to wear them. Our $2 hat is a perfect gem, and there is no reason to be without one at this low figure. The same is true of our $1.50 Neckwear and Suspenders. Good shirts from $5 up to $2.
