WHAT PROTECTION IS LIKE. Protection is like good wine; it requires time to show its excellent qualities.

Protection is like a true and tried friend; the more you test it the better you like it.

Protection is like the sun; it sheds a warmth around every workman's hearth.

Protection is to the workman what a coat of mail is to the knight; it resists the cuts and thrusts of his enemies.

Protection is like armor plate; it renders every workman's home safe and secure.

Protection is to labor what steam is to the locomotive; it enables it to push ahead.

Labor without protection is like a cripple without crutches—incapable of making any progress.

The blessings of protection are like rain; they fall upon the just and unjust, and even on Democrats.

Protection is like an attractive and fascinating young lady; the longer you enjoy its company the more you desire it.

A WILKES-BARRE Record correspondent recently had an interview with W. R. Taylor, who was private secretary to the late Franklin B. Gowen.

Rev. Benjamin Hill, New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y.: "I suffered for a long time from malaria. I ran down in weight 80 pounds, could not sleep, and was unable to take care of my parish."

THE latest direct information from Minneapolis is to the effect that the accommodations for the delegates to the Republican Convention will be ample, and that arrangements for the comfort of the thousands of people who will flock thither next month are being made on a most satisfactory scale.

Rev. William C. Powers, Greenwood, S. C., makes the following graphic assertion: "My wife suffered for years from an almost constant disposition to pass urine, which was done with great difficulty and in small quantities at a time."

AFTER the elections of 1890, Democratic doctors generally agreed that the Republican party was at the last gasp.

AN OLD, OLD ONE. Many men of many minds, Many birds of many kinds, Many fishes in the sea, Many Democrats can not agree.

Is G. Cleveland a good enough Democrat to refuse a nomination for President from a third party in case another man is nominated at the National Democratic Convention?

FROM THE HEART.

THAT IS THE WAY MINISTERS SPEAK.

A Most Wonderful Array of Outspoken Statements from Prominent Ministers of the Gospel.

No class of people in the community have a deeper interest in the welfare of the people than Ministers of the Gospel. They are brought close to the members of their congregation, study their wants, and are consulted on all subjects.

The following statements made by Ministers of the Gospel, bearing this important point are most valuable:

Rev. S. P. Smith, Marblehead, Mass.: "For years I suffered from complications of the liver, which caused biliousness, and finally threw me into bilious fever. I was attended by a skillful physician, but still I suffered periodical attacks and intense pain from the formation of gall-stones."

Rev. C. A. Harvey, D. D., Washington, D. C.: "I take pleasure in stating that I have for many years been acquainted with the well-known Warner's Safe Cure, and with its remarkable curative efficiency in obstinate and so-called incurable cases of Bright's disease in this city."

Rev. Benjamin Hill, New Castle, Westchester Co., N. Y.: "I suffered for a long time from malaria. I ran down in weight 80 pounds, could not sleep, and was unable to take care of my parish."

Rev. Henry C. Westwood, D. D., Providence, R. I., declares: "Ten years ago I used Warner's Safe Cure and derived so much benefit from it that I was led to voluntarily write a testimonial in its favor."

Rev. J. P. Arnold, Camden, Tenn., makes the following statement: "For eight years I suffered from Bright's disease of the kidneys. The torture I endured no tongue can tell."

Rev. S. B. Bell, D. D., formerly pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, Mo., asserts: "I have been most wonderfully delivered from many paroxysms of unendurable torture by Warner's Safe Cure."

Can you not see that such earnest and outspoken statements as the above come from the heart, that they are sincere, and that they are made because these ministers of the Gospel, know beyond question of what they speak?

What is there besides luck that amounts to anything in cards? "A good deal." A man never knows what he can do until he tries, and then he is often sorry that he found out.

PUPILS ON A STRIKE

Vaughn Grammar School Boys Continue Obstreperous.

WANT THEIR OLD PRINCIPAL, And Are Determined to Keep Away Until They Win.

Women Encourage the Youngsters and Exhort Them to Persevere—Police Stamped the Strikers—The Trouble Has Grown Out of the Displacement of Supervising Principal Caskey—His Successor Not Liked.

PHILADELPHIA, May 4.—The boy pupils of the Vaughn Grammar School who refused Monday to attend school on account of the displacement by the board of Supervising Principal Caskey and the election of William L. Ballentine as principal of the boys' department repeated the same tactics yesterday, and say they will continue the performance.

By 8 o'clock the boys began congregating on Marlborough street. When the janitor unlocked the gates Officer Carver's command to "move on" was received with a prolonged groan followed by a stampede of about three hundred boys down the street to the corner of Thompson, where they halted and amused themselves by blowing small whistles.

Fifty women of all ages encouraged the boys and advised them to keep away from the school until after Mr. Caskey had been reinstated. The policeman, in order to drive the boys away from the neighborhood, entered a patrol box, located on Thompson street. This movement was regarded as a call for extra policemen and the boys scrambled away as fast as they could.

Principal Ballentine says that he will be unable to do anything towards adjusting the trouble until after the board has taken action.
