Spring fever.
Spring flowers.
May weddings.
Parasols are out.
Spring chickens.
All nature smiles.
The trees are generally full of blossom.
Vacation days are rapidly approaching.
Linen cuffs have been recalled into fashion.
Lots of painting and improving around our town.
The May moon will be full on next Wednesday.
The fruit trees just now look like huge floral bouquets.
The whitewash brush is doing good work in the country.
Milk should be kept covered. It is a great collector of impurities.
If blossoms are any sign, the fruit crop this year ought to be an abundant one.
Money is not exactly a religious article, but it has a denomination of its own.
The late rains and the warm sunshine have put an impetus into budding vegetable life.
It is pardonable for a man to be sour tempered when he has a cold and a boil in his nose at the same time.
Bright red gloves are the latest fad, but will never be adopted by women of good taste, as they are too conspicuous.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.
Mr. and Mrs. Loren Trescott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with measles, followed with a drench, cough and turning into a fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.
