He Wrote a Letter to Student Venn, of the University of Pennsylvania, Offering the Remains-Veon Sent the Letter to the Chief of the Camden Police, Who Paid No Attention to it Until After the Murder-It Might Have Been Prevented.

CAMDEN, N. J., May 10 .- A woman was murdered in Camden yesterday that her body could be sold to a medical student at the University of Pennsylvania, whose name is Venn.

For some time James R. Moulton, a middle-aged man, had been living with Lydia Ann Wyatt, a colored woman, who had some money. Moulton had endeavored to get money from her, and when she sold some property has week and obtained $800 he began to lay plans.

He wrote a letter to student Venn offer-ing to sell the body of a woman for dising to sell the body of a woman for dis-secting purposes, and said he would de-liver the remains himself. Yesterday Moulton came over from Philadelphia and called at Mrs. Wyatt's house. He demanded that she should give him a couple of hundred dollars. He coupled this with the statement that if she didn't he would give her to the doctors. didn't he would give her to the doctors, who would cut her up. The woman was frightened and offered to give Moulton a small sum of cash, but when she showed her money he felled her to the floor, broke her head, and then took her money. He laid the body out in prepar-ation for removing it to Philadelphia.

Neighbors noticed that the woman was not about and went into her house. They discovered the murder and Moulton was arrested. Student Venn had in the meantime sent the letter offering the body to him to the chief of police of Philadelphia, who sent it over to the Camden police. The Jersey officers paid no attention to the letter until after the murder, and then it dawned upon them that they might have prevented the

ACTION TAKE

The State Department and the Case of Neufeldt.

CONGRESSMAN RAYNER'S VIEWS

He is Warmly Interested, and Will See Justice Done-

Neufeldt Was Excluded from Russis, in Which He Bas an Inheritance, Because He May Have to Give up His Citizenship to Obtain His Money-Siberia, He Writes, Has No Torrors for Him.

BALTIMORE, May 9 .- A cablegram from copold Neufeldt, who according to yesterday's cables is in danger of being exfled to the dreaded Siberia because he returned to his native land after renouncing American citizenship, states that he has not the slightest fear of going to Siberia.

Congressman Rayner has become interested in Neufeldt's case. He said to-day that if Neufeldt was compelled to give up his citizenship here in order to obtain his inheritance, the State Department would be asked to take action in the matter on the ground of coercion. According to the cables Neufeldt was re fused admission to Russia because he was an American citizen and a Jew.

The amount to be distributed and of which he was to get a share issaid to be 1,000,000 roubles.

A letter has been received from Mr. Neufeldt by his father-in-law, Moses Moses, a wealthy liveryman, in which he tells his experiences regarding the trouble with the Russian authorities, First he says he applied to the Russian Consul at Baltimore and New York to vise his passports, but they, after ca-bling the home government for instructions, refused to grant his request be-cause he was an American citizen and a Jew. On arriving in Berlin he applied to the Russian Consul, but he also de-clined. He applied to the American Consul, but that official could not help him. Lagal authorities were then con-sulted, and he was advised to go to Warsaw and establish his claims as a citizen of Russia. Accordingly he went to Warsaw.

The Russian Government, he says, has no special claim upon him, as he now has with him the passports he secured from the Czar ten years ago when he left the country. Further, he declares his father purchased his release from the army at the time.

Her Story Was Imaginary.

London, May 9 .- Amy Faulkuer, the young woman who was picked up on the ratiway track near Leeds, and who said she had been assaulted and thrown out of a compartment car by a mysterious, tall, dark villain, who pursued her from Bradford to Bramley, and insisted on kissing her and taking other liberties, has confessed to the police that her story is all a fiction, and that the tall, dark to defeat the nomination of T. Jefferson Coolidge, of Boston, to be Minister to France. Several prominent free silver men are said to be the leaders in the movement, and their course is actuated by the fact that Mr. Coolidge is a pro-nounced gold man. They think a man of his opinions would be likely to retard the efforts which the United States government is making to arrange an inter-national monetary conference.

No Funds For Commissioners. CHICAGO, May 9 .- The World's Columblan Commission has run out of funds. It had on May 4 a balance of just $1,012.29 to pay salaries, rent, etc., for the remainder of the fiscal year, ending June 30. The monthly expense account averages $5,000, therefore it will have $1,000 with which to pay off $10,000 worth of debts. As Congress has made no appropriation for next year there is a probability that the Commission will have to go around begging for pocket

ces Danger Not Yet Over. CHICAGO, May 9.—Reports from the flood districts of Illinois indicate no improvement in the situation and at many points the waters are still rising threating addition to the already enormous

The past week has indeed been a disastrous one and the worst is by no means

Every stream in the State is still swollen or out on its banks, and scores of towns are cellar deep in water. The rainfall has been unprecedented. For four days and four nights the water came in sheets, accompanied by the most deafening thunder and vivid lightning.

Railroads have been washed out, buildings moved from their foundations, and cattle drowned by the hundreds. Even in Chicago the water rose to a great depth on the prairie land, carrying away sidewalks and destroying roads.

The greatest damage is reported from the cities along the Illinois River. Seas of water are over Ottaws, Marseilles, Peoris, La Salle, and Utica. Boats are used for communication. Despite all efforts, the manufacturing district of Ottawa is now covered by water.

As the waters rose building after building would close down and the employes leave to await the subsiding of the flood. It will be two or three days before the more fortunate of the flooded factories can be entered at all, and it will take a much longer time to remove the accumulations of mud and debris which came with the inundation. Ottawa will be helpless for a week at least.

Marseilles, La Salle, and Peoria are in an even more desperate condition. At Marseilles the river is more and more dreaded as the levees weaken. There is little hope that they will stand much longer, and every one in the threatened district has removed all property to high ground.

At La Salle the situation is very desperate, the water having advanced from two to three feet all around the city, and the manufactories, the works, street rallway, and electric light plants are still under water.

The same condition is present at Peorla and in both cities all business is practi-cally suspended. At Utica the waters have encroached still further upon the lower end of the village from the river and the outlets east and west are blocked by water.

Everyone Who Bought Tickets Knowing They Had Been Used Refore, Will Be Prosecuted-The Loss to the Railroad Estimated at Thousands of Dollars-Similar Tucrics Are Said to Have Been Parsued In Other Towns.

NEWBURGH, May 9.-The arrest on Saturday of Saloon Keeper Michael Hor-ton, Thomas Gillooly and John J. Pender on a charge of defrauding the West Shore Railroad Company is estimated here as of very great importance. They are accused of conspiring with passenger conductors to resell tickets and re luced-rate ticket book covers.

Pender came here in the latter part of March. He said he was a New Yorker and in the insurance business, but be never did anything here in that line. It wasn't long after his arrival that he began to hang around the West Shore de pot. There he met Horton, who keeps a saloon a short distance away in South Water street, and Gillooly, who is the depot news agent. It was soon whispered that they were in partnership in the ticket scalping business. The loss of the rallroad company is said here to ag gregate many thousands of dollars.

A warrant has been issued for a young man named Thomas Cunnfugham, who man named Thomas Cunningham, who worked for Horton, but he has got a way. District Attorney Michael H. Hirschberg of Newburgh, travelled over the road many times last winter, and people here think it was he who informed the West shore officials of how they were being swindled.

After being arrested the three men were arraigned before Recorder McCros-kery, and released on ball in the sum of $1,000 each. Horton and Gillooly were very nervous at the hearing, but Pender

After the examination Penter took too dirst train to New York, and he hasn't been seen around since. Knowing, ones say that this city has seen the last of him.

The suspicion is that he is a Pinkerton man, and that he came here for the express purpose of getting into the confidence of Horton and Gillooly and then betraying them. It is evident that the

The District Attorney has said that he will prosecute every person who ha-bought tickets from the scalpers knowing they had been already used. He re fused to say snything about Pender, but smiled knowingly when his name was mentioned. He acknowledged, how mentioned. He acknowledged, how-ever, that he was going to proceed against those citizens of Newburgh who had patronized the scalpers, knowing they were swindling the road.

It is asserted here that what has been done by the Pinker tons in Newburgh in the way of getting evidence has been re peated in many towns along the line, and that other arrests will follow so
