BIG MINING DEAL.

A Combine to Work a Very Rich Iron Deposit in New Mexico.

CHICAGO, May 16.—Negotiations have just been closed in this city which, it is said, will open up a new iron field, the extent and wealth of which has never been reckoned by steel manufacturers. The successful close of the deal is said to bring into association some of the wealthiest mine owners in the country. The property has been quietly secured and the men who now own the 31 mining claims that cover the deposit will put a value on it anywhere from $15,000,000 to $25,000,000.

Fifteen millions of almost pure iron ore of the Bessemer steel quality are said to be in sight, and work has already begun on the highest development of the property, which will include railroads and smelting works to be owned by the company. The ore so described lies in the so-called Hanover Valley of New Mexico, about 50 miles from Silver City, N. M., and 150 miles from El Paso, Tex.

The men for whom the purchase was made are said to be Horace Brock, the owner of the celebrated Cornwall iron mines near Lebanon, Pa., the largest iron mines in the United States; A. Lanfer Norrie, of the great Norrie iron mines near Ironout, Mich., the second largest iron mines in the world; William Harriman, banker, of New York City; L. W. Barringer, the Philadelphia millionaire; W. H. Simpson, of Boston; Fred Crocker, of the Union Pacific Railway; Heber R. Bishop, of New York; John Brockman, of El Paso; Isaac E. Adams, of Chicago, and John Brock, of New York City.

The closing details of the purchase were arranged when A. Lanfer Norrie and Heber R. Bishop were passing through this city en route to Japan with Lieutenant Stewart and Raymond Miller of New York. It is upon their return early in September that a company is to be incorporated and an organization perfected.

Meanwhile a new road is to be built directly from Silver City to the mines, a distance of fifty miles. It is understood that the men all share equally in the purchase and ownership, and that cash was paid for the property.

L. W. Barringer of Philadelphia, is the man who has been most active in carrying out the deal, the deposit having been discovered by his brother, D. L. Barringer, a geological expert.

DRIVEN FROM WEST POINT.

Ex-Cadet Broatch Tells of Brutal Hazing Methods.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., May 16.—J. W. Broatch, a former West Point cadet, is here recuperating, it is alleged, from a hazing that he received at the Military Academy at West Point. Broatch was a member of the fourth or "plebe" class, in which he took high rank. He graduated from Yale in the class of '91, where he was the most prominent literary man in his class.

At West Point Broatch came into collision with men of the first class, because of his refusal to brook the insults heaped upon him by the "plebes," and upon one occasion he had a flat encounter with one of them, which resulted in both contestants being laid up for two weeks. At last, finding life there unbearable, he resigned his cadetship. Upon the first tender of his resignation it was refused by the Secretary of War on account of Mr. Broatch's high standing, but was afterward accepted at his urgent request. Broatch says that the system of hazing practised there is infinitely worse than anything in vogue in any American college. Men who have suffered it and felt the injustice of it have refrained from holding it up to public reprobation, because to do so would mean ostracism at the academy.

Broatch tells of a classmate who, though suffering from a physical defect, was forced to fight time after time, and compelled to run such a gauntlet of barbarous cruelty that he resigned at the end of six months, a mental and physical wreck.

Desperate Stage Robbers.

REDDING, Cal., May 16.—The holding up of the Redding & Weaversville stage Saturday night in the suburbs of the town of Shasta, has created great excitement. Two masked men, one on either side of the coach, ordered Driver Boyce to "halt" and to throw down the boxes. Messenger Buck Montgomery, who was riding inside the stage, opened fire on the robbers, wounding one of them, but was himself mortally wounded by a robber who was in ambush. He died an hour later. Driver Boyce and a passenger named Subr were also wounded, but not fatally. The robbers rifled the treasure boxes, securing about $20,000. Officers and a large posse are in pursuit of the robbers.

Poor Prospect for Wheat.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 16.—The continued cold and wet weather is becoming serious to the crop prospects of North Dakota. If this state of things lasts much longer the farmers will suffer heavy losses. Not more than 60 per cent. of the wheat acreage of last year will be seeded in North Dakota. Along the line of the Northern Pacific the conditions seem to be rather worse than in any other section. Throughout the other sections of the Northwest the grain is doing fairly well and a fair crop will be raised.

The Cotton Compress Deal Off.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—The gigantic cotton compress deal has been declared off by the agent who secured options aggregating $3,000,000 on eighteen of the twenty presses in New Orleans. London and New York capitalists were supposed to be behind the deal, but failed to respond with enough cash to consummate it.

Indicted For Murder.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 16.—Adam Hass and Peter Schultz, the men under arrest for the murder of the three-month-old infant of Mary Wertheimer, the body of which they buried in the banks of Newton Creek, have been indicted for murder in the first degree.

ELECTRIC NOTES.

More Charters for Roads in Schuylkill County Granted.

The Tamaqua and Pottsville Electric Railroad, with a capital stock of $120,000, has been chartered. J. O. Ulrich is president and Isaac Christ treasurer. The route covers 20 miles and passes along the public road from Tamaqua, through Newkirk, Tuscarora, Paterson, Brockville, Middleport, New Philadelphia, Cumbels, Port Carbon and Mechanicsville into Pottsville.

A charter has also been granted for an electric road from Mahanoy City to East Mahanoy Junction (Lakeside) and thence to Tamaqua.

The electric road between Mahanoy City and Tamaqua can be made to pay on account of Lakeside being a summer resort and located about midway between the two points, but as to the proposed roads between Lansford and Tamaqua, and the latter place and Pottsville there is some doubt. However, if capitalists are willing, there will be no harm in trying the pulse of the people.

There is no difficulty at Girardville between the Borough Council and the electric railway company. The Council will build an iron bridge over the creek at Ogden street, the present terminus of the railway, and proposals for the work have been asked for. As soon as the bridge is completed the road will be extended.

The business of the electric railway yesterday was very large.

The railway company will erect a handsome building in Girardville and have several offices arranged in it for its business.
