A STAND TAKEN FOR THE LITHUANIANS.

AN EDITOR TRIES TO SHOW THE EVILS.

CLAIMS THE PEOPLE ARE DELUDED

And Scores the Lithuanian Priests for Their Conduct and Teachings—Says They Decounce the Public Schools.

IN a letter over his signature to the Plymouth Tribune Joseph Andzulis, editor of the Vienys, cites what he alleges to be the causes of dissension among the Lithuanian people in this country. He says: "Lithuanians are well-known to the Americans, at least in the coal regions. There are many things in the life of Lithuanians which would interest the community at large, still I intend to draw attention to-day only to the point in question, namely, why we are witnesses of frequent trouble among this immigrant population.

"There are many causes; the most evident one is the conduct and the teachings of the Lithuanian priests. I shall give illustrations: Rev. Jadyzus, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is widely known by his lasciviousness and drunkenness; the same man teaches his parishioners that knowledge is sin, that reading of books and papers is a trespass in the eyes of God. Also Rev. S. Pantienius, of Baltimore, Md., a man not of innocent moral character, thunders against the public schools of this country, calling them "dens of paganism," where Jews and heretics are employed as teachers to mislead the youth. Rev. A. Varnagris, well-known in Plymouth some time ago, did not care for anything, except money-making; to-day he has married a young girl of Atlantic City, N. J.

"Rev. A. Barba, of Plymouth, in his sermons preaches against the Lithuanian authors who endeavor to enlighten the people, disseminate hate and intolerance to other confessions besides Catholicism, calling other churches "pagan," and their adherents "pagans" and "heretics." Rev. Zlotorzynski, of Pittston, is quite concerned because among his parishioners books and papers find buyers and readers; he persecutes with whatever power he has the Lithuanian Society of Sciences and Arts in America; tends to make mute all his parishioners, some of them treating with whiskey and beer, others by some small gifts, others even threatening with a revolver in the hand, as happened on April 30th, where the parson wounded Mr. M. Kaszuba, a miner, who is eager to read books and disseminate knowledge among his fellow-men. Rev. Maszutas, of Free-land, says that he would rather leave his parish than admit a committee of parishioners to take care of the treasury of the church, etc.

"It remains to say that these reverend gentlemen are quite rude in their habits, fond not of science and progress, but of beer and the tender sex, men who do not care for anything else but their purse and comfort.

"Therefore it is not surprising that we find fermentation among Lithuanians going on and growing all the time. The relations between the pastors and their sheep become more uneasy, and especially the adherents of progress and the Lithuanian Society of Sciences and Arts have to endure maledictions and curses from the pulpit. Still the society is growing and the near future will show whether perversion and egotism, or progress, enlightenment and justice are going to take lead among the troubled Lithuanians."

COUNTY 'ROUND.

Interesting Items of News From Various Parts of Schuylkill Put in Brief Paragraphs.

The Borough Council of Gilberton on Thursday last passed a supplementary electric railway ordinance similar to the one adopted by Mahanoy City. The word "macadamizing" is substituted for "paving" and other slight changes are made. The Lebanon Valley Dental Association met at Ashland yesterday. "Artificial crowns" was a subject of general discussion. C. C. Graeber, of Ashland, is also aspiring to succeed the late Hon. John Parker as a trustee of the Miners' Hospital.

Patrick Leahy, of Maizeville, has been made one of the night P. & R. passenger train crew on the Shenandoah branch, succeeding Walter Healer, who has been promoted to the main line.

Willie Mayer, a boy, has disappeared from his home in Frackville and his parents are anxiously awaiting information as to his whereabouts.

The death of the Anthracite base ball league is announced. Cause: general de- bility of the purses of enthusiasts, coupled with a chill arising from a high tariff policy of park managers.

Marie Prescott.

Miss Marie Prescott, noted as one of the most beautiful and talented women on the stage, will appear in Shenandoah on Thursday evening and will present her own dramatization of H. Rider Haggard's famous novel, "Cleopatra." This work may be fairly acknowledged as the best novel Haggard has ever written, with beautiful idyls scattered through its pages from the pen of Andrew Lang. The novel is fresh, brilliant, beautiful. The play differs from Sardou's version of the story and, indeed, from that of any other writer, in that Anthony is almost entirely obliterated, or, at any rate, is used only for the purpose of bringing out in strong relief the great love for Cleopatra by Harmachis, a royal Egyptian brought up as a priest and secretly crowned as Pharaoh of Upper and Lower Nile. Those events bring him from the obscurity of his birth to the splendor of Cleopatra's court, where he becomes her high priest and her devoted lover, and in turn as devotedly loved by Charmion, Cleopatra's hand-maiden, whose affection, it is needless to say, Harmachis does not return. As Cleopatra makes no return of her high priest's affection, it will be seen that Harmachis is between two fires. The play ends with the death of the principal personages.

An Announcement.

Having waited a reasonable length of time for my competitor to come down in his price, and finding he has not the courage to risk a cent, I propose to return to my original rate. Commencing Monday, May 23d, I will absolutely make no cabinet photos under $3.00. Those who wish to take advantage of the cheap prices now offered must call before that date. Cabinets at present, and up to the 23d, 50c. per dozen. Our motto: "We don't cut; but we can stop others from cutting." 5-18-1f H. T. HALL.

Marriages.

The residents of Delano were agreeably surprised yesterday upon learning that Howard Bowman, a Lehigh Valley passenger brakeman residing at Delano, had been married to Miss Jennie Phillips, of that place, at Camden, N. J., on Monday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman will make Delano their future home. Miss Sallie Cannon, of town, and M. A. Ferry, of Free-land, were married in the Annunciation church yesterday. They left yesterday afternoon to visit Philadelphia and New York.

MUSIC FOR ALL ALONG THE LINE.

AN INNOVATION FOR PLEASANT SUMMER EVENINGS.

THE GRANT BAND ON WHEELS

They Filled the Air With Delightful Music While Riding on the Electric Railway—More Trips Contemplated.

NOVEL sight was presented on our streets last night and the people along the route of the electric railway crowded doors and windows to witness it. The attraction was the Grant Cornet Band and one of the open cars of the railway company. The members of the band occupied seats in the brilliantly illuminated car and played selections under the direction of Prof. Zeitz as they passed through the streets on their way to Wm. Penn. Some people became so enthusiastic over the sight that they applauded and Prof. Zeitz made acknowledgements by bowing between beats. "That puts life into the town" said a prominent West Coal street resident. The band members were also delighted by the innovation and several members of the Board of Control said last night that arrangements will be made for frequent trips of the kind during the coming summer and that one or two trips will be made to Girardville. The members of the band enjoyed the trip hugely and they never played with better spirit. The electric railway company thinks that the trips will become very popular. The people of the valley will have an opportunity to hear one of the best bands in the state, the ride will be refreshing to the band members on the warm evenings and, of course, the railway company will reap the benefit. The main object of the band's visit to Wm. Penn last night was to serenade Peter Schoppe, father of the Schoppe brothers, of band and orchestra fame. Mr. Schoppe is convalescent after an attack of paralysis and the band wanted to cap his recovery with the music which it renders so artistically. Several selections were played in front of the residence, after which the players were invited to partake of an excellent luncheon. Congratulations and more music followed and at about 11 o'clock the band returned to town.

HERE AND THERE.

Interesting Items Concerning Different Sections of the Region.

A Shamokin young man answered an advertisement which offered to show anyone "how to get rich without work" by sending $1. He received by return mail a neatly printed card bearing the truthful legend: "Advertise for suckers, same as we do."

From almost every town in the region come reports of the goods of departing families being attached for debts.

When Forepaugh's circus reached Wilkes-Barre one of the young women engaged in the spectacular play complained to an Alderman that she had been discharged without cause and was penniless. A lawyer took charge of the case and attached the ticket seller's wagon, and notified the railroad company that they must not haul it from town. Mr. Anderson, one of the circus management, promptly appeared at the alderman's office and reinstated the girl at an increased salary.

The Scranton Colliery Engineer printed a statement showing that of the coal mined in the past between Carbondale and Nanticoke the Wyoming Valley produced 53 per cent, and of the coal still to be mined in the same territory the Wyoming Valley has 70 per cent, and that enough remains in the ground to last 127 years at the present rate of production.

Jacob Faux, of South Heberton, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment in the State Penitentiary by Judge Woodward at Wilkes-Barre. He was the tax collector in Foster township and it was claimed by Coxe Bros. & Co. and others that he had followed a custom as old as the township and collected taxes from men whose names were on the duplicate and pocketed the money.

The striking carpenters of Scranton have been encouraged by having money sent them by the Federation of Labor. Commissioners appointed to report on the question of dividing Centralia have reported in favor of two wards.

QUALITY, The First Consideration.

PRICES—Always as low as consistent with good quality.

We have to-day a shipment of strictly Fresh Creamery and Dairy Butter. Our Dairy Butter is finer than a great deal of Creamery, and lower in price.

Our Baking Molasses is straight Fancy New Orleans, and the best we can buy. 2 quarts for 25c.
Our Table Syrups are Pure Sugar Goods. We do not sell mixed or flavored syrups.

In Canned Goods, we believe there are no finer goods packed than our Fancy Whole Red-Ripe Tomatoes and our Fancy Northern Sugar Corn. 2 cans for 25c.

We have good Standard Cold-Packed Tomatoes and Sugar Corn—3 cans for 25c. We do not sell "soaks" in canned goods at any price.

Our Java Coffee is straight fancy Mandheling Java—not mixed with other kinds—it is cheap at 35c.

Our Country Lard is absolutely pure, not adulterated with cotton seed oil or tallow. You can buy lower priced lard, but it will not prove as cheap in the end.
