The Crimes Committed But a Few Hours Apart -- Armed Men Hunting for the Marderer-Business Suspended and Excitement Intenso.

DENISON, Tex., May 10 .- The greatest excitement prevails here over the horror which took place early yesterday morning, when an unknown assassin pre-meditately shot and killed four women, two of them the leading ladies of the city, and two members of disreputable houses.

The first victim was Mrs. Haynes, wife of Dr. Henry Haynes, one of Denison's most respected citizens, and a gentleman prominent in his business and social life. Mrs. Haynes, a young and attractive woman, was assassinated either while alone in her home or else was forcibly taken from the same and put to death by her captor outside and near the house. Mrs. Haynes was killed in the healthy and agreeable substances, its absence of her husband at Elk Lodge, many excellent qualities commend it and the murderer took her gold watch and diamond ring.

He next went to Mrs. Hawley's house and killed her daughter, Miss Teen, a beautiful young girl. She was seated on a bed with her mother when the built crashed through the screen door. The murderer had first entered the girl's bedroom, when she fled to her mother's bedroum

He next went to Mrs. Rivers' bagnio and fired through a window from the front porch, killing Mande Kramer. He then crossed the street to Lester's and in similar manner shot and mortally wounded Rose Stewart, the ball passing clear through her body, entering under the right arm. All business is suspended here to-day, and a thousand armed men are in pur-suit of the criminal. Dozens of arrests have been made, but the real culprit is believed to be still at large.

TO BREAK HER FATHER'S WILL. Mrs. Verdi's Sensational Suit - Charges

Against Her Sister. WASHINGTON, May 19.-Mrs. Tullie S. Verdi, wife of the well-known Italian physician of this city, has instituted proceedings to break the will of her father, Thomas Sunderland, who died six years ago, leaving an estate which is now valued at nearly $400,000.

The prominence of the family, the sensational charges which one member sensational charges which one member of a family brings against others add to the interest of the case. Mrs. Verdi asserts that her father was much attached to her, and expressed his intention of providing for her in his will. During the last four or five years of his life, she says, he was enfeabled by ex-cessive indulgence in liquor which was in the nature of a disease, and was regretted by no one more than himself. His unmarried daughter, Jessie A. Sunderland, the petitioner avers, conceived the idea of inducing her father to make this will, thinking her mother would turn over the estate to her. With this intent she urged her father to make the will in favor of his wife, under the plea that the mother would do justice to her children.

Since Mr. Sunderland's death, petition-er declares, Miss Sunderland has forced her mother to convey all the real estate to her, and Mrs. Verdi believes the POPE LEO'S MODE OF LIFE. Although Eighty-Two Years Old, His The New Law Regarding Labor in Manu-Health Belles All Rumors.

The pope was eighty-two years of age on March 2. Leo XIII. has now occupied the chair of St. Peter for fourteen years, and although there have been many rumors of the unsatisfactory state of his health lately there seems to be no good reason why he should not occupy it for a good many years longer, says the Pall Mall Budget. His holiness' mode of life is of the simplest. He usually rises at 6 o'clock in the morning, offers the sacrifice of the mass and then begins his working day. For breakfast he has a single glass of coffee, tea or milk, and after going through his papers begins to receive about nine. From that hour till one in the afternoon the throng of visitors never slackens. He then returns to his papers and his books until three, when he dines.

The dinner of his holiness is of the same frugal character as his breakfast -a little soup, two courses of meat with vegetables, and dessert of fruit, with one glass of wine. After dinner he goes out for a drive or a walk in the gardens of the vatican. He afterward resumes his papers. Between nine and ten o'clock all the papal household assemble for the rosary and then retire to he was very shortsighted, but as he grew older his sight became better, and when he was twenty years of age. A bon mot of his holiness at last Christmas reception may not have been forgotten. It was addressed to Cardinal Parrocchi, who is believed in many quarters to be heir-presumptive to the chair of St. Peter. When the cardinal had wished him a happy new year the pope said, with a twinkle in his eye: "Thank you, thank you, your eminence; I hope to be still here on amount of property involved, and the the eve of next year to receive once more your sincere congratulations."

CHHUAHUA, Mex., May 10.—As the re-sult of the duel last week, in which a well known Mexican editor was killed, and which aroused a bitter feeling be-tween the factious represented by the duelists, a number of challenges have been issued and accepted. A duel was arranged to come off between Luis Ter-reass it and of the avolution of the successor and razas, jr., son of the ex-Governor, and a crippled soldier named Mauro Candano, who has a record on the field of honor, but it was stopped by the police. Gov. Carillo has received a challenge, and several other government officials have been invited to fight duels, all as a result of the Ochos-Condier meeting last week. 1000

Big Shipment of Cattle from Boston. Boston, May 10 -The largest single Boston, May 19 — The largest single shipment of live cattle that ever left an American port has just sailed from Boston on board the steamer Ottoman, of the Warren line. There were 1,169 head of steers, averaging 1,875 pounds each, all shipped by one party and consigned to one party. The cattle came from Nebraska, and the rate of freight to Boston was the same as it would have been to New York. The rate from been to New York. The rate from Boston to Liverpool is understood to be higher than the current rates from New York, but that advantage is offset by Boston's being one day's sail nearer Liverpool.
