DEDICATION AT GETTYSBURG.

Special Low Fares by the Reading Railroad to That Point.

One spot upon the battlefield of Gettysburg will be forever memorable as marking the northernmost advance of Lee's great army during that decisive struggle. Here where the gray tide of rebellion surged up against the rock of loyalty and rolled back, shattered and shattered, Potomacward, a memorial tablet has been erected to designate the "High Water Mark of the Rebellion." On Thursday, June 21, it will be dedicated with impressive ceremonies in the presence of a great number of veteran soldiers and distinguished men from all over the country. To facilitate access to the historic field the Reading Railroad will sell round trip tickets to Gettysburg from all points between Philadelphia and Mahanoy City, inclusive, (via the Main Line and Williamsport Division) at the low rate of a single fare for the round trip. These tickets will be on sale June 1st and 21st, and will be good for the return trip until June 4th inclusive. This affords an uncommonly favorable opportunity for a visit to one of the greatest of the world's battlefields.

Charged With Forgery

W. A. Engle, at one time engaged in the clothing business in this town and subsequently connected with a cap manufacturing business in Mt. Carmel, languishes in one of the New York jails on a charge of forgery, according to the New York papers. It is alleged that Engle endorsed checks given to the firm by which he was employed as clerk and appropriated the money.

ROOSEVELT VS. WANAMAKER.

The Postmaster-General Attacked for the Baltimore Inspectors' Report.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Civil Service Commissioner Roosevelt appeared before the House Committee on Civil Service in connection with the inquiry into alleged violations of the civil service law by Federal officials in Baltimore. Mr. Roosevelt placed before the Committee a letter which he sent on Monday last (by registered mail) to Postmaster General Wanamaker. The letter reads as follows:

"In the report of your inspectors on the Baltimore postoffice, submitted by you to the Committee of the House, these inspectors state that my investigation was 'unfair and partial in the extreme'; that my questions were 'calculated to deceive and mislead, such as no committee of investigation, hunting for nothing but the truth and desirous of doing except justice, would practice or allow,' and also that my report on the Postmaster's conduct was 'not only unjustifiable, but malicious.' 'But I have nothing to do with these subordinates. It is with you, the official head, responsible for their actions that I have to deal. By submitting this report, without expressly disclaiming any personal responsibility for it, you seem to assume that responsibility and make it your own.

"I can hardly suppose that this was your intention, but I shall be obliged to treat these statements which in any way reflect upon my acts and motives as yours, unless you disavow them with the same publicity with which they were made to the committee. I therefore respectfully ask whether you will not make such disavowal so that I may govern myself accordingly and not be guilty of any injustice."

"To this," said Mr. Roosevelt, "I received no answer, and I am therefore reluctantly obliged to assume that the Postmaster-General makes these statements his own.

"The Postmaster-General says in speaking of the inspectors' report that it is not for him to discuss or decide whether it contains anything that can be construed as disrespectful or hostile to the Civil Service Commission. On the contrary, he is precisely the very person who is called upon to make this decision, and when he acts upon this report and submits it to this committee without expressly repudiating the offensive paragraphs, he thereby makes it his own. I have never sheltered myself behind my subordinates, and I decline to allow the Postmaster-General to shelter himself behind his.

"The statements quoted in my letter are slanderous falsehoods.

On Thursday, June 21, 1892, the "High Water Mark" Monument will be dedicated on the field of Gettysburg. This monument marks the highest point within the Union lines reached by Pickett's troops in the memorable charge of July 3d, 1863. The monument has been erected under the auspices of the Battlefield Memorial Association. The dedicatory ceremonies will be highly interesting, consisting of speeches, poems, music, and military exercises. A large number of veterans, both officers and privates, will be gathered on the historic field and the occasion will be a most memorable one.

For the benefit of those desiring to attend, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on June 1st and 21st, sell excursion tickets from all principal stations on the lines to Gettysburg at a single fare for the round trip. Return coupons will be valid for use until June 4th, inclusive.

Much Complaint.

The residents on Apple alley, between White and Bowers streets, are complaining about the miserable condition of that thoroughfare, and justly think that the Superior should give the matter his attention. The street is impassable, and the filth from the stables causes much annoyance to the residents of that locality.

THE INUNDATION'S WORK.

Great Damage at Arkansas City--Want in Many Places.

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark., May 26.—The city is completely under water. All the stores are flooded out and the tops of houses are visible only on the back streets.

All the trains on the Iron Mountain are abandoned on account of the bad bridge over Boggy Bayou. All Iron Mountain cars have been removed from the yards in this city. The Pantier Forest bank can stand one foot more here.

MONTICELLO, Ill., May 26.—The farmers in Central Illinois are busy repairing the damage inflicted on their crops by the recent heavy rains. Since the rain ceased farmers have been hard at work from early in the morning until late at night. Thousands of acres of corn have already been sown, and if the weather continues favorable, it is expected thousands of acres of corn will be planted within the next fortnight. The oats and wheat crop were badly damaged by the rains.

ANNA, Ill., May 26.—The flood in Union County caused by the overflow of the Mississippi has reached its height and the water is about beginning to recede. It is estimated that 1,000 acres are now under water in the county. Of this total, 1,000 acres, consisting of wheat and corn, are a total loss. The financial loss in Union County is placed at $150,000.

CAIRO, Ill., May 26.—Letters received here announce the fact that there are one hundred families in and about the town of Wheatland utterly destitute, the floods having totally ruined the crops, drowned their stock and washed them out of their dwellings. A subscription was started here and provisions will be sent there immediately.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 26.—Gov. Boies has issued a proclamation calling for relief for the food sufferers at Sioux City. The number of families homeless is placed at one thousand, and the number of destitute of all ages at five thousand. The number of dwellings swept away is given at 167, and 700 more were rendered untenable.

MEMPHIS, May 26.—A private dispatch from Gunnison, Bolivar county, Miss., says:

"The levee guards shot and killed a man last night who was attempting to blow up the levee with dynamite at Dennis Landing.

"We have his dynamite fuse and pistol here. He was a white man; name not reported."
