The Kansas Senator's New Financial Scheme.

LOAN BUREAU IN THE TREASURY

Conclusion of the Investigation of Civil Service Violation at Baltimore-Seno Romero Coming Back-Rusk and Bain making-Other Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, May . 27 .- Mr. Peffer's latest financial scheme, introduced in the Senate yesterday, and laid on the table, goes even further than Mr Stanford's land scheme.

Mr. Peffer, besides establishing a loan bureau in the Treasury with branches in every capital city throughout the country with authority to lend not less than $100, and not more than $2,500 to every person requiring it upon approved landed security, also undertakes to regulate the rate of interest on ordinary discounts and banking loans and mortgages throughout the United States.

This rate of interest, six months after the passage of the act, is in no case to exceed 5 per cent-all State laws to the contrary notwithstanding, and on long suspices of Loties Aid of the P. M. time loans is to be limited to 3 per cent. church. Commissioners and assistant commissioners are provided to put the law into execution, and the government is au-thorized to print a special edition of greenbacks to cover the advances made by the loan bureau and its branches, CONCLUSION OF THE INQUIRY. The Investigation Into the Civil Service Law Violations in Baltimore.

Washington, May 27.-The House Committee on Reform in the Civil Service has concluded its investigation into Corps. the alleged violations of the Civil Service law by Baltimore postoffice officials.

The committee carried the investiga-The committee carried the investiga-tion, as far as it was authorized by the resolution which was, in substance, to ascertain if any of the 25 employes in the Baltimore postoffice, custom house and United States Marshal's office, who were charged with violating the Civil Service law bytaking an active part in Service law by taking an active part in and soliciting money for elections, were still in office or had been indicted.

Representative Andrew, chairman of the committee, says that the report of the investigation would be prepared as soon as the evidence taken was printed, and unless the House authorized the committee to proceed further with the matter, it would end with the present in-

Gen. Cullom's Bequest to the Government. Washington, May 27.—A message from the President informed the Senate of the bequest by Major-General George W. Cullom, U. S. A., of a quarter of a million dollars for the erection of a memorial hall at West Point, N. Y., to be devoted to works of art and other phasts tending to elevate the military be devoted to works of art and other objects tending to elevate the military profession. The message was accompanied by the draft of a bill prepared by the executors to carry out the generous provisions of the will, which, the President states, required no appropriation by Congress to give it effect.

Senor Romero Will Come Back.

Washington, May 27.—The regret occasioned by the announcement that Senor Matis Romero, the Mexican Minister to the United States, had been recalled, and given a piace in the Cabinet of President Diaz, which was felt by all who were acquainted with him, will be terroreed by the suggestion that the tempered by the suggestion that the change will be only temporary and that within a short time Mr. Romero will return to the United States and resume his official residence.

Manifesto of the Irish Nationalists' Committee.

SALISBURY'S COURSE CONDEMNED,

His Attempt to Stir Up Sectarian Strife in Ireland Denounced-A Strong Plea for the Immediate Censing of the Demoralizing Strife.

New York, May 27.-The Irish Nationalists' committee appointed by last November's conference to issue an address met yesterday at the Vanderbilt Hotel and approved a strong manifesto demanding that the factional strife in Ireland shall cease or America and Australia will not furnish "sinews of war." They call the conflict going on most scurrilous and declare that it has well nigh forfeited the confidence of Irishmen abroad, won by 12 years of dignified effort for home rule under Parnell's leadership. The address goes on to say:

"A desperate attempt is being made by Lord Salisbury and his colleagues to stir up sectarian strife in Ireland by ds-liberate misrepresentation of the aims and objects of the national movement. The best refutation of these misrepresentations is to be found in the fact that during the greater part of the present struggie Ireland had a Protestant leader and has to-day a majority of the repre-sentation from Ulster and many Protessentation from Uniter and many Proces-tant members representing constituen-cies overwhelmingly Catholic. These are unanswerable arguments for home rule, and prociaim to the world the falsehood of the calumny that the Irish people are bigots. If the present strife is continued the Nationalist majority in Uniter will be subangared and Ireland's Ulater will be endangered and Ireland's position morally weakened."

In another place the manifesto says:

"The party of the men seeking to perpetuate factional strife in an hour of supreme national peril would be guilty of treason to Ireland, and would go down under the condemnation of the Irish race."

The manifesto is signed by the follow-ing: J. P. Farrett, New Haven; Thomas F. Keenan, Boston; Dr. William Carroll, F. Keenan, Boston; Dr. William Carroll, Philadelphia; John Devoy, Chicago; Jas. Gibson, Paterson, N. J.; J. P. Heward, Charles O'Donnell, Des Moines, Iowa; John M. Digney, White Plains, N. Y.; James R. O'Beirne, Michael Breslin, New York, Dr. J. W. Casey, Rochester, N. PUT POISON IN THE WHISKEY. A Jealous Woman of Cortland, N. Y., Tries to Kill Her Former Lover.

CORTLAND, N. Y., May 27 .- The coudition of Duke Borthwick, formerly a de puty sheriff, and a son of ex-Sheriff H. G. Berthwick, who was poisoned Wednesday night, is still precarious, though he will probably recover. For the past year Borthwick has been paying great attention to a Mrs. May Tarbie, who has not lived with her husband for the past two years. Borthwick appears to have tired of the woman, however, and when her attentions to him lately became bothersome, he avoided her. This neglect caused her much anguish, and she threatened to take his life. Borthwick thought little of her threats, Borthwick thought little of her threats, and when they met would walk with her. They were seen together at about 11 o'clock Wednesday night on one of the streets in Cortland. At midnight he left her and went home.

At 8 o'clock in the morning his mother was an about he the sound of ground the street of the street of ground the street of the stree

At 3 o'clock in the morning his mother was awakened by the sound of groans which issued from his room. She entered his chamber and, seeing that he was very sick, seat for Dr. Dana, who, upon examination, pronounced his patient to be suffering from poisoning. He was kept walking the floor briskly all night and forenoon, and to this he will probably owe his life.

Borthwick says the girl offered him whiskey, and that in drinking it he noticed that it had a bitter taste. After drinking two more glasses of the liquor drinking two more glasses of the liquor offered he refused to drink any more. The doctor ascribed the bitter taste to morphine.

No arrests have been made yet. Borth wick's mother wants the girl arrested, as she fears another attempt on her son's life, while the father is trying to hush the matter up. Future action will probably depend upon the result of the case.

The Maverick Bank Indictments . Boston, May 27.—In the Maverick Bank case, counsel for Asa P. Potter Jonas French and Thomas Dane have filed a printed reply to District Attorney Allen's brief in the United States Circuit Court. The replies are quite long and cite numerous authorities in support of the stand taken by counsel for defend-ants. This ends the hearing on objec-tions to the indictments, whether in form or substance, in the United States District Court. Justice Nelson will undoubtedly be some weeks in examina-tion of the theories and propositions advanced by counsel and the inspection of the indictments in the case before he shall have arrived at his decision.
