Much favorable comment was indulged in by our large circle of readers last evening upon the enterprise displayed by the HERALD in presenting to the taxpayers and property owners of town reliable information regarding the actual cost of the proposed water works. We have used every effort in the past to show the joint committee the justice of informing the people what the actual cost would be, but they have so far failed to give that information. It is our aim to present the question in its true light, and the universal endorsement of our course which we have received is very gratifying. This is another evidence of the HERALD's enterprise, much to the annoyance of a few chronic kickers.

The doctrine of free trade as advocated by the Democratic party is the only active relic of slavery we have in America. Slave labor made it possible for the South to compete with labor anywhere, the South was the soul and body of the Democratic party, as it still is, and the Democratic party favored free trade, as it still does. Some of these days the South will be educated to a point at which it will lay this relic away and then the Democratic party will be in favor of a protective tariff and independent, manly, self-respecting labor. However, education has never been popular in the South, and it will take a long time for the new idea to establish itself.

It will indeed be a lesson in patriotism should the Grand Army veterans throughout the country join in the public school celebration of Discovery day next October. Commander-in-Chief Palmer advocates having the veterans act as an escort for the children, and also to assist the scholars when they raise and salute the flag on the school buildings. It is a good idea, and should be adopted.

A St. Louis Democratic paper recently gave two columns to a Confederate reunion at New Orleans, and on the same day gave less than a column to the G. A. R. reunion at Springfield. The paper knows the tastes of its readers, and caters to them faithfully. ANOTHER war has broken out among Louisiana Democrats. There will be two delegations to the Chicago Convention and two electoral tickets, unless the McEnery and Foster factions come together.

EVIDENTLY the Democratic editors are getting left in the appropriations proposed by this Congress.

Just at present Mr. Cleveland finds no comfort in the shade of the Palmettos of South Carolina.

POSSIBLY Mr. Watterson thinks it is "some good Western man."

Literary Notes. Harper's Weekly, published June 1st, will contain an extraordinary variety of timely and attractive articles, most of them richly illustrated. George L. Putnam will contribute a paper on the American Cavalry School at West Point, which will be accompanied by numerous striking illustrations drawn by Remington. John Gilmer Speed will write in his usual entertaining manner on "The Kentucky Centennial," apropos of the hundredth anniversary of the admission of the oldest Western state into the Union. A superb article on the city of Rome, being the fourth paper in the series on the "Great Capitals of the World," will be contributed by G. Bisset. There will be an article, with a page of illustrations, on the great Transatlantic Railroad of South America; also a timely article, with illustrations, on the disastrous floods in the Mississippi Valley. Hall Caine's entertaining story, "Cap'n Day's Hooneymoon," will be continued.

Another Crime at Keating's Door. COVINGTON, N. Y., May 28.—A son of Robert B. Cromwell, a retired farmer of Newburgh, who was banished out of $5,500 last November, has positively identified William C. Keating, who is in jail here charged with banishing Farmer George Fitts out of $6,000, as one of the men who swindled his father in the same manner as Fitts had been. Cromwell was accompanied by the Chief of Police of Newburgh, who left a warrant with Sheriff Miller to insure Keating's appearance in Newburgh.

New York State Vital Statistics. ALBANY, N. Y., May 28.—The monthly bulletin of the State Board of Health shows the statistics for April. The total number of deaths was 10,590, as compared with 10,978 for the preceding month. The highest death rate for 1,000 inhabitants was at Fort Plain, where it reached 44. Acute respiratory diseases caused 3,161 of the deaths, cancer 240, smallpox 11 and old age 466. Three thousand two hundred and forty-five of the deaths were children under 5 years of age.

A lamp chimney is a small thing, (however important) and it is strange a dealer will so belittle himself as to substitute an imitation for the genuine "Pearl-top" chimney, because it costs him a few cents per dozen less. Yet he does this—does it every day. We are blamed when these imitation things "don't work" and break. Every "Pearl-top" chimney bears a label for your protection. Look for it. "Pearl-glass" (chimneys not pearled at top) are made of same quality of glass, and have etched near top "MARETH & CO." in plain letters. These are for central draft and student lamps.

Do yourself the justice to examine your next purchase and take no substitute for "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass" chimneys. Pittsburgh, Pa. GEO. A. MARETH CO.

PLANNED A MEMORABLE ESCAPE.

Death of Gen. Stroight, Who Released 108 Officers From Libby Prison.

WHEELER, N. Y., May 28.—News of the death of Gen. Abel D. Stroight, at Indianapolis, has been received here. He was born in this place, but had lived in the West since he was 17 years old. He recruited the Fifty-first Regiment of Indiana Volunteers and was made Colonel of the regiment in 1861. Col. Stroight's command became prisoners of war, the officers being sent to Richmond and committed to Libby prison. By reason of his having led the raid into the enemy's country, Col. Stroight became the object of special hate by the rebels. He was ironed, confined in a dungeon and made to subsist on corn bread and water for thirty days for attempting to escape. Soon after his release from the dungeon, he planned the memorable and historic scheme for escape by which 108 officers secured their freedom.

After a brief rest Col. Stroight returned to the service and took command of his old regiment. After the battle of Nashville he was made Brigadier-General by President Lincoln. Gen. Stroight remained in the army until the close of the war, and then returned to Indianapolis, where he identified himself with its foremost commercial and financial interests.

The Belt Works Like a Charm. PHILADELPHIA, October 19, 1891. DR. A. T. SANDEN—Dear Sir—I am in receipt of your letter favoring which I would to my regret not be reporting my case as you requested, but will now say that I am convinced that your belt (not only all but more than I could have hoped for) has done more for me than any other medicine or treatment I have ever used. I am now young, and what more need be said. Your remedy has cured every particular which was a charm, and I feel free to say that your invention cannot be too highly spoken of and I wish you could cure all the many sufferers who are in need of honest treatment and advice. An Old Man Made Young. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 2, 1892. DR. A. T. SANDEN—Dear Sir—I should have reported to you sooner but I wanted to be sure of a month before doing so. I am happy to say that results are entirely satisfactory. From the use of your belt I enjoy excellent health, my appetite is good, sleep is sweet and refreshing, and my bowels are regular. I feel more vigorous than I have for years before taking your treatment. I think the best one of my best friends, and no money could induce me to part with it if I could not get another. I will remove the tin case, and the age of 74 I am as young as again. You may use this as a testimonial if you wish. Yours very truly, GEO. W. BOSLER, 120 Jackson st.
