CADETS ARE NERVOUS

Dreaded "Exams" Begin at West Point To-Morrow.

THE SECRETARY OF WAR TO ATTEND.

Military Men Interested In the Infantry Manauvres Under the New Drill Regulations-A Squadron Will be Present-The Cadet Hop.

WEST POINT, N. Y., May 81.-There are just 10 days of nervous excitement and delightful gayety in the whole year at the Military Academy here, and those 10 days will begin to-morrow.

The annual examinations are to be opened on that day and the Board of Visitors are due to arrive then. It has come to be accepted as one of the most important duties of the Board of Visitors to furnish the cadets with pretty girls during examination work.

Secretary of War Elkias intends to be present during the entire week and has sugaged six rooms. Mr. Elkins cannot very well occupy six rooms himself, and it is presumed that he will bring a party of guests. No man was ever known to act so cruelly as to bring a party of male guests when 300 cadets are languishing for an opportunity to be gallant, and Mr. Elkins is probably as far sighted as other men. Mr. A. J. Cassatt, of Philadelphia, Is Mr. A. J. Cassatt, of Philadelphia, is on the Board of Visitors and is expected to bring a large party with nim. His son is a cadet in the second, or junior class. The other gentlemen on the Board of visitors this year are Gen. Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin; Gen. Felix Angus, of Maryland; Gen. Samuel Dalton, of Massachusetts; A. H. Havey, of Oregon; Capt. A. M. Ogele, of Indiana, and John W. Linsey, of Georgia.

They will meet at the West Point Hotel, which the government allows on the post purely forfithely accommodation.

The members are supposed to attend all the examinations and drills, to look the whole post carefully over and then compile a report to Con-gress. Last year's board succeeded in gress. Last year's board succeeded in having the entrance examinations held at various points throughout the coun-try instead of at the post. The incom-ing class will be admitted in that way. These examinations are the ordeals which the boys dread and in which they which the boys dread and in which they are the most interested; about the mili-tary display they care precious little. It is just the other way with the visitors. The examinations seem decidedly stupid and as a rule incomprehensible to them, but the drills are highly appreciated. Military men are especially interested in the infantry maneavers of the endets this year, as it will be the first important public exhibition of the workings of the new drill regulations.

A review of the corps will be held on Wednesday for the Board of Visitors. General Wilson, the superintendent, will give a reception to the Board of Visitors.

Visitors.

The most enjoyable event, the cadet bop, will occur on Friday night, June 10. On this occasion "taps" will be delayed until midnight. The following morning, Saturday, June 11, the first class will be graduated out under the trees in front of the library. The graduates will take the boat to New York and attend the Casino in a body in the evening. The third class, going on furlough at the same time, will also go to New York and to the same theatre. Both classes will have suppers after the performance.

SPOILING FOR A FIGHT. An Incident Showing How Eager Bussia is to Engage in War.

VIENNA, May 31.—The spectacle of Russian troops marching in hostile array against Austrian forces was witnessed yesterday on the Galician frontier near Radzivilou.

The Austrian garrison at Brody, an important city of Galicia, was out Brody is only a few manœuvering. miles from the Russian Polish frontier, and in the course of tramping about the Austrian troops unwittingly crossed the frontier into Russian territory a short distance from Radizvilou.

The whole frontier is patrolled by Cossack videttes, and it did not take long for the Russian sentinels to spy the Austrian banner on Russian soil.

The Cossacks hastened to report to the commander of the garrison at Radiz-vilou, and the troops were at once aroused and ordered to turn out prepared for battle.

The Russian commander marshaled his men and then started out on a hasty march in the direction the Austrians had been seen. His vowed object, as had been seen. His vowed object, as stated to his troops, was to attack the invaders and drive them back over the frontier. Had he overtaken the Austrians a serious and sanguinary encounter would probably have been the result.

Fortunately for peace, the Austrian commander had his attention called by commander had his attention called by a Pollah peasant friendly to Austria, as most of the Poles are, to the fact that he was on Russian territory. A brief view of the surroundings satisfied the Austrians that they had made a mistake, and they turned their faces at once toward the frontier.

Just as they were crossing the Russian troops were seen in the distance approaching at double-quick time, but before the Russians got within firing distance the Austrians had crossed the line, and there was no longer any excuse for hostilities on the part of either Rus-sinns or Austrians.

The Russians acted as if they were disappointed, and their commander, after placing a strong outpost on the point where the Austrians had crossed, returned slowly to Radizvilon.

The affair is regarded in Vienna as of considerable significance, as showing the readiness of the Russians to selze any pretext for heatilities.

A RIVAL CORPORATION.

English Capitalists Who Are Going to Fight the Standard Oil Magnates.

CHICAGO, May 81 .- According to wellinformed persons, the oil-fields of Pennsylvania, Virginia and Ohio are not to remain the undisputed possession of the Standard Oil Company. The existence of another huge corporation, composed of London and Chicago capitalists, became known yesterday, and, while these in possession of the facts refuse to go into possession of the facts refuse to go into particulars, enough is learned to show that the plans of the new company are nearly matured, that they are commensurate with the operations of the Standard Oil Company, and that the financial backers of the new venture have as much or more money in sight now than that controlled by the Standard Oil magnates. There is no intention of putting any stock on the market. tion of putting any stock on the market. at least at present, though it is hinted that this may be done at some future

In a quiet way the new com-pany has already secured possession of several wells, whose flow reaches several thousand barrels daily, and also a large amount of territory in the oil regions, which is undeveloped, but known to be prich in cil.

During May several meetings have been held at the Auditorium Hotel, at which the plans of the company have reached a fair state of completion. Constructive plans have been considered, the nature and location of the territory now in possession of the company studied, and terminal points decided upon. The seaboard terminal will be at Baltimore.

George B. Cowlan of Pittsburg has been in consultation with the Chicago people interested, and although he claims to have only confidential knowledge of the plans of the company, admits that he has been consulted by its members in regard to pipe lines, oil territory, etc., because of his familiarity with matters in the oil regions.

LONDON, May 31 .- The result of the fight between Peter Jackson and Frank P. Slavin at the National Sporting Club last night was a great surprise, and is the sole topic of discussion among sporting men to-day. Those who backed Jackson are going around wearing broad, "I-told-you-so" smiles, while repeated, possessing himself of her hand. "I want you for my wife." In the tenth round Jackson kept up his heavy punishment and delivered blow after blow about the face, neck and body. He then swung his right and body. He then swung his right heavily under Slavin's heart and fol-lowed this blow quickly with his left in Slavin's face. This move he repeated several times. Cal McCarthy Beaten.

CONEY ISLAND, L. I., May 31.—The fight between Cal McCarthy of Jersey City, and Bobby Burns of Providence last night, turned out to be more or less of a farce. Burns hit McCarthy a powerful right hand jolt in the jaw in the second round and knocked him down. The effect of the blow was so great that the Jerseyman never recovered from it during the battle. McCarthy refused to come to the scratch when time was called in the eighth, and the fight was awarded to Burns.
