

HERALD'S SUCCESS
Is gratifying to its
Large Circle of Readers.
ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Evening Herald.

HERALD'S SUCCESS.
Is gratifying to its
Large Circle of Readers.
ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

VOL. VII.—NO. 133.

SHENANDOAH, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1892.

ONE CENT.

Wilkinson's Busy Store.

There is no store in Shenandoah, and probably none in the county, where such a grand assortment of fine dress goods are displayed as we are now offering; the great demand for many of the most fashionable colors is daily increasing and many choice shades cannot be replaced.

We are showing a complete line of rich English Brocades at 37 1/2c. These goods cannot be seen elsewhere and are the season's choicest offerings. We show all the newest shades of Dress Silks, Satins, Cashmeres, Henriettes, white and printed Lawns, India Linens, Embroidered Flouncings, Silk Lace Flosses, etc. The most complete stock of stylish trimmings at lower prices than you usually pay.

White Goods, Embroidery and Laces, handkerchiefs of pretty styles, all new and correct. We carry the largest stock of underwear for men, women and children; every grade worth having at reasonable prices.

Our Second Floor

Is filled with our special lines of fine Lace Window Curtains, Chenille Curtains, Curtain Poles, White Marseilles Quilts and Smyrna Rugs. Here will also be found an elegant stock of ladies' and misses' Spring Coats and Wraps of every description. Infant's Cloaks in cream or tan Cashmere, plain or embroidered. Also a full line of infant's lace, silk or cashmere Caps. Our Cloak and Wrap Department is the largest and most complete in this region and we guarantee prices to be lower than any competitor.

L. J. WILKINSON,
29 S. Main St., Shenandoah.

WEDNESDAY, June 3, 1892.

Girvin, Duncan and Waidley.

Two-day special sale of Glassware. Thursday and Friday of this week we will offer the following astonishing bargains. Note their regular selling price and then our price for this two-day sale:

- 100 1/2 gallon pitchers, regular price 35c at 17c
- 100 Vinegar jars " " 35c at 15c
- 100 Vinegar jugs " " 35c at 13c
- 25 doz. plain tumblers " " 5c at 3c
- 100 doz. wine glasses " " 10c at 5c
- 100 sugar bowls " " 15c at 10c
- 50 opal glass buttons " " 25c at 15c
- 25 glass pitchers " " 35c at 20c
- 50 glass berry dishes " " 75c at 45c
- 100 glass berry dishes " " 1.00 at 75c
- 100 glass pickle dishes " " 1.00 at 50c
- 20 shell tumblers " " 25c at 15c
- 50 nut bowls " " 35c at 15c
- 25 syrup jugs " " 35c at 15c

It will be to your interest to make your purchase from this assortment early as these goods positively cannot be duplicated at these prices, and this lot limited as you notice.

8 South Main Street. At FRICKE'S, 10 South Jardin St.

Fine Goods in Season.

- Crosse & Blackwell Chow-chow and Pickles,
- Tomato Catsup,
- Pickled Onions and Pickles in small bottles,
- Mustard Dressing for salad and meats,
- Sweet Pickles by the quart,
- Luncheon and Corned Beef,
- Condensed Milk—best brand,
- Chipped Beef and Summer Sausage,
- New England Baked Beans,
- Oat flakes and Wheat Flakes,
- Norway Bloater Mackerel,—
- Extra large, white and and fat.
- Fresh Creamery and Dairy Butter.

We open this week some new styles in Moquette and Body Brussels Carpets.

FOR SALE TO-DAY.

One Car of Choice Heavy White Oats,
Fifty Bushels of WHOLE RYE.

TO ARRIVE.

Two Cars No. 1 Timothy Hay.
One Car Baled Straw.
One Car Fine Middlings.
AT KEITER'S

Our Directory.

THE POST OFFICE
Shenandoah.

Office hours from 7:30 a. m. to 7:30 p. m. Money Order and Registry Department open from 8:00 a. m. to 7:00 p. m.

Following is a schedule of the arrival and departure of mail trains. Mail matter for despatch must be in the office thirty minutes before the time given below:

Arrival.	Destination.	Departure.
P. M. A. M.	(Phila. Western)	A. M. P. M.
1:40	and	7:30
2:25		9:05
8:05	Southern States	11:30
8:18		8:30
8:45	New York and East-	12:52
9:00	(points on L. V. R. R.)	3:05
9:08		1:35
1:25	Ashland.	7:20
1:25	Grardville.	1:55
1:25		7:30
1:25	Raven Run, Centra-	1:41
2:20	lia, Mt. Carmel and	7:00
2:20	Shamokin.
1:40		7:30
2:20	Pottsville.	5:20
8:18		2:50
1:40		7:20
2:20	Mahanoy City.	9:05
8:18		11:30
2:20	Mahanoy Plane, Lost	6:50
8:18	Creek and Stauff.	2:00
2:20	Frackville.	7:20
2:20		2:50

Carriers make a general collection at 5:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m., and a general delivery at 7:15 a. m. and 8:15 p. m. Additional deliveries and collections are made in the business part of town at 10:15 a. m. and 2:00 p. m.

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah Fire Department:

- 15—Coal and Bowers streets.
- 16—Bowers and Centre streets.
- 24—Bridge and Centre streets.
- 25—Main and Centre streets.
- 34—Main and Poplar streets.
- 35—Main and Coal streets.
- 43—Gilbert and Centre streets.
- 43—Gilbert and Cherry streets.
- 43—Chestnut and Coal streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.
If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

Headache cured by using Gregory's Powders. 15 cents a package. Take no other. For sale by druggists. 6-5-1m

Meals at all hours. Oysters all summer at George M. Schoener's Oyster Bay, 11 West Centre street. 6 20 tf

CARPET SWEEPERS, $2.50, $3.00, $3.50.

THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL EXERCISES

FORTY-EIGHT GRADUATES IN THE CLASS OF '92.

FERGUSON'S THEATRE GROWDED

A Lengthy Programme Most Successfully Carried Out—A Review of History From the Discovery to Date.

SCARCELY had the doors of Ferguson's theatre been opened last night before every seat was taken in the place by people anxious to witness the graduating exercises of the Grammar schools. To get a reserved seat at the ticket office was an impossibility. They had all been secured and an admission ticket was all that could be had. It was a striking manifestation of increased interest in the common school work of the town. Long before 8 o'clock, the hour fixed for the commencement, standing room was at a premium.

A pleasing and novel feature of the arrangements was the ushering of the patrons. Six boys and six girls from the "B" class of the grammar school ushered the people to the seats and did their work so well that even a chronic kicker was obliged to take the seat assigned him, stick his coupon into his vest pocket and remain silent. The girls took charge of the parquet and the boys looked after the parquet circle.

When the curtain arose members of the School Board and Borough Council and borough officials were seated at the right hand side of the stage, and to the left of them were the raised four rows of seats that had been prepared for the graduates.

The School Directors on the stage were Messrs. Beddall, Treasie, Ogden, Williams, Bachman, Butts, Hanna, Conry, Brennan, Baird, O'Hearn, Gable and Gallagher. Directors-elect Lynch and Burke were also there.

The Councilmen were Holman, Stout, Gable, Gallagher, Scheiffy, Devers, James, Lamb, Betteridge and Coakley.

Chief Burgess Smith and Tax Receiver Higgins also occupied seats on the stage. The graduates were 48 in number. They were:

- Mary S. Pomeroy
- Katie C. Dougherty
- Mary A. Troutman
- Mary E. Horck
- Joan S. Taylor
- Nellie E. Dougherty
- Mary E. Mulhearn
- Fred S. Wasley
- Bridget T. Devers
- Mary L. Downey
- Nora M. Graham
- John P. McGowan
- Bertrude E. Muir
- Lottie M. Beach
- Albert D. Beck
- Lizzie F. North
- Daniel J. Ferguson
- Martin Devitt
- Lillie M. Liewelyn
- Annie McGuire
- Lottie Burkhart
- Frank J. Conry
- Agnes P. Leckie
- Alfred A. Lewis
- Mary D. Griffiths
- Carric V. Fulmer
- Nettie Levine
- Annie A. Fox
- Mable W. Glover
- William A. James
- William D. Williams
- James D. Cleary
- Emma A. Gunter
- Joseph J. Whitaker
- James J. Bell
- Allen L. Seltzer
- Julia A. Sullivan
- Harry A. O'Hearn
- Charles F. Katz
- Maggie L. Shane
- Bodie E. Reese
- Harry P. Gable
- Raymond N. Ehrhart
- Emma L. Davis
- Annie T. Flaherty
- Cornelius B. Campbell
- Laura E. Swartz
- Bernard J. Durkin

The class was the largest that has ever graduated from the Grammar schools of the town.

At the rear of the raised seats was hung an immense United States flag, and as the graduates marched from behind the scenes

OUR POTTSVILLE POLITICAL LETTER

AN INTERESTING REVIEW OF THE SITUATION.

CONTEST FOR THE JUDICIARY

Our Correspondent Says Ryon Leads Pershing and Koch Leads in the Race—A Judiciary Battle.

Special Correspondence to the Herald.

POTTSVILLE, June 3, 1892.
HERE is much speculation in political circles here as to the outcome of next week's Republican National Convention at Minneapolis. I have taken the sentiment of leading members of the party and find that the Blaine boom, or rather Harrison disaffection, does not take hold. All but a few disgruntled, disappointed and fault finding kickers fly the Harrison flag and will carry it to the front. Blaine continues to have their respect, but Harrison is their choice. A prominent legal light of the party expressed himself to your correspondent yesterday in words like these: "I am of opinion that all this effort to stampede the convention for Mr. Blaine will fizzle out on the first day of the gathering at Minneapolis, and I will be very much surprised if President Harrison is not unanimously nominated on the coming of the 7th inst. Since Blaine's story of declination there has been a steady crystallization of the masses in behalf of Harrison, and it is now too late for the New York kickers to succeed in their attempts to defeat him with the Plumed Knight. Depend on it, Mr. Harrison will be the nominee and his own successor. He has made an excellent President, and the people know it. I believe he will receive a large Democratic vote as against Cleveland, or any other man the Democracy may name."

THE CONTEST FOR JUDGE.
But your readers are more particularly interested in learning the latest about local politics since the presidential outcome seems to be settled. I must confess that since my last letter nothing has transpired of more than ordinary moment, and all that can now be written is gossip and the news that comes in occasionally from different districts in the instalment way. Yet, as a straw indicates the direction of the wind, so these little wavelets of news, as they drift in, may show how the tide of the political sea ebbs and flows as we progress towards the day of election.

The contest for the judgeship on the Democratic side will be between Hon. John W. Ryon and Judge C. L. Pershing, with the chances at present in favor of Mr. Ryon; and it is becoming a matter of quiet remark that as the time of the convention draws nearer Mr. Ryon will gather more and more strength, and unless Judge Pershing develops an unexpected following north of the mountain he will be distanced in the race, as Mr. Ryon is at present the almost unanimous choice of the lower section. There is daily more talk of retiring Judge Pershing heard on the streets and in the places where such questions are mainly discussed. It is not so much his age that is urged against him, as both he and Mr. Ryon have seen sixty-seven summers and as many winters, but almost every member of the bar has his grievances and will begin to air them in time. He has, of course, strong friends at the bar who will work hard for him, but there are many who are strong of influence who are sharpening their tomahawks and scalping knives, and are in for his political death, and of these are lawyers of both political parties who have always been his warm adherents. On the other hand, Mr. Ryon is popular with all the lawyers. They admire him every day more and more as the Nestor of the bar. When his workers turn in to make delegates look out for the name of Ryon.

But the candidate of the Republican party, B. H. Koch, Esq., has the advantage in the race. His and his friends are not idle these balmy spring days, and the popularity he demonstrated in the District Attorney contest is increasing. His advantage lies in the fact that he was an early bird in the race. The sun is shining and he is harvesting his hay in a lively manner. Now and then you meet a Republican who says, "Oh, Koch cannot make it," but they are not the hewers of wood and drawers of water. They are of those few who still stick to that fallacy of an independent judiciary. That business has got its quietus. There are many who voted for it for the last time last fall.

It was the nomination of Mr. Koch that retired the independent judiciary movement from business. Having done so, he will ask his party's unanimous support and his friends claim many Democrats will flock to his aid. They say, "Give us a young man for a good, strong race." It is going to be a dandy fight between Mr.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no payment required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. H. Hagenbuch.

PERSONAL.

Elmer Wasley and Christ Williams drove to Girardville last night.

Among the out of town people who attended the graduating exercises last night were Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple Muir, and Miss Emma Parry, of Shamokin; Misses Lillie and Edith Christian, of Kentucky; and Miss Hannah Steel, of Philadelphia.

If prize medals indicate success, then F. A. Richter & Co., the manufacturers of the celebrated imported "Anchor Pain Expeller" are far in the lead over others. 29 prize medals awarded to them at the international exhibitions in London, Paris, Antwerp, etc. As a remedy for all Rheumatic diseases the celebrated imported is unequalled. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirlin, J. M. Hillan and other druggists.

Bargains in Graduates' Books.
Chambers' Encyclopaedia, 12 large volumes, worth $12, only $8.50. E. P. Roe's works, elegantly bound, worth $1, for only 50c, at Max Reese's. This offer holds good until June 5, 1892.

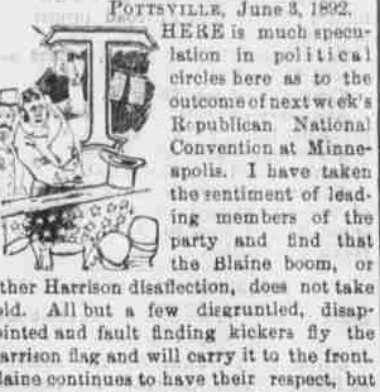

Lane's Family Medicine
Moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

OUR POTTSVILLE POLITICAL LETTER

AN INTERESTING REVIEW OF THE SITUATION.

CONTEST FOR THE JUDICIARY

Our Correspondent Says Ryon Leads Pershing and Koch Leads in the Race—A Judiciary Battle.

Special Correspondence to the Herald.

POTTSVILLE, June 3, 1892.
HERE is much speculation in political circles here as to the outcome of next week's Republican National Convention at Minneapolis. I have taken the sentiment of leading members of the party and find that the Blaine boom, or rather Harrison disaffection, does not take hold. All but a few disgruntled, disappointed and fault finding kickers fly the Harrison flag and will carry it to the front. Blaine continues to have their respect, but Harrison is their choice. A prominent legal light of the party expressed himself to your correspondent yesterday in words like these: "I am of opinion that all this effort to stampede the convention for Mr. Blaine will fizzle out on the first day of the gathering at Minneapolis, and I will be very much surprised if President Harrison is not unanimously nominated on the coming of the 7th inst. Since Blaine's story of declination there has been a steady crystallization of the masses in behalf of Harrison, and it is now too late for the New York kickers to succeed in their attempts to defeat him with the Plumed Knight. Depend on it, Mr. Harrison will be the nominee and his own successor. He has made an excellent President, and the people know it. I believe he will receive a large Democratic vote as against Cleveland, or any other man the Democracy may name."

THE CONTEST FOR JUDGE.
But your readers are more particularly interested in learning the latest about local politics since the presidential outcome seems to be settled. I must confess that since my last letter nothing has transpired of more than ordinary moment, and all that can now be written is gossip and the news that comes in occasionally from different districts in the instalment way. Yet, as a straw indicates the direction of the wind, so these little wavelets of news, as they drift in, may show how the tide of the political sea ebbs and flows as we progress towards the day of election.

The contest for the judgeship on the Democratic side will be between Hon. John W. Ryon and Judge C. L. Pershing, with the chances at present in favor of Mr. Ryon; and it is becoming a matter of quiet remark that as the time of the convention draws nearer Mr. Ryon will gather more and more strength, and unless Judge Pershing develops an unexpected following north of the mountain he will be distanced in the race, as Mr. Ryon is at present the almost unanimous choice of the lower section. There is daily more talk of retiring Judge Pershing heard on the streets and in the places where such questions are mainly discussed. It is not so much his age that is urged against him, as both he and Mr. Ryon have seen sixty-seven summers and as many winters, but almost every member of the bar has his grievances and will begin to air them in time. He has, of course, strong friends at the bar who will work hard for him, but there are many who are strong of influence who are sharpening their tomahawks and scalping knives, and are in for his political death, and of these are lawyers of both political parties who have always been his warm adherents. On the other hand, Mr. Ryon is popular with all the lawyers. They admire him every day more and more as the Nestor of the bar. When his workers turn in to make delegates look out for the name of Ryon.

But the candidate of the Republican party, B. H. Koch, Esq., has the advantage in the race. His and his friends are not idle these balmy spring days, and the popularity he demonstrated in the District Attorney contest is increasing. His advantage lies in the fact that he was an early bird in the race. The sun is shining and he is harvesting his hay in a lively manner. Now and then you meet a Republican who says, "Oh, Koch cannot make it," but they are not the hewers of wood and drawers of water. They are of those few who still stick to that fallacy of an independent judiciary. That business has got its quietus. There are many who voted for it for the last time last fall.

It was the nomination of Mr. Koch that retired the independent judiciary movement from business. Having done so, he will ask his party's unanimous support and his friends claim many Democrats will flock to his aid. They say, "Give us a young man for a good, strong race." It is going to be a dandy fight between Mr.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no payment required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. H. Hagenbuch.

PERSONAL.

Elmer Wasley and Christ Williams drove to Girardville last night.

Among the out of town people who attended the graduating exercises last night were Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple Muir, and Miss Emma Parry, of Shamokin; Misses Lillie and Edith Christian, of Kentucky; and Miss Hannah Steel, of Philadelphia.

If prize medals indicate success, then F. A. Richter & Co., the manufacturers of the celebrated imported "Anchor Pain Expeller" are far in the lead over others. 29 prize medals awarded to them at the international exhibitions in London, Paris, Antwerp, etc. As a remedy for all Rheumatic diseases the celebrated imported is unequalled. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirlin, J. M. Hillan and other druggists.

Bargains in Graduates' Books.
Chambers' Encyclopaedia, 12 large volumes, worth $12, only $8.50. E. P. Roe's works, elegantly bound, worth $1, for only 50c, at Max Reese's. This offer holds good until June 5, 1892.

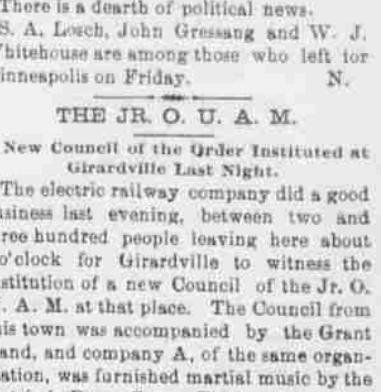

Lane's Family Medicine
Moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

OUR POTTSVILLE POLITICAL LETTER

AN INTERESTING REVIEW OF THE SITUATION.

CONTEST FOR THE JUDICIARY

Our Correspondent Says Ryon Leads Pershing and Koch Leads in the Race—A Judiciary Battle.

Special Correspondence to the Herald.

POTTSVILLE, June 3, 1892.
HERE is much speculation in political circles here as to the outcome of next week's Republican National Convention at Minneapolis. I have taken the sentiment of leading members of the party and find that the Blaine boom, or rather Harrison disaffection, does not take hold. All but a few disgruntled, disappointed and fault finding kickers fly the Harrison flag and will carry it to the front. Blaine continues to have their respect, but Harrison is their choice. A prominent legal light of the party expressed himself to your correspondent yesterday in words like these: "I am of opinion that all this effort to stampede the convention for Mr. Blaine will fizzle out on the first day of the gathering at Minneapolis, and I will be very much surprised if President Harrison is not unanimously nominated on the coming of the 7th inst. Since Blaine's story of declination there has been a steady crystallization of the masses in behalf of Harrison, and it is now too late for the New York kickers to succeed in their attempts to defeat him with the Plumed Knight. Depend on it, Mr. Harrison will be the nominee and his own successor. He has made an excellent President, and the people know it. I believe he will receive a large Democratic vote as against Cleveland, or any other man the Democracy may name."

THE CONTEST FOR JUDGE.
But your readers are more particularly interested in learning the latest about local politics since the presidential outcome seems to be settled. I must confess that since my last letter nothing has transpired of more than ordinary moment, and all that can now be written is gossip and the news that comes in occasionally from different districts in the instalment way. Yet, as a straw indicates the direction of the wind, so these little wavelets of news, as they drift in, may show how the tide of the political sea ebbs and flows as we progress towards the day of election.

The contest for the judgeship on the Democratic side will be between Hon. John W. Ryon and Judge C. L. Pershing, with the chances at present in favor of Mr. Ryon; and it is becoming a matter of quiet remark that as the time of the convention draws nearer Mr. Ryon will gather more and more strength, and unless Judge Pershing develops an unexpected following north of the mountain he will be distanced in the race, as Mr. Ryon is at present the almost unanimous choice of the lower section. There is daily more talk of retiring Judge Pershing heard on the streets and in the places where such questions are mainly discussed. It is not so much his age that is urged against him, as both he and Mr. Ryon have seen sixty-seven summers and as many winters, but almost every member of the bar has his grievances and will begin to air them in time. He has, of course, strong friends at the bar who will work hard for him, but there are many who are strong of influence who are sharpening their tomahawks and scalping knives, and are in for his political death, and of these are lawyers of both political parties who have always been his warm adherents. On the other hand, Mr. Ryon is popular with all the lawyers. They admire him every day more and more as the Nestor of the bar. When his workers turn in to make delegates look out for the name of Ryon.

But the candidate of the Republican party, B. H. Koch, Esq., has the advantage in the race. His and his friends are not idle these balmy spring days, and the popularity he demonstrated in the District Attorney contest is increasing. His advantage lies in the fact that he was an early bird in the race. The sun is shining and he is harvesting his hay in a lively manner. Now and then you meet a Republican who says, "Oh, Koch cannot make it," but they are not the hewers of wood and drawers of water. They are of those few who still stick to that fallacy of an independent judiciary. That business has got its quietus. There are many who voted for it for the last time last fall.

It was the nomination of Mr. Koch that retired the independent judiciary movement from business. Having done so, he will ask his party's unanimous support and his friends claim many Democrats will flock to his aid. They say, "Give us a young man for a good, strong race." It is going to be a dandy fight between Mr.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no payment required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. H. Hagenbuch.

PERSONAL.

Elmer Wasley and Christ Williams drove to Girardville last night.

Among the out of town people who attended the graduating exercises last night were Mr. and Mrs. Dalrymple Muir, and Miss Emma Parry, of Shamokin; Misses Lillie and Edith Christian, of Kentucky; and Miss Hannah Steel, of Philadelphia.

If prize medals indicate success, then F. A. Richter & Co., the manufacturers of the celebrated imported "Anchor Pain Expeller" are far in the lead over others. 29 prize medals awarded to them at the international exhibitions in London, Paris, Antwerp, etc. As a remedy for all Rheumatic diseases the celebrated imported is unequalled. Sold by C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirlin, J. M. Hillan and other druggists.

Bargains in Graduates' Books.
Chambers' Encyclopaedia, 12 large volumes, worth $12, only $8.50. E. P. Roe's works, elegantly bound, worth $1, for only 50c, at Max Reese's. This offer holds good until June 5, 1892.

Lane's Family Medicine
Moves the bowels each day. Most people need to use it.

Best photographs and crayons at Dabb's