Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Bret Harte's Daughter.

Bret Harte's young daughter, Miss Jessamy Harte, will make her literary debut in the July Ladies' Home Journal with a most entertaining description of "Camp Life in the Adirondacks," in which it is claimed every evidence shows itself of inherited literary tendencies not unlike those evidenced in Bret Harte's earlier work. Miss Harte is a girl still in her teens, and has artistic as well as literary proclivities, as one of the illustrations accompanying her first article shows.

TWO NEW TRAINS.

Improved Train Service on the Schuylkill Division of Pennsylvania Railroad.

Two new trains, which greatly improve the facilities of travel between this city and the cities of the Schuylkill Valley, have been added to the schedule of the Schuylkill Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, in effect May 22d. The train now leaving Philadelphia at 11:37 p. m. week-days for Norristown will, on and after the 22d inst, run through to Reading, stopping at all principal intermediate stations. This will be a great convenience to those desiring to spend the evening in Philadelphia. A new evening train has also been placed in service between Pottsville and Philadelphia. It will leave Pottsville at 7:05 p. m., Reading 8:20 p. m., Pottstown 8:53 p. m., stopping at all principal stations, and arrive at Philadelphia, Broad street station, at 10:20 p. m., connecting with the late trains for New York, Washington, and points in the West.

The present schedule presents the best service ever enjoyed by the residents of the valley.

Of Interest to Haulers.

Geo. O. Richards, coal hauler of Mahanoy City, entered suit at the office of Squire Wm. A. Davis, against David Herring, who is employed as a timber man at Primrose colliery, to recover a claim of $2.75, money earned by hauling coal. The justice issued an execution against James Wynn, superintendent of Primrose colliery, garnishee, and an attachment of wages earned. Arguments by the attorney, for garnishee, ensued as to the right of the justice to issue an attachment in the case, but the justice gave judgment in favor of Richards for the amount and costs, on the ground that the claim was one for wages, and that wages were attachable for wages. The superintendent paid the claim and costs.

HERE AND THERE.

Richard Cleary, of Mahanoy City, spent last evening in town.

Prof. A. O. Schalm, of Pottsville, died yesterday after a week's illness.

Bridget, eleven year old daughter of James McCool, of Jackson's, fell and broke one of her arms.

J. C. Bender, of Pottsville, salesman for Wanamaker & Brown, clothiers of Philadelphia, was in town taking orders to-day.

The White-Watson four-round contest came off at St Clair last night, but was stopped by the authorities in the third round. It is said the men will have another "go," to decide the numerous side bets.

When Traveling.

Whether on pleasure bent, or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50 cents and $1 bottles by all leading druggists.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

UNFAIRLY TREATED.

The Left Hand Inlets She Is Not Properly Treated.

This curious little extract, which reads somewhat like a riddle, comes from a letter written by Dr. Franklin to the American Museum. The learned doctor is speaking on a subject about which there is a great diversity of opinion. He is arguing the cause of the left hand, and contends that she is entitled to equal consideration with the right. That she ought to be equally instructed, in order that if anything should happen to her sister, she might be as competent for useful employment as the right would be if deprived of the assistance of the left.

"There are two sisters of us, and the two eyes of man do not resemble nor are capable of being on better terms with each other than my sister and myself, but for the partiality of our parents, who make the most injurious distinctions between us. From my infancy I have been led to consider my sister as a being of more elevated rank. Nothing was spared in her education, while I was suffered to grow up without the least instruction. She had masters to teach her writing, drawing and other accomplishments; but if by chance I touched a pen, a pen, or a needle, I was bitterly rebuked, and more than once I have been beaten for being awkward and wanting a graceful manner. It is true my sister associated me with her upon some occasions, but she always made a point of taking the lead, calling upon me only from necessity, or to figure at her side."

But in spite of Dr. Franklin's argument, the left hand has never yet taken equal place with the right, and for many reasons, it seems hardly probable that she ever will.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blotches, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. H. Hagenbuch's Drug Store, 50c. per bottle.
