WANAMAKER'S ANSWER

He Denies the Charges of the Leake Memorial.

MANY DOCUMENTS SUBMITTED.

The Postmaster-General Had Never Heard of Any Government Official Having Any Interest in Pneumatic Tube Companies Until the Presentation of the Memorial.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—Some time ago S. F. Leake of Philadelphia presented a memorial to the House making certain charges against postoffice officials in regard to the pneumatic tube service in Philadelphia.

The following is the substance of the correspondence that has been received by Chairman Henderson, of the House Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, from Postmaster-General Wanamaker, in regard to the Leake memorial.

This budget was sent in response to a communication from Mr. Henderson to the Postmaster-General inclosing a copy of Mr. Leake's affidavit on file in the committee room.

The committee will consider the whole matter at its meeting on Friday next, and take such action as it may deem proper after examining the documents furnished by both sides.

Mr. Wanamaker's budget is very voluminous and would make a book of several hundred pages. It contains nearly forty different letters, legal opinions, testimonials, arguments, etc.

The budget is accompanied by a letter, in which the Postmaster-General says: "I may add that inasmuch as no appropriations have been made specifically for pneumatic service, and no authority exists for the expenditure of public funds to investigate this subject, the department has not been able to do more than receive propositions and gather information. I have thought it proper to study the subject from every standpoint, and have therefore encouraged all parties to submit to the department whatever they pleased bearing upon this new and interesting method for the transmission of mail matter."

I have studiously endeavored to avoid, either verbally or otherwise, any commitment to any responsibility to the Government. While, as no doubt, you have observed, the supervising inspectors' report would have precluded the acceptance of the Leake proposition, under no circumstances would I have favored the granting of a contract at the city of Philadelphia without opening it to competition by public advertisement. I have only to add that I have never heard of any government official having any interest in either of the pneumatic tube companies until a newspaper reporter called upon me after the publication of a memorial which was presented to your committee.

"I shall be pleased to answer any call that the committee desires upon me, personally or otherwise."

The letter is accompanied by a communication from Mr. George Bratton, referred to in the Leake affidavit as authority for certain statements in which he (Bratton) makes unqualified denial of the statements attributed to him.

There is also a communication from Alexander & Magill, attorneys for the Pneumatic Transit Company, in which they say that "not a share of the stock of that company has ever been issued," and that the statement recently made to the effect that 7,000 shares of the stock of that company have been placed in the hands of a banking house for the benefit of officers of the Postoffice Department is absolutely false. "No person in any way connected with the Postoffice is in any manner, directly or indirectly, interested in our company."

Gen. Collins' Mission Unsuccessful. DUBLIN, June 4.—Gen. Patrick Collins returns to the United States without having accomplished the object of his visit to this country. His negotiations with the factions have met with no success and it seems to be certain that the Home Rule party will go into the election campaign divided into two bitterly antagonistic sections. It is believed that the failure of Gen. Collins' negotiations will lead to the retirement of many McCarty members who, while willing to sit for a united party, will refuse to seek election and appear in the house as representatives of a party ring.

A Long Strike Settled. TORONTO, Ont., June 4.—The brick-makers' strike has terminated, after having lasted nearly two months, in a victory for the employers. The men are disconsolate over their defeat, and say that they have given in only because their families are in absolute want. They declare that they will endeavor to strengthen their ranks and, if necessary, make a more determined stand next spring for a return to the old scale of wages.

Cut His Throat With a Pen-Knife. NORTHAMPTON, Mass., June 4.—Ex-Representative John B. Bottum, who had become mentally deranged, is said, through his efforts to extricate his father and brother from financial difficulties caused by the Florence Tack Company's failure, cut his throat with a pen-knife during the night and will probably die.

Big Washout Near Wilkesbarre. WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 4.—A big washout occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad at Retreat, ten miles from this city, during the evening. Twenty loaded freight cars were thrown down a 12 foot embankment into the Susquehanna River and are a total wreck. The cars were loaded with flour and powder.

Mrs. Montagu Not Released. LONDON, June 4.—The transfer of Mrs. Anne Margaret Montagu, under sentence for the manslaughter of her child, Mary Helen, from London's prison to Grange-Gorman caused the circulation of a report that Mrs. Montagu had been released. The report was not true.

Fatally Kicked by an Italian. MIDDLETOWN, Conn., June 4.—John Nicol, the 15-year-old Italian boy, who was brutally kicked by an Italian workman, named Angelo, has been unconscious since the assault and will die. Angelo, who boarded with Nicol's father, was intoxicated.

Masked men at Sharpville, Ind., took Alfred Midkiff from his home and gave him a terrible beating.

The train robbers who held up the Santa Fe express Wednesday night are supposed to have gone over into the Iowa and Kickapoo reservations.

The Billings and Great Falls, (Mont.) stage was held up by masked men and the treasure box and mail sacks taken. The passengers were not molested.

The Boston & Maine Railroad Company has closed a contract with Simpson & Robinson, of Minneapolis, for the erection of a big grain elevator at Mystic Wharf, Boston.

Did you ever count up how much you pay for lamp chimneys? There are about twelve million families of us. We average, maybe, a lamp a family; chimneys break, perhaps, at the rate of one a week a lamp. Six hundred million chimneys a year for the ash barrels.

Suppose they cost ten cents a piece on the average; that's enough to half pay the national debt. Nine-tenths of it waste.

If you get Macbeth's "Pearl-top" or "Pearl-glass" you will pay a trifle more apiece, but not one-tenth as much a year.

Disreputable chimney makers are trying to furnish the dealers with cheap imitations. They break from heat, ruin the temper of the household and fill the ash barrels; a plague and a nuisance.

THE MOB'S ACTION CONDEMNED.

Public Opinion Reacts in Regard to the Port Jervis Lynching.

PORT JERVIS, N. Y., June 4.—The excitement in this village over the lynching of the negro, Robert Lewis, still continues at fever heat, and further developments are awaited with intense interest.

Public attention just now is centred upon the coroner's jury, whose duty it will be to investigate the circumstances surrounding the lynching, and, if possible, to trace out the ringleaders of the lynchers.

Opinion in regard to the act of the mob has completely changed. At first citizens, upon learning of the lynching, gave to it an unqualified approval, and the whippers which came from the various groups of persons who gathered to discuss the matter were to the effect that Lewis had met a just and merited fate.

But a decided reaction in public opinion is observable, and it is now felt that the honor of the village is deeply concerned in bringing the leaders of the deed to justice. Much depends upon the coroner's jury for an accomplishment of this object.

In the event of a whitewashing verdict, which is feared in some quarters, the duty of working up facts will devolve upon District Attorney Hirschberg, who is out of town at present.

Peter J. Foley, whom Lewis implicated as the instigator of the assault, is in the jail at Graham, whether he was removed for fear that an attempt would also be made to lynch him. Lena McMahon is in a critical condition. She is badly bruised about the head, body and limbs, and is otherwise badly injured. Her clothing was saturated with blood.

A new phase has been given to the affair by the discovery of some blackmailing letters written by Foley to Miss McMahon. In them he makes a demand upon her for money, threatening, in default thereof, exposures which would forever ruin the girl's character. A warrant charging Foley with blackmail has been sworn out by the girl's father, which will be served upon him after he has testified at the inquest. His present detention is not on a criminal charge but solely to secure his presence as a witness before the coroner's jury.

BISMARCK WON'T BE RECONCILED. The Emperor Willing to Treat Him With Favor, but is Met With Refusal.

BREMEN, June 4.—It has just been learned that another attempt to reconcile the Emperor and Prince Bismarck has miscarried. Baron Stamm of Neunkirchen and Baron Lucius of Treves have been working to this end for some time. To them is due, it is said, that the Emperor extended such hearty congratulations to Count Herbert Bismarck and Countess Margaret Hoyos when the betrothal was announced recently.

Rumors were started from semi-official sources that Count Herbert was about to return to the diplomatic service or to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, and everything seemed ripe for a reconciliation.

The Emperor showed himself willing to treat the father and son with favor, to return the latter to the foreign service of the Empire, and to consider, it is said, the succession of the Prince to his old post. The first conditions were, however, that Prince Bismarck should cease at once his virulent newspaper attacks on the government, and should call upon his sovereign at Potsdam.

When Count Bismarck communicated these conditions to Prince Bismarck, the ex-Chancellor, despite all arguments, refused utterly to consider them.

Attempt to Blow Up a Boiler Factory.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A morning paper reports the discovery of an alleged attempt to blow up the boiler factory of William McGregor. Dynamite was the explosive to be used, and the miscreants had wires to which was attached a battery running to the factory from an adjoining lot. Three men who had hired a room in a house across the street from the factory were suspected, and an examination of the room revealed a quantity of dynamite and a strong electric battery. The men have disappeared. The owner of the factory believes that they are striking hands, and out of revenge wished to blow up the building.

Typewriting is Not Printing.

BOSTON, June 4.—The typewriter is barred out by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Three Justices of that court have entered an order that hereafter all motions and other documents presented to the court must be printed, and they added that typewriting is not printing within the meaning of the order. The occasion of the order was the presentation to the court by an attorney in a case of a motion written with the typewriter. Hereafter all papers must be similar to those used in the Circuit Court.

Mrs. Harrison Not Seriously Ill.

WASHINGTON, June 4.—The report that Mrs. Harrison is critically ill, and that therefore it would be imperative for her to attempt to leave the city, is denied by Dr. Gardner, her physician. Dr. Gardner said: "There is nothing alarming in the case. Her physical condition is good," he said, "but she is in a very nervous state, from her recent attack of nervous prostration." She will not leave the White House just at present, but she could do so without danger.

Probable Murder for Five Cents.

NEW YORK, June 4.—It is believed that Patrick Feany, who was struck by Michael Golden yesterday, will die. Golden, who is a truck driver, held Feany up and asked him for the price of a glass of beer. Feany refused to give him the money, whereupon Golden struck Feany upon the head with a cart rung, fracturing his skull. Golden was arrested, but refused to make any statement.

Bishop O'Reilly's Will.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 4.—The will of the late Bishop O'Reilly, dated June 5, 1878, has been filed for probate. Nearly all the Bishop's estate, valued at about $100,000 to $200,000, is left to Archbishop Williams, of Boston, who is named as executor.
