Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.
From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Proof of Merit.
The proof the merits of a plaster is the cures it effects, and the voluntary testimonials of those who have used Alcock's Porous Plasters during the past thirty years is unimpeachable evidence of their superiority and should convince the most skeptical. Self-praise is no recommendation, but certificates from those who have used them are. Beware of imitations and do not be deceived by misrepresentation. Ask for Alcock's, and let nosolitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

A Presentation.
The residence of Joseph Hinks, on North Emerick street, was the scene of a pleasant party last evening. A number of members of Shenandoah Lodge, No. 561, and Shenandoah Valley Encampment, No. 258, I. O. O. F., personal friends of Mr. Hinks, presented that gentleman with a beautiful gold fountain pen as a token of their appreciation for his services as secretary of the two lodges. Mr. Hinks very feelingly accepted the gift, assuring those present that the token of friendship will long be remembered by the recipient. Addresses were made by Messrs. Henry L. Jones, Thomas S. Roberts, Edwin R. Williams, James J. Powell, William J. Evans, interspersed with some very excellent musical selections by Harry Rome. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by those present.

If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a pinched look.
