From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all, eight bottles; it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

AN EXACT COPY.

The Proposition Submitted to Council by the Old Water Company.

Many citizens have approached the officials of the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company, asking them why their company does not make some proposition to the Borough Council looking to the settlement of the existing trouble. Under these circumstances it is deemed wise to republish, for the benefit of those of our citizens who may not have read it, the proposition submitted by the old water company. The following is an exact copy as presented by the company to the Borough Council:

SHENANDOAH, PA., MAY 5, 1892.
To the President and Members of the Borough Council.

We hereby reassure you and the public at large that our offer heretofore made was given in good faith. We hereby repeat the proposition, viz: That the Water Company will cancel the judgment obtained in the suit against the Borough, pay the costs of suit and waive its right to claim for water supplied the Borough for fire purposes for the past two years, and give the Borough free water for fire protection; provided, the Borough abandons the proposed new water works, and that an agreement to that effect be entered into. The foregoing statement having been read and discussed, it was unanimously adopted by the Directors of said company.

T. R. BEDFALL, Pres. P. T.
Attest:—J. O. ROADS, Secy.

SUMMER TOURS.

The Latest Publication of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

June is a date looked forward to by the thousands who make their preliminary plans for summer outings, and their main guide is the summer excursion book issued yearly by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which regularly appears on that date. Advanced copies for the season of 1892 are fresh from the press, and certainly excel anything of like character ever published by this progressive railroad company.

It is not only a compendium of all the rates prevailing over its own and connecting lines to the principal resorts of the land, but it is equally as valuable as a guide-book, with full and explicit information as to how trips may be made, and to what desirable variations may be utilized to enhance their pleasure and profit. Nearly five hundred resorts, ranging from Prince Edward Island to the mountains of Western North Carolina, from the southern extremity of New Jersey to the wild lakes of Virginia to the great inland lakes, are described at length, and over fifteen hundred routes, representing a stock of fifteen hundred special forms of tickets, are set out clearly and intelligibly within its pages.

In arranging these routes care has been observed in making them read over lines that present the greatest number of interesting points, and in every case there is a wide field for choice. They also provide for a return trip by a different direction, so that the tourist may find his outing a continual succession of changing scenes. It is so comprehensive that one could hardly ask for a ticket to an Eastern resort of any prominence and fail to find it ready-made by a variety of routes. One hundred and thirty railroad and steamboat lines are represented in the coupons of these tickets, every one of them connecting directly or remotely with the Pennsylvania system.

The cover to this handsome edition represents one of the famous Pennsylvania Railroad Observations Cars artistically executed. The illustrations are the finest style of half-tone work, on as high a grade as the popular magazine productions.

A Lost Child.

Yesterday morning a three-year-old child belonging to a Polish family residing in the western part of town strayed away and remained absent all day. At 8 o'clock last evening the distracted father sought the aid of the police and Chief Burgess Smith and told them to return the child to his home on Mayberry alley. At about 10 o'clock last night the child was found asleep at the home of Patrick Matthews in the First ward. Chief Burgess Smith sought the parents on Mayberry alley, but failed to locate them. Early this morning the father was again hunting for his child and Mr. Matthews surrendered it. The child wandered into the First ward early in the day and played with Mr. Matthews' children until night, when Mrs. Matthews fed and put it to bed.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep, depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic look and if your Kidneys be affected you have a pinched look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative and Tonic acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Blisters, Boils and gives a good complexion. Sold at C. H. Hagenbuch's Drug Store, 50c. per bottle.

Literary Notes.

The next number of Harper's Weekly, published June 8th, will be especially attractive for the timeliness of many of its articles and illustrations. The Republican National Convention at Minneapolis will be fully illustrated, with a double-page view of the hall and a portrait of Hon. J. S. Clarkson, chairman of the National Committee. There will be a front-page illustration apropos of the Commencement at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, drawn by R. F. Zogbaum. The recent floods at Sioux City, Iowa, will be graphically illustrated. Richard Harding Davis will contribute another of his characteristic articles on the West, entitled "The Heart of the Great Divide," which will be copiously and handsomely illustrated. The fiction of the number will include the continuation of Hall Caine's serial, "Capt. Davy's Honeymoon," and a strikingly original story by Fred. A. Wilson, entitled, "The Gold Gods of Mott Street," attractively illustrated.

The Happy Pair.

He—Your husband tells me he enjoyed himself in Mexico more than anywhere else on his wedding tour. Did you?

She—Oh, I was taken sick in Chicago and couldn't go further.—Life.

Had Studied to Advantage.

Mamma—How many sisters did your new playmate tell you he had?

Willis—He's got one. He tried to catch me by saying he had two half-sisters, but he'll find out I've studied fractions.—Harper's Young People.

One View of a Gas Meter.

"Do you know a gas meter is to me almost human?"

"To me, too. It has that dreadfully human tendency toward untruth."—N. Y. Sun.

A SORROWFUL PARTING.

Trump—Sorry I have to tear myself away.—Life.

Pre-Glacial.

There lived in the age called pliocene, When the air was warm and the earth was green, A postulant fellow, who wrote sad rhymes About "these degenerate modern times."—Puck.

A Funny Thing.

It seems very strange that the fire-dogs should be so called, while it is logs of wood that have all the bark.—Harper's Young People.

During the Waltz.

She (who is being held unnecessarily tight)—Mr. Professor, I prefer dancing and hugging separately.

He.—Then may I have the next break?—Life.
