MINNEAPOLIS, June 8 .- In the general anxiety to ascertain who is to be the standard-bearer of the Republican party in the next election one very important point has been to a considerable extent overlooked. This is, that the convention yesterday, without any one except the leaders knowing the full significance of its action, bound itself by cast iron rules to dispose of all the contested cases before taking up the platform, and pledged itself to adopt a platform before it permitted the first nomination to to be made.

How long these matters may delay the convention is a problem which opens a wide field for speculation. The contested mases alons are so bitterly fought that the Committee on Credentials may well ciaim, if so disposed, a day more for their consideration. Then comes the

This is the way the matter stands: In the early proceedings of the convection a motion was put and carried without objection that the rules of the last Na-tional Convention abould govern this one. The convention of 1683 specifi-cally adopted rule 3 of the convention of 1884, which rule reads as follows: "Rule 3—The report of the Committee on Credentials shall be disposed of before the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions is acted upon, and the

As Mr. Fassott named the leaders of the party he paused after the name of Lincoln. When he came to Harrison and Blaine he brought the two names and blane he brought the two hances out in one breath that the applause of the Harrison men would seem to mingle with the applause of the Blaine men in recognition of the x.Secretary of State. The Harrison men recognized the point and Senator Hiscock sat back and laughed as he applauded. CONVENTION RUMORS AND GOSSIP Talk of Dark Horses Increasing-Sherma Pavors McKinley.

MINNEAPOLIS, June S .- This is a day for the revival of the third candidata boom-not the Alger boom, but the dark horse boom. While there are various names mentioned in connection therewith, that most frequently heard is Senator Allison of Iowa. It is advocated from the far East where its inter ests seem to be confided to the charge of Senator A. J. Higgins of Delaware, te the West and Northwest, where Editor George Thomson of the St. Paul "Deepatch," one of the Minnesota delegates, is the chief fugleman. Senator Higgins for neveral weeks before leaving Wash ington for the convention, was of the opinion that his distinguished colleague from the Hawkeye State would be the most available man upon whom to con solidate all differences of opinion.

SHERMAN FOR M'KINLEY.

Senator Sherman has written a letter favoring McKinley. According to the leaders of the Harrison movement a new man should be chosen. Telegrams have been sent all over the country looking to that end.

Mr. Sherman's letter is said to be in Mr. Sherman's letter is said to be in hand by the biggest supporters of Har-rison. McKinley is under his wing. This is regarded as significant. This declaration from one of the greatest statesmen of the land is simply an an-nouncement that they have got to choose a new man to beat Mr. Blaine.

PLATT SURE OF VICTORY. Ex-Senator Platt said this morning: "The shaky condition of the Adminis-tration forces is shown in their efforts to bring out compromise candidates. They are talking McKinley, Allison, They are tailing authingy, Alleon, Rusk or almost any one to best Blaine None of our friends thinks of suggesting a compromise candidate. We are abso-lutely sure of one position and know that we will win. In fact the battle is already won.'

MURAT HALSTEAD ON THE SETURTION. A reporter met Murat Halstead and recalled the fact that on Sunday Mr. Halstead had given to the reporter his estimate of the vote as it stood then, conceding to Harrison and Blaine about 875 each, and asked him if he stood by 875 each, and asked him it he stood by that statement still. "Oh," said Mr. Halstead, "that was two days ago, and you know that changes of the situation at these nation-al conventions are kaleidoscopic in char-acter and swiftness. Since Sinday the Blaine men have had a little the advan-tage, and I believe are in better shape than their onponents. But as I said than their opponents. A moment later Mr. Clarkson brought the gavel down again twice sharply, and the convention and galleries came to order quickly, and there was not a dele-gate standing when Mr. Clarkaon an-nounced that the session would be opened by prayer by the Rev. Dr. Brush, Chancellar of the University of South Dakota.

A moment after the whole convenion stood, as Dr. Brush, a venerable looking man with sparsely covered head and long white beard, began to deliver the invection. He prayed for harmony, and that the pistform and the other issues might be subordinate to "Thy great will."

When he said "Amen" the convention settled down again with a rustling of badges.

M. H. De Young of California read the call for the convention. At 12:80 o'clock the reading of the call was concluded and Chairman Clark-son arose and announced that he was instructed by the contaities to present to the convention for its Temporary Chairman the Hon. J. Sloat Fassett of New York.

There was a round of applause at this announcement, led by the New Yorkers, and Mr. Fsasott, unescorted, left his seat and started for the platform. A path was cleared for him, and a minute later Chairman Clarkson was presenting him to the convention. Mr. Fassett said, in parts said, in parts "There is not a Republican in this conven-tion whose heart does not burn with ardor for triumph in the imperialing campaign. We are all eager for success. He Refused to Say Anything Regarding the Convention at Minneapolis.

NEW YORK, June 8 .- Ex-Secretary Blaine, accompanied by his wife, James G. Blaine, jr., and Miss Dodge, "Gail Hamilton," arrived in Jersey City at 9:10 last night from Washington, on their way to Bar Harbor.

Mr. Blaine when seen by a reporter Mr. Blaine when seen by a reporter refused to be interviewed, and when the question was put to him: "Will you grant a few minutes to a member of the press?" replied, "No; I will not." "Have you, Mr. Secretary," was asked, "heard anything from the Minn-mercille memorial memory and will report eapolis convention, and will you say anything relative to the election of Fassett as the temporary chairman of the convention?" "No," he replied, "I refuse to be interviewed, and you can enlarge as much as you please upon it." This was all that he would say.

The ex-Secretary's face was flushed and the flesh under both eyes was puffed up, leading those who saw him to doubt if he were in the best of health.
