DID YOU EVER!

Think what it cost to manufacture Baking Powder. Did you ever think how baking powder is sold? Did you ever think there must be a large profit in it somewhere? The manufacturer of a certain baking powder pays out nearly a million dollars, or more a year, advertising their powder, trying to make people believe it is the best made. Their baking powder is sold at 10c per pound. The retailer makes his profit, the jobber makes his profit, the manufacturer makes his profit, and the consumer pays for all these and the newspaper advertising also.

What does it cost to manufacture the powder? Other manufacturers give away 25 or 30 cents worth of china, glassware, toys, hardware, books, etc., with every pound of baking powder.

Again the query, what does it cost to manufacture the powder—can you think it out? You don't need to. Girvin, Duncan & Wadley have a few words on the baking powder question. Until September 1 we will sell Pennsylvania Baking Powder at TEN CENTS per pound. It doesn't concern you whether we make or lose on it—we want to get it introduced. On and after September 1st our price will not exceed 15c per pound.

We are not going to pay a million dollars to advertise it; we are not going to give away any premiums with it—we are going to sell it, every pound guaranteed, to our customers. If it does not give satisfaction, bring it back and receive your money.

Why do we say this? We expect it will please you. Why should you pay 35c or 40c profit on every pound of powder you buy?

Don't forget we strive to give our customers the advantage of inside prices at which we buy all sorts of goods.

Girvin, Duncan & Wadley,

8 South Main Street.

THE NEW SCHOOL DIRECTORS MEET

THE SCHOOL TERM INCREASED TO TEN MONTHS.

DATES FOR THE TERM FIXED

The School Will Open on August 31, 1892, and Close June 30, 1893—President Conry Appoints His Committees.

The new School Board held its first regular meeting last night, but did not elect teachers, as was expected. The directors present were Messrs. Conry, Davenport, O'Hearn, Lynch, Gallagher, Bachman, Burke, Beddall, Williams, Brennan, Trezise, Oden, Gable.

Treasurer Bellis was present and presented his bond, the sureties being Messrs. M. C. Watson, C. Schmidt, J. J. Bradigan, John A. Reilly, Benjamin Richards and David Evans.

The board accepted the bond on the usual conditions, namely that a search of the records be made at Pottsville and if everything be found satisfactory the bond be recorded.

The question of increasing the school term from nine to ten months created considerable discussion. In support of a motion to that effect it was argued that the teachers were not being sufficiently paid and that many of them suffered from the enforced idleness of three months under the shorter term rule. The motion to make the term ten months finally carried.

Superintendent Freeman announced that under the change the next term will begin on August 31st, 1892, and end June 30th, 1893.

The fixing of the rate of mills was laid over.

Mr. Lamb, the retiring treasurer, appeared before the board and stated that in order to raise funds for orders granted by the Board he had been obliged to negotiate loans and that notes to the amount of $5,200 were in bank and he was personally responsible for them. He asked the board to give him some security.

The election of teachers was postponed. It will probably take place on Friday night.

President Conry announced the appointment of the following committees.

High school—Lynch, Gallagher, Oden, Brennan and Trezise.
Teachers and salaries—Gallagher, Burke, O'Hearn, Williams and Bachman.
Evening schools—Brennan, Hanna, Muldoon, Oden and Beddall.

Text books and supplies—O'Hearn, Hanna, Williams, Muldoon, and Bachman.

Heating and fuel—Burke, Gallagher, Lynch, Trezise and Gable.

Building and repairs—Muldoon, Burke, O'Hearn, Oden and Beddall.

Exonerations—Williams, Brennan, Gable, Hanna, Muldoon, Oden and Beddall.

Finance—Hanna, Oden, Trezise, Brennan and O'Hearn.

Insurance—Davenport, Burke, Lynch, Brennan and Beddall.

Non-residents pupils—Beddall, Muldoon, Oden, Gable and Bachman.

Library—Patrick Conry, ex-officio; Wilber J. Sadler, Jr., and L. A. Freeman.

Visiting—September, October and November, Muldoon, Gable, Trezise, Hanna and Brennan; December, January and February, Beddall, Davenport, Oden, Burke and O'Hearn; March, April and May, Bachman, Williams, Gallagher and Lynch.

INTERESTING COMMENT.

A Column of News by a Writer Well Known to Our Readers.

Many of the sports of town are greatly interested in the foot race that comes off at Wilkes-Barre to-day, and a large number of them, too, are financially interested. The race is between Martin Fahey, of town, and John Lehman, the well-known Wilkes-Barre sprinter. They will run 125 yards for a purse of $300 a side. It is said $3,000 has already changed hands on the result. That the race will be an exciting one is a foregone conclusion, as both men are swift. Fahey has been in training for the past two months, and his friends feel confident of ultimate success. About one hundred enthusiasts left town this morning to witness the race, and in conversation with several of them I find the weather and condition of the track to be favorable for Fahey. May he win with flying colors.

This evening, in the Council chamber, the various ward election officers of town will meet for the purpose of receiving instructions in regard to the manner of conducting the approaching special election under the provisions of the new Baker ballot law.

The new Lithuanian church on South Lardin street is nearing completion, and when finished will be an imposing structure. The church authorities have appointed two special policemen to guard the edifice until it is completed.

In my walk about town I notice a gratifying improvement in the number of new and substantial pavements that are being laid, an indication of the desire on the part of property holders and borough authorities to give us better pavements.

Reading the proceedings of the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis, I notice two women delegates from Wyoming. The women, as a rule, know a good thing when they see it, and it is also an indication that those of Wyoming are not only voters, but workers.

The residents of East Coal street complain that young men and women make a practice of gathering on the porches and make themselves nuisances. The complaining parties say that if the practice is not abated they will resort to the law.

Shenandoah is indeed fortunate in having among its list of professional men such a class of physicians as we can proudly boast of. All are meeting with much success in the practice of their profession, but I note one among the rising young doctors who have just hung out their shingles, Dr. M. S. Kistler. Although it is but recently since he located here, I learn that his practice is daily increasing, and why should it not? He is courteous and obliging, and his abilities as a physician is attested to by his increasing practice. I predict a brilliant future for this young man.

The choir is composed of both active and honorary members, and has now upon the roll 149 names. Phillip Evans is the leader, with John Knight as Secretary and T. R. Edwards as Treasurer. A number of prominent singers from town last night enrolled their names as members, and a general invitation is extended to all singers to become members. A general meeting of the combined choir will be held in the Armory at Girardville next Tuesday evening. The choir is making excellent progress, and will compete for both the large and small prizes at the Musical Festival on August 15th, at Lakeside.

OUR POTTSVILLE CORRESPONDENT

HIS BUDGET UPON THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK.

SECRETARY BLAINE'S RESIGNATION

An Intelligent Summary of the Judgeship Fought in the Ranks of the Democratic Party. District Attorneyship.

Special correspondence of HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, June 8, 1892.

FILE our own candidate for Judge, Mr. Koch, is attending the Minneapolis convention, the contest for the Democratic nomination waxeth hot. Judge Pershing's lieutenant claim a walk-over, but except a relative and a certain court official those lieutenants are not over-sanguine. And what do the solid, old-time Democrats say of the Judge? A very prominent one was interviewed by your representative last week. He said, "Let any one tell me, if he can, what claims Judge Pershing has on the Democracy of this county for a nomination and election to any office, and I will tell him in return the name of the next President. First of all, he was brought here in 1872 by a coterie of disaffected lawyers, some of whom are now his most pronounced antagonists. He was defeated for the Democratic nomination by ex-Judge Ryan, and then he first showed his disposition to take any kind of a nomination that was lying around loose. The Republicans left their nomination open after Mr. Pershing had been nominated by the Labor Reform Convention, through the intrigues of C. Ben Johnson, editor of the Monitor, at Tamaqua. To Mr. Johnson had been sent by Mr. Pershing a suppliant letter, and he caught the prize. While the Republicans did not formally nominate him, they virtually did so by naming no one else.

"Mr. Pershing was made a Judge, and has continued on the bench for these twenty years, drawing $20,000 from the state treasury for the service. Quite a fortune, one would suppose. In 1892 Hon. James B. Reilly was nominated for the Judgeship, and Judge Pershing gladly, willingly and eagerly grasped the Republican and Greenback nominations, and by the aid of the solid Republican vote and some Democrats, who would vote for Reilly for anything but Judge, he was re-elected. This year he again sought the Republican nomination and was defeated by District Attorney Koch, the party evidently believing that it was a good year to retire Judge Pershing with his $20,000, and place a stop-cock on the independent judiciary nonsense. So they put a young, vigorous man of their own faith on the ticket and sent Judge Pershing out to look for a nomination wherever he could find one. The vote stood Koch, 120; Pershing, 63; Seltzer, 13.

"The Judge is now after the only other nomination that can be had this year, and I, for one, do not believe he will get it. For, look you, lives there one man in this county who can point to one set or deed that Judge Pershing has done for the Democratic party during all of his twenty years in office in this county? Has he contributed anything? With all the patronage at his command has he ever benefited a single Democrat?"

DISTRICT ATTORNEYSHIP.

Lawyers James Ryan and B. W. Cummings, Jr., have the field practically to themselves for the Democratic nomination. If Ryan has made the several combinations he is said to have made he may so overdo the business as to injure his chances. Both Ryan and Cummings are popular and both are hard at work creating sentiment for themselves among the workers of the party, and both are equally sanguine of success. Whichever gets it will find our candidate, J. H. James, Esq., a formidable opponent. Mr. James was elected once before, and he is stronger to-day than ever. Many Republicans here expect to see him win this year.

By the way, he is now in Minneapolis with the rest of the Schuylkill county contingent, Brumm, Wilhelm, Losch, Koch, Whitehouse, Shomer, Grossang, Lenker and Scott. A bet was made the other day that both delegates Lenker and Scott would vote for Blaine, notwithstanding the fact that they went to the convention as Harrison men. We shall soon know all about it.

MR. BLAINE'S RESIGNATION.

There was no little indignation among stalwart Republicans last Saturday when the fact that Mr. Blaine had resigned as Secretary of State was posted on the bulletin boards. I heard more than one member of the party condemning the Premier's action, because they regarded it as a treacherous act.

"If," said several, "Mr. Blaine had come out openly as a candidate three months ago, instead of writing that letter of delination to Chairman Clarkson, Mr. Harrison would have let him have the field to himself; but to come out now and intrigue, or permit his friends to intrigue, to defeat the President is an ungrateful act unworthy of Mr. Blaine and one which, should he be nominated, will inspire his chances for election."

However this may be, there is a little enthusiasm for the Plumed Knight. No one is more out-spoken in his support than Lawyer William D. Seltzer. He made a bet with Edward Heiser, the veterinary surgeon, that Mr. Blaine would be nominated. The stake-holder is Col. Thomas H. Bickert, of 7th Pa. Cavalry fame, and the weight of the stake money is so great that the Colonel walks with difficulty and is getting stoop shouldered. One silver dollar was wagered on a side.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

Our ticket in the Fourth District for the Legislature is composed of Messrs. Cooper, Losch and Kennedy. Notwithstanding the comfortable Republican majority these candidates have to fall back on, it is possible that one of them, at least, may not get elected. It has happened so before, and we admonish the gentlemen to have an eye to the windward. The Democrats will likely nominate Alphonso H. Farini, at present a law student in Mr. Whitehouse's office. He is eminently qualified for the position; in fact, he is the best qualified of all on either side who have been named. We cannot even except our own candidates. If he should be nominated, and there is every reason to believe he will be, he will have plenty of backing from members of both parties, and some one on our ticket is going to suffer.

We must look matters squarely in the face and not boast of success just because there is a majority of Republicans in the district. Take my word for it, Mr. Farini will be no slouch in the canvass should the Democrats place him on their ticket.

Peter Bauer, of Schuylkill Haven; George Opie, of Donaldson, and Mr. Gallagher, of Tremont, are also candidates for Legislature, subject to Democratic rules. As it is conceded Pottsville is entitled to one of the three to be named, Mr. Farini is very certain to be on the ticket, as he is the only candidate from the county seat now in the field, and besides the field is likely to be left clear for him.
