HARRISON AND REID THE NOMINEES

Republicans at Minneapolis Finally Choose Their Ticket.

INCIDENTS OF THE LAST SESSION.

The President Received 535 Votes on the First Ballot.

REID NAMED BY ACCLAMATION.

Blaine Received 182 Votes, McKinley 189, Reid 4 and Lincoln 1.—The Nomination Made Unanimous—Great Enthusiasm for the Maine Statesman When His Name Was Presented—Some of the Nominating Speeches—The Vote in Detail—How Harrison and Reid Received the Honors—Sketches of the Lives of the Candidates.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 11.—The nomination of President Benjamin Harrison with Whitelaw Reid for second place on the ticket, has created a variety of sentiment and opinion from prominent men of both parties. The general opinion is that the ticket is a strong one. A few ardent Blaine sympathizers, who have not yet recovered from their disappointment, take exception to the above opinion, but the Harrison men say they will swing in line when election day comes around.

The trains last evening began to carry away the visitors and delegates to the convention. Most of the crowd will go to-day. The special train of the New York delegation left at 7:13 a. m. The city is remarkably quiet.

THE FOURTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

The fourth day of the Convention opened with a miniature of a Dakota blizzard. It lacked some of the most unpleasant features. It was not cold and it was not accompanied by snow or

THE WATER QUESTION.

The Joint Committee's Circular Erroneous in Many Instances.

The first investigation shows Mr. Coon's affidavit to be quite as extravagant as the remainder of the joint committee's "stump speech." Mr. Coon says he built, among others, the Plymouth, Bradford, Lewisburg and Media, Pa., water works. History shows that the Plymouth water works were built by the day and were not contracted to any person. C. W. Moseley was the engineer. The Lewisburg water works were erected in the same way, S. D. Bates being the engineer. Mr. Coon may have dug a pipe ditch at either of both of these works, but he did not build them. The Bradford water works were built by the Bradford Water Company. J. A. Seymour was the engineer and J. and A. McMann the contractors. The Media water works were built by days work and were not contracted to Mr. Coon or any other person.

According to the estimates of the joint committee the income of the new water works will be $30,000 a year. Since the income of the present water company is something less than $20,000 a year, the inference is left that one of the first acts of the joint committee would be to increase the water rents 50 per cent, or from $5.00 to $7.50 per year.

As a piece of demagoguery the document of the joint water committee will go on record as being unrivaled. In making a bid for the votes of workmen the committee tells that $33,000 of the $83,000 which the plant would cost, would be distributed among them in wages, while a reference to their estimates given elsewhere in the paper shows that the total amount to be paid out for labor is $6,711.80.

The joint committee tells the workmen that they are to be furnished with employment in the construction of the new water works, but conveniently forgets to remind them that they will be taxed to pay back the money expended in the work, no matter whether they get any of it or not.

According to the calculations of the joint committee, there is to be neither a fireman or watchman employed at the proposed pumping station. Is the engineer to do the firing and the station to take care of itself?

It takes two watchmen to protect the stream in Davis' Run now, but, according to the joint committee's plan, when property to the value of $75,000 has been placed thereon, the watchmen can be dispensed with.

The latest report from the chief watchman at Davis' Run to the joint committee showed that the stream was still there.

The joint committee's bid for the vote of the fire companies is cheap enough to be an insult to every self-respecting member of the local fire department.

The esteemed joint committee continues to delight in being mysterious. They say: "Some of the committee are aware of one enterprise alone that will be worth from three to five thousand dollars a month to the town, and it will be established if there is a sufficient supply of water to run it."

What library of knowledge will be thrown upon the market if the committee ever decides to unburden itself? Faugh!

It may be worth while calling attention to the fact that while Mr. A. H. Coon, the gentleman who makes the affidavit for the joint committee, offers to build the proposed water works for $100,000, he does not say what sort of works he would build. Mr. Coon, or any other person, could probably put in a plant for half that amount of money, but what good would it be?

THE OLD TEACHERS WERE RE-ELECTED.

THE BOARD MAKES NO NEW APPOINTMENTS.

TWO OF THE TEACHERS RESIGN.

A Warm Debate on the Question of Increasing Salaries—White Street School Building to be Torn Down.

CHOO! teachers were elected last night by the School Board. All the directors were present and the only tilt that occurred was on the question of raising the salaries of the grammar school teachers. This was settled in favor of the teachers.

Before the board entered upon the transaction of regular business ex-President Beidall presented President Conry with a small but substantial looking gavel. The gift was gratefully received and the directors extended their congratulations to the recipient.

Messrs. Gallagher, Burke, O'Hearn, Williams and Bachman, the committee on teachers and salaries, submitted their report. They recommend that the salaries of teachers Scheuching, Britt and Whitaker, the teachers of the first and second grammar schools and Principal Ehrhart be increased.

When the time arrived to act on the report Messrs. Gallagher and Burke said that they did not agree with the majority of the committee. They were not willing that the salaries of the grammar school teachers should be increased. They said teachers had told them that the increase of the term to ten months was perfectly satisfactory. Mr. Ehrhart's salary should be increased, they said, because he is paid by the year and the salary should be increased in proportion to the increase of the term. Messrs. Gallagher and Burke were also willing that the salaries of Messrs. Scheuching, Britt and Whitaker should be raised. Their only objections were to the grammar school teachers.

Superintendent Freeman took the floor and made a strong appeal for the increase objected to. He said, "The grammar school teachers are doing more work than the primary teachers. This is recognized all over the country. You increased the salaries of the primary school teachers last year, but you did not increase the grammar school salaries. The second grade grammar teachers are doing almost double the amount of work as the primary teachers."

Mr. Conry: "Did you not state before this board that the primary school teachers are the hardest worked teachers we have?"

Mr. Freeman: "I did. I agree I have said that our primary school teachers are the hardest worked primary school teachers I know of; and so are the grammar school teachers, and I don't believe the people will object to my raising the grammar school teachers' salaries."

Mr. Freeman also said that the Board should encourage the young men who teach and try to keep them in the corps.

Messrs. Conry and Brennan said they understood from teachers they had spoken to that they were satisfied with the increase of the term.

A motion to adopt all the recommendations of the committee was finally adopted by a vote of 11 to 4.

The increase of salaries under the motion is as follows:

Principal Ehrhart	$1,175 raised to $1,300
M. P. Whitaker	60 " " 65
M. H. H. Hamner	50 " " 55
J. H. Scheuching	45 " " 50
2nd grade grammar	60 " " 65
1st " " " "	50 " " 55

Principal Ehrhart's salary includes $75 per year as librarian.

The bond of Treasurer Bellis was accepted and ordered filed with the proper authorities.

The election of teachers was then proceeded with. Forty-four of the old corps were applicants for re-election. The teachers who did not apply were Misses Lizzie Lessig and Florence G. Hess.

On a vote forty-three of the applicants received 15 votes and were declared elected. They were:

Mr. W. N. Ehrhart	15
Miss C. Cline	15
Miss A. E. Coogan	15
Miss J. H. Hamner	15

Miss Elizabeth Linton, of Mahanoy City, received the votes of Messrs. Beidall, Davenport, Gable and Bachman. Miss Linton was laid off on the ground that there are several residents of town in need of appointment.

There are three vacancies. The board decided to meet next Wednesday evening to fill them.

The new applicants for appointment as teachers are Annie L. Sheehy, Nellie O'Hara, Annie L. Williams, Kate Cunningham, Mary A. Lynch, Elizabeth M. Carroll, Margaret Denzler, Lizzie C. Neary, Emma Eisenhower, James Mulahay, William J. Scanlan and Richard A. McHale.

The board instructed the building and repairs committee to advertise for bids for lowering down the White street school building. The committee was also instructed to ask for bids for the purchase of the building, exclusive of the furniture, the heating apparatus, fire escapes and foundation walls, the purchaser to tear the building down and remove the debris in time to have the place clear for the party who may receive the contract for the new building.

DID YOU EVER!

Think what it cost to manufacture Baking Powder? Did you ever think how baking powder is sold? Did you ever think there must be a large profit in it somewhere? The manufacturer of a certain baking powder pays out nearly a million dollars a year advertising his powder. Trying to make people believe it is the best made. Their baking powder is sold at 10c per pound. The retailer makes his profit, the jobber makes his profit, the manufacturer makes his profit, and the consumer pays for all these and the newspaper advertising also.

What does it cost to manufacture the powder? Other manufacturers give away 25 or 30 cents worth of china, glassware, toys, hardware, hoes, etc., with every pound of baking powder. Again the query, what does it cost to manufacture the powder—can you think it out?

You don't need to. Girvin, Duncan & Wadley have a few words on the baking powder question. Until September 1 we will sell Pennsylvania Baking Powder at TEN CENTS per pound. It doesn't concern you whether we make or lose on it—we want to get it introduced. On and after September 1st our price will not exceed 15c per pound.

We are not going to pay a million dollars to advertise it; we are not going to give away any premiums with it—we are going to sell it, every pound guaranteed, to our customers. If it does not give satisfaction, bring it back and receive your money.

Why do we say this? We expect it will please you. Why should you pay 35c or 40c profit on every pound of powder you buy?

Don't forget we strive to give our customers the advantage of inside prices at which we buy all sorts of goods.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.
Renominated as the Republican Candidate for President.

hall—but it was lively enough to tear from their places the decorations which adorned the buildings along Minneapolis' principal streets.

The rain fell in torrents for a time, but the storm was of short duration and the sky soon cleared.

The streets were comparatively deserted when the storm broke. The shouters and the marching clubs, worn out with constant exertions, did not put in their usual early appearance and the voice of the bugle and the sound of the drum were not heard in the land. At 10 o'clock, an hour before the Convention was to meet, not a band had appeared on the streets and there was but a small crowd turning toward Convention Hall.

At the West Hotel the Harrisonians gathered in great numbers, and were wild with joy.

They had no doubt from the test vote taken in the report of the Committee on Credentials that they had control of the Convention, and they had very little fear of losing it. They were counting not only on holding the strength which they had shown the night previous, but on gaining more through the moral effect of Thursday night's vote.

Senator Teller said: "It means that Harrison is beaten. He has not got enough votes to nominate him. With the tainted candidate his majority will melt away fast. Look out for McKinley or Tom Reed. The Harrison men have not got the votes they claim they have."

Senator Washburn said that the result of the ballot on the Credentials Committee report was strongly indicative of Harrison's renomination.

"I think my preference is pretty well known," said he, "but I say it with all candor that the vote seems to insure the renomination of Harrison."

The admiring organization of Mr. Harrison's forces compelled the admiration of even his enemies. For more than a week the whole Convention membership had been blocked out by State delegations, and each block was put in charge of a trusted lieutenant of John C. New. These lieutenants reported to Mr. New three and four times a day, as often as they have talked with the Harrison men in their delegations and reported immediately any signs of weakness.

The greatest argument which Mr. New used from the beginning of the canvass was the table of votes by States. It was made up as soon as he arrived in Minneapolis and revised every day. To every doubtful delegate the Harrison men displayed this table, urging him at the same time to "get into the Harrison band wagon." The table has been the strongest argument to bring
