MICKEY SLINEY'S DEFENSE.

He Will Accuse Jim Lyons of the Murder of His Brother Bob.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Young Michael Sliney, who is on trial for the murder of Bob Lyons, the Cherry street butcher, will go on the witness stand to-day and, according to Lawyer House, will tell a straight story.

It is pretty certain that the boy will stick to the first statement he made to Inspector, now Superintendent, Byrnes, which was that the murderer was Bob Lyons' brother Jim. Sliney, it is said, claims that his "confession" was brought about by Jim Lyons, who said that if he (Lyons) should be convicted of the crime he would be disinherited, but that if he was freed from any imputation of guilt he would get considerable money, which he would spend freely in Sliney's defense.

He is said, moreover, to have promised Sliney a large sum for making the "confession," the points of which he outlined.

Sliney's relatives are confident of his innocence, and he expressed himself yesterday as sure of acquittal.

MEASURES AGAINST LEPROSY.

The Louisiana State Authorities Trying to Prevent Its Spread.

NEW ORLEANS, June 13.—The authorities of this State are about taking steps to prevent the spread of leprosy. The disease has prevailed here from the earliest days of the French settlers.

There are now 350 lepers in the State and about thirty in New Orleans. The new law which it is proposed to enact will provide that all persons afflicted with leprosy shall be confined in an institution isolated and used solely for persons afflicted with the disease.

The leprosy hospital will be situated in New Orleans near the smallpox hospital.

Under the proposed law any person found guilty of harboring a leper will be punished by fine and imprisonment.

The lepers in the settlement in the Bayou Lafourche are likely to oppose the law, and living as they do in a swamp it will be no easy matter to enforce the law against them.

Husband No. 3 Also Hangs Himself.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 13.—Mrs. Kley, of Albert street, Long Island City, can now boast that two of her husbands committed suicide by hanging. The woman's second husband was William Kley, a carriage maker. He had been ill in health and had not lived happily with his wife for more than a year. Mrs. Kley had her husband arrested a few days ago for assault. The examination was set down for next Thursday. The charge prayed upon Kley's mind, and when he went home Friday night he furnished a knife and threatened to kill his wife. The next day he was found hanging in his carriage works.

Money Demanded Under Threats of Death.

LYONS, N. Y., June 13.—Mr. and Mrs. James Tallman, of Savannah, are the recipients of the following communication: "Unless inside a week a roll of bills amounting to $500 is found under the tree at the northern extremity of your farm you and your wife will be killed and your buildings burned." The letter was postmarked South Butler. Several other anonymous letters have been received in the same handwriting. Mr. Tallman is a wealthy farmer and a quiet citizen. Detectives are at work on the case.

Absconder Anderson Arrested.

NEW YORK, June 13.—A cablegram from St. Thomas, West Indies, states that Louis Anderson, the defaulting clerk of the Long Island Express Company, who decamped June 4 with a package containing $1,000, was arrested in St. Thomas, Friday, as he stepped ashore from the steamer from New York. Anderson is 30 years old and married. He had been in the employ of the express company for six years. The stolen money was recovered.

WILL BE RECONCILED

Depew Expects Harrison's Opponents to Fall In Line.

HIS VERSION OF THE BATTLE.

He Says Blaine Was Not a Candidate—Reported Movement to Elect the Maine Statesman to the United States Senate, to Succeed Hale.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Before leaving here last night Mr. Depew, in answer to a number of questions, said: "You need anticipate no bitterness on the part of those who voted for other candidates than Blaine. Mr. Platt will not oppose the nominee. The very manner in which the nomination came around will lead sooner than ever before to the dying out of any dissatisfaction with it."

"When people set out to knife a ticket they also have something to gain. They may do so if through their revenge they see that they can destroy their rival favorite, and thus make probable the future success of that favorite."

"The opposition to President Harrison was concentrated on Blaine. Nobody believed for a moment that Blaine desired to re-enter public life. A few votes for McKinley, and McKinley himself was for Harrison."

There is no doubt that Clarkson, Platt and Quay honestly believed they could nominate Blaine. But the Minneapolis convention was run on popular principles. Clarkson and the other leaders who stood with him could not feel the power of the great business interests of the country.

"Harrison had scarcely any organization to speak of, and he had none of those great political leaders. But telegrams favoring him—not manufactured telegrams, but the honest expression of business men—came pouring into Minneapolis, and they were very effective."

"Whitlaw Reid's candidacy had nothing to do with Blaine's defeat. In the first place he was not a candidate. I made up my mind, however, some time ago, to secure his nomination if it lay within my power. Every one knows my feelings toward Blaine. Had he not written that letter to Clarkson he would have had my support."

"More than that, if he had at an early date announced his candidacy Harrison would not have been a candidate. Take the whole situation now, and with Cleveland as the opposing candidate Harrison is probably stronger than Blaine would have been."

"Harrison had three elements of great strength. He was strong with the business men. I do not mean the railroad men in particular. All administrations are alike to the railroads, but to the manufacturer the administration means life or death. Nine-tenths of the business men of this country favored the re-nomination of Harrison, and I believe that the laboring men who are dependent upon the manufacturers and the business men felt the same way."

"Then, too, he was strong with the old soldiers. There are 450,000 soldiers, and this element was distrustful of every other candidate before the convention."

BLAINE FOR THE SENATE.

A Reported Movement to Have Him Succeed Eugene Hale.

AGUSTA, Me., June 13.—Has Blaine's political career ended? This is a matter that has begun to attract the serious attention of his most devoted friends in all parts of the State. It is discussed by many of his townsmen who do not want to see him retired from public life.

Next winter the Maine Legislature will elect a United States Senator in place of Eugene Hale, who will have held the position 12 years when his present term expires next year. Mr. Blaine's name is being mentioned for the place, and it is alleged that a movement will be started in his interest. Mr. Hale is also a candidate for re-election, and his plans have long been laid to get it.

In Maine they have a custom of returning men to both branches of the Legislature for a second term. Two years ago Mr. Hale started his Senatorial fight by securing the election of men committed to his re-election. These men will be returned this winter with others who will be pledged to the Ellsworth statesman's support.

If Mr. Blaine should consent to be a candidate Mr. Hale would have an advantage over him at the outset. Mr. Blaine is ignorant of the movement that will be started to send him to the Senate. The movement is the outcome of his defeat for the Minneapolis convention, and has been inaugurated by those of his friends who do not want to see him shelved.

Mr. Blaine's friends are in earnest in this matter. At the coming Portland convention on June 21, when the Republicans nominate their candidate for Governor, it is said that a resolution will be presented recommending Mr. Blaine for Mr. Hale's place.

Canadian Press Views.

TORONTO, Ont., June 13.—Concerning the nomination of Harrison the "Empire," the chief government organ, says: "To Canada the issue is not important. Whoever the Republican candidate may be he would be equally protectionist, equally American in sentiment and action, equally indifferent to the interests or affairs of this Dominion and whoever may be the Democratic candidate, it is tolerably safe to say he will be surely hostile to Canadian development and British power as was President Cleveland during his term of office, or as President Harrison since that time has proved to be."

"The Globe, Liberal, says: 'It looks at this distance as if the President owed something to the officeholders.' The 'Globe' believes ex-President Cleveland will receive the Democratic nomination and that his chances for election are good."

"The 'Mail,' Independent, says that the result is worse than defeat to Blaine."

Making Ready for Chicago.

CHICAGO, June 13.—S. P. Sheerin, Secretary of the Democratic National Committee; National Committee-man F. C. Wall, of Wisconsin; John Wallace, of Oklahoma, and Sergeant-at-Arms R. J. Briggs have arrived here to arrange for the coming National Democratic Convention. Headquarters have been opened at the Palmer House.

WHO WILL BE SECRETARY?

Believed that Depew Will Be Offered the Vacancy—He Denies the Rumor.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A batch of important appointments may be looked for from the White House in a short time, now that the convention excitement is subsiding. The most important, of course, will be the naming of a Secretary of State.

This must be done within a few weeks, for under a law a vacancy in the Cabinet occasioned by resignation or death can not be filled temporarily by an acting Secretary for a period longer than thirty days.

The President also has two coveted prizes in the army and one in the navy to bestow at this time by the appointment of a Brigadier-General, the Governor of the Soldiers' Home, and the Judge-Advocate-General of the Navy.

The vacancy in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency, a desirable position, will also have to be filled.

The President will also be asked to spare a little attention to the pending two court martial cases in the navy. Final action in these cases is very much desired, as the action may result in removing a bar to a number of promotions, and the officers who are in line are naturally interested in the outcome.

The general impression still prevails here that the President will offer the position of Secretary of State to the Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, of New York, and the opinion is equally strong that Mr. Depew will not care to take the place, unless the honor is not a great one, but that he could not afford to sacrifice his present position of President of the New York Central Railroad, with its salary of $50,000 a year, and his other extensive financial interests, to accept a position of $25,000 a year, where he would be practically shut out from paying any attention to his private affairs.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Chauncey M. Depew denies in the most emphatic terms that there is anything in the Cabinet talk about himself.

"Either now or in the future?" he was asked.

"Neither now nor in the future," replied the chief orator of the Administration forces.

FIELD'S HIDDEN WEALTH.

Detective Palmer's Sensational Tale Gets Little Credence.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The story told by Frederick Palmer, the private detective, that he knew where $500,000 worth of securities belonging to the bankrupt firm of Field, Lindley, Wiechers & Co., were hidden away, is hardly believed by Mr. Gould, the assignee of the firm, who is inclined to regard it as a fake.

The attorney for Mr. Gould wrote Palmer a letter, promising him his expenses and 10 per cent. of what he found, because the assignee did not wish to leave any stone unturned in his investigation of the affairs of the bankrupt firm.

Mr. Palmer says the hidden assets are in stocks and bonds of various western railroads, and also in packages of gold certificates. He says they are in several banks in Massachusetts and Illinois, and that they were concealed last year from August to November.

Palmer states that he got his first clue from a man in the Hoffman House cafe in New York, who had been drinking heavily and who declared that the Field failure was a fraud and that he knew where a lot of the securities had been hidden away. Palmer saw this man the next day when he was sober, and was given clues which he followed up successfully.

He stated that some of the creditors of the Field firm have arranged with Mr. Palmer to give him a lucrative commission if he shall prove able to produce the securities.

Famine Disappearing.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Department of State has been informed that a ukase was issued by the Russian government on the 1st (18th) ultimo, relative to the famine relief measures. It is understood to indicate that the famine is drawing to a close. It is believed that a ukase will be issued on July 1, possibly as early as June 1 (old style), permitting the exportation of all grain except rye. The authorities will be able to deal easily with what remains of the famine, and the indications are that it will be unnecessary to send further contributions of grain.

Mrs. Quick May Yet Go to Jail.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 13.—Lawyer A. A. Guthrie, of this city, who is counsel for Mrs. Quick in the suit of George H. Tilden for blackmail, says that the statement that Mrs. Quick pleaded guilty to blackmail is not true. He says she simply pleaded guilty to the charge of sending a threatening letter through the mail. The case came to a close in East Chatham, and although no sentence was imposed, Mrs. Quick may be sent to jail any time if she persists in annoying Mr. Tilden.

Potter's Black Trunk.

BOSTON, June 13.—It has been decided by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals that the suit for possession of a black trunk supposed to contain valuable papers claimed as private property by ex-President Anna F. Potter, of the defunct Lawrence Bank, shall go back to the lower court for rehearing. The trunk is to remain in the custody of the bank's receiver until a final decision is given in the matter.

College Boat Crews at New London.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 13.—The Yale crew have arrived here four days earlier than usual and went direct to their quarters where their racing shells and paraphernalia had arrived a few hours earlier by a steamer direct from New York. The fact that Harvard had been here a week in effective practice, hastened the Yale crew. The Columbia freshmen are also here and the Harvard freshmen are due to-day.

Exports and Imports of Specie.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The exports of specie from this port the past week were $1,950,166, of which $1,658,988 were gold and $291,188 silver. Of the total exports, $1,650,000 in gold and $307,415 in silver went to Europe, and $8,983 gold and $33,708 silver, went to South America. The imports of specie for the week amounted $30,041, of which $11,495 was gold and $18,546 silver.

The Yamoose and Norwood to Race.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The long talked of race between the two famous steam yachts the Yamoose and the Norwood, owned respectively by Mr. Hearst of California, and Mr. Munroe of this city, will probably take place at the end of the coming week.

A RUCTION AT TRALEE

Irish Factions Engage in a Bloody Scrimmage.

BROKEN HEADS BY THE SCORE.

The Police Clubbed the Hostile Parties Apart After Hard Work—Edward Harrington Hit with a Stone and a Club—An Inoffensive Band Almost Exterminated.

DUBLIN, June 13.—William Redmond, Edward Harrington and Henry Harrington were in Tralee last evening to address a large meeting of Parnellites. About 3,000 persons were present. They remained perfectly orderly until the chairman prepared to introduce the speakers, when it was apparent that the meeting had been packed with anti-Parnellites.

There were loud shouts against Mr. Harrington and Mr. Redmond. The Parnellites raised counter shouts and began clambering for Parnell. Two fights were started near the platform, and one of the disturbers was knocked senseless. Several men came down from the platform and tried to restore order, but in vain. Clubs and stones were plenty in the crowd and the members of the opposing factions did not hesitate to use them. Men were thrown to the ground and trampled and struck, coats were torn from the backs of those trying to escape from the fights, and blows were levelled right and left without care as to whom they struck.

Those on the outskirts pressed in toward the platform to aid their friends until all were so tightly packed that even the most peaceably inclined ones had to join the fight in self-defence. The band, which began playing early in the disturbance to drown the disorder, was almost completely wiped out. A party of anti-Parnellites attacked the members with clubs, knocked down five of them, put the rest to flight, captured all the instruments and stamped them to pieces.

When Mr. Harrington stepped down from the platform to help pacify the combatants he was struck on the shoulder with a stone and received on the back a blow from a heavy stick. He hastily returned to the platform.

After the fight had lasted ten minutes an extra force of constables arrived and they broke through the crowd, clubbing the hostile parties apart, and beating the leaders into temporary submission. The wounded were then carried away and the meeting became quiet enough for the speakers to proceed.

About 25 men were severely injured in the riot. Eleven had broken bones and seven were injured internally by being trampled by the crowd. Three are in a critical condition.

About 100 men were more or less seriously injured. Half of the persons present had their clothes torn or were scratched or bruised. The police remained present throughout the meeting to prevent the recurrence of the disturbance.

Col. Polk's Funeral.

RICHMOND, N. C., June 13.—The remains of Col. Lewis L. Polk, President of the Farmers' Alliance, arrived here over the Richmond & Danville Railroad from Washington in a special car tendered by the Richmond & Danville Company. The remains were accompanied by the family, Senator Peffer, Dr. Maguire, Representatives Stackhouse, of South Carolina; Otis, of Kansas; Alexander, of North Carolina; McKelgan, of Nebraska; the wife of Representative Simpson, of Kansas, and several other Alliance friends including a number of ladies. The funeral took place at 4 p. m. yesterday.

Hard Times for These Children.

NEWARK, N. J., June 13.—Two small children were taken to the police station last night. They had been without sufficient food for several days. Their names are Maggie and Conrad Rittwieg, and their mother had left the house with a boarder 10 days ago and had not yet returned. The father, Gottfried, had been in jail several months but was released a week ago, and when he found his wife gone he went on a spree which probably resulted in his death as a body, answering his description, was found floating in the Passaic River near the Triton bathhouse late yesterday.

Wilson Female College Commencement.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., June 13.—Wilson Female College of this city, where several hundred female students are in course of training, will hold its annual commencement exercises this week. The baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rev. A. Russell Stevenson, of Schaeffersville, N. Y., in the Falling Spring Church last evening and was largely attended, many persons being present from all parts of the Cumberland Valley.

Serious Wreck on the P. & W.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 13.—By the spreading of a rail a freight engine on the Pittsburg & Western road jumped the track just west of here yesterday and ran down the bank into the river, where it turned over, and lies with the body of Engineer James Garghill under the wreck. Pat Ryan, who was riding in front of the engine, had a leg cut off and died soon after. Both are married. Three others were slightly injured.

Cholera in Persia.

LONDON, June 13.—Cholera continues to rage in the province of Khorassan, Persia, and the deaths number about 250 every day. The disease is violent in action, and persons in apparently perfect health are suddenly seized and die almost immediately. Many have undoubtedly been buried alive. So far Europeans have been exempt from the disease.

Memorial Services at Titusville.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., June 13.—Memorial services were held in all the churches yesterday and were largely attended. It is estimated that 10,000 people were in the city from the neighboring towns of Warren, Oil City, Corry, Erie and the small villages, who thronged the first-swept district all day.

Shurtleff College Receives $10,000.

ALTON, Ill., June 13.—John D. Rockefeller has presented Shurtleff College, of Upper Alton, with an educational endowment of $10,000.
