DEATH OF GEN. STACKHOUSE.

His End Very Sudden-Sketch of the Con-greasman's Life. WASHINGTON, JUDE 15.-Gen. Ell T. Stackhouse, member of Congress from the Sixth District of South Carolins, and a prominent member of the Farm-ers' Alliance, died in this city at 1:30

He was one of the party that accompanied the remains of the late Col. L. L. Polk, President of the Farmers' Alli-

He returned to Washington Monday morning, and in the afternoon com-plained of a slight attack of indigestion, but seemed to be in good spirits. He remained at home for a while, but re-turned to the House before the adjournment of that body. About midnight Congressman Cate was called to the rooms of Mr. Stack-house and was told that he was dying. A physician was immediately summoned but before his arrival Mr. Stackhouse was dead.

His remains will be taken to Little Rock, S. C., for interment.

Eli Thomas Stackhouse was born in Marion County, near where be has lives, March 27, 1824. He served in Longstreet's Corps during the war, and became a Colonel. He gave most of his attention after the war to the develop-ment of Southern agriculture. Was elected to the Fifty second Congress as an Alliance Democras by more than 9,000 votes out of something over 11,000.

Tenement House Murder in Schenectady. SCHENECTADY, N. Y., June 15.-The tenement bouse at 106 Rotterdam street, this city, was the scone of a horrible murder yesterday. A 12-year-old girl called at the house and found the doors locked. She heard a muffled sound as of pounding aud moaning, and directly afterward a man rushed from the house and ran into the street. Lying in a pool of blood on the floor of a front room was found the body of Mrs. Demacsek. Her skull had been crushed by three blows from a hammer, and her throat had been cut from ear to ear. The police are searching for the murderer, who is unknown.

Lock Arbour Residents Resent Corbett's Presence.

An Indignation Meeting Talked Of-Real Estate Men Happy Over the Fighter's Coming, As It Has Boomed Their Business-How Corbett Will Wark,

LOCH ABBOUR, N. J., June 15 .- "Jim" Corbett, William A. Brady, his trainer, and several sporting men, have just taken up quarters at the house of Brady, on the corner of Euclid and Main avennes, which will be the summer home of Corbett. Immediately in the rear of the cottage is a large harn which will be used by Corbett as his training quar-

The sides of the barn have all been well padded and everything has been arranged for the fighter to go into immediate training. The big barn, in which Corbstt will do most of his train-ing, is near the edge of Deal Lake, and but two minutes' walk from the ocean. Trainer Brady has purchased a 16-foot bateau which Corbett will use upon the lake as a morning exercise.

Just across the railroad track from this place are the new grounds of the Asbury Park Athletic Association. Mr. Asbury Park Atbletic Association. Mr. Brady has obtained permission from the managers to let Corbatt use the track, for daily exercises. It is quite likely that the fighter will take part in some of the ball games to be played here, as it is Mr. Brady's intention to have the man devote much of his time to harden-ing blood the this some ing himself by this sport. There is considerable ill-feeling among the cottagers here over the action of Brady in selecting this place as training quarters for the man who is to meet Sullivan. Look Arbour is a fashionable senside summer resort, and many of the New York families who have located here have done so on account of its ex-clusiveness. They claim that the bring clusiveness. They claim that the bring-ing of Corbett here is a disgrace to the place from a moral point of view, and there is much talk of holding an indig-nation meeting to protest against it. The cottagers are awaiting develop-ments before deciding what action to pursue. While the cottagers claim that the solution of their discussion. the selection of their picturesque little resort has already proven a detriment to them, and that unless the fighter seto them, and to at these the lighter se-lect another pines to do his training they will dispose of their property at a loss, the local real estate agents claim that the coming of Corbett to their shore has proven quite a boom, and that they have any number of applicants for cottages for the summer.
