DID YOU EVER!

Think what it cost to manufacture Baking Powder? Did you ever think how baking powder is sold? Did you ever think there must be a large profit in it somewhere? The manufacturer of a certain baking powder pays out nearly a million dollars or more a year advertising their powder, trying to make people believe it is the best made. Their baking powder is sold at 50c per pound. The retailer makes his profit, the jobber makes his profit, the manufacturer makes his profit, and the consumer pays for all these and the newspaper advertising also.

Why do we say this? We expect it will please you. Why should you pay 25c or 40c profit on every pound of powder you buy?

Don't forget we strive to give our customers the advantage of inside prices at which we buy all sorts of goods.

POTTSVILLE LETTER ON COUNTY POLITICS

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT ON HARRISON.

THE 29TH DISTRICT SENATORSHIP

Schalok Will Take it if the Nomination be Unanimous—Alphonso Farin's Candidacy for the Legislature.

Special correspondence to the HERALD.

POTTSVILLE, June 15

THE Minneapolis convention has met, nominated and adjourned and the Republican masses are busily engaged at the ratification business. Hereabouts the sentiment remained throughout the session as I portrayed it in my letter of June 3rd, almost unanimous for Harrison; and when the result was flashed over the wires and emblazoned on the bulletin boards this contracted borough was much too small to hold the pent-up enthusiasm, then released, of the happy followers of the G. O. P. The event was properly celebrated by the Central Club, which paraded behind the Liberty Cornet Band and filled the air with cheers and fire work smoke. For two hours Centre street was ablaze with political glory, old and young uniting to honor the President that is and is to be, as they sincerely hope.

The ticket named—Harrison and Reid—is strong now, but it will continue to grow in strength from now until November 8th. Many Democrats have said of it, "It is so strong that we must nominate a stronger one if we hope to beat it." President Harrison, it seems, has no enemies, as a prominent metropolitan paper expressed it on Sunday, "There will be no sulking." All will now unite and drink to the toast, "Long life, happiness and a triumphant re-election for the nominees."

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST.

Would you believe it? The Democratic nomination for Senator in the 29th district is actually going a-begging this year. Mr. Murtha P. Quinn won't have it, Major Huber and Col. Royer will not even think of it, and there is absolutely no name mentioned in connection with it, except that of A. W. Schalok, Esq. That gentleman would make the best working candidate the opposition to Keefe could put up, but he don't want it and would only accept the nomination upon condition that it was given to him without opposition, in the convention. If Mr. Schalok would take this nomination and could be sure of no knifing by members of his own party he would make it lively for Senator Keefe this time as Mr. Kirk did four years ago, when he came so near defeating the Crescens man. But Mr. Schalok, too, is thinking seriously of refusing the honor which may be proffered him, mostly for business reasons. He has a large and lucrative law practice which demands his almost constant attention and he is seriously considering the advisability of cutting loose from politics altogether and devoting himself entirely to business. This would be a wise conclusion for Mr. Schalok, as well as many others, to make and live up to. So the untrifled are still looking for a candidate to oppose Keefe.

ALPHONSO IS STILL IN IT.

Although certain alleged influences would have the people of this district believe that Alphonso H. Farin's candidacy for the Legislature is knocked into a cocked hat, the worthy candidate himself knows he is still in the race and if blowing his own trumpet is a good way to advertise, Very soon the hills will echo the doxy name—Farin. If bread is the staff of life, Farin is certainly an ingredient in some of the loaves, which the boys will eat this fall. The one mistake that Mr. Farin makes is his everlasting talk about starting an organ of his own to further his election. This gives his enemies the opportunity to suggest a hand organ, and Mr. Farin being an Italian, the jokers who got this brutal pun off think they are very funny. No one is more serious than "Phonso" in this contest. He is going to beat all records, he says. In beating records he may overstep the bounds of policy and beat himself. He need fear nobody but himself, certainly not his would-be critics. They are simply aiding him in his canvass, as will be patent when the convention meets.

POINTS.

Look out for Lawyer Ulrich, of Tanasqua, in the contest for District Attorney. He is sawing much wood just now.

Uncle John W. Ryon's lieutenants positively assert that Judge Pershing will not be nominated. Some big work is being done on both sides, they tell us, but who is ahead it is too early to say.

The name Kallagher in my last letter was an error. The candidate for Legislature is John Gallagher, of Tremont.

Some poorly informed politicians will have it that Congressman Reilly is a candidate for Judge. He is a candidate for Congress.

B. W. Cumming, Jr., is a clean cut gentlemanly candidate for the office of District Attorney. He will soon pay a visit north of the mountain and then you of Shenandoah can judge him for yourselves.

Hon. John W. Ryon will not go to his farm in Tioga county to stay any time until after the Democratic convention and if nominated therein he will tarry but a few days in Tioga. The canvass will require his presence here.

A CHILD'S FALL.

It Drops Thirty Feet to a Stone Pavement and Badly Injured.

The four-year-old son of William Shoupe, residing in Leitzel's row on East Coal street, was seriously injured last night by falling from the third story of the dwelling to the cobble pavement. The child lost its balance when leaning out of the window. The fall was a bad one and the body rebounded about three feet after it struck the pavement. The child was unconscious when picked up, but to-day it seemed improved. There were no bones broken and no serious cut or bruises on the body, but the child is believed to be injured internally.

A Piece of Imagination.

The party in town who scribbles for the Tri-Weekly Record must have been dreaming when he wrote the effusion on the late election. Surely he is in no position to complain of pieces of silver being slipped into the palms of hands. As for the "ward heeler"—well, they were all right when his worthy figure-head was seeking office. Of course, since that event, he has had no use for them. His effusion was a beautiful product of extravagant imagination. Go hence, "Occasional," and don't speak of heeler.

MEETING OF THE BOROUGH COUNCIL

NO BUSINESS OF IMPORTANCE WAS TRANSACTED.

'DEATE' HOLD A LONELY MEETING

None of the Minority Members Were in Attendance—They Claim They Were Not Notified.

THE Borough Council held a very uninteresting meeting last night. Everything done was of a routine character. Committees reported work done on streets, necessary for surveys for curbs and gutters, etc., and only twice during the entire session did a discussion of any moment took place.

Councilman Cookley said the fire companies had blamed him for sounding a fire alarm a few nights ago. He wanted to know who had charge of the system. He was informed that the system, for testing purposes, had been left in the hands of the lamp and police and fire apparatus committees, jointly, and under their instruction the fire bell was to be tapped once every night at 7:30 o'clock. Councilman Gable said that the committees had not notified the fire companies of the test raps because the committees had not been able to secure a key to the Columbia hose house. The subject was dropped without any definite action.

The other tilt arose over a statement by Betteridge and Gable that the police were not patrolling the town sufficiently. James and Cookley took the opposite side of the question. Cookley said he found the police doing their duty and James said that Gable, as chairman of the lamp and police committee, had charge of the police. Chief Davis said each policeman had his beat and, without any reflection upon former police forces, the present force is giving the town as good service as it ever had.

There was nothing done in regard to the water matter further than hearing a report from Lamb that the people had voted in favor of increasing the borough debt.

The room and stationery committee was instructed to select a suitable place for the storage of the election booths. The booths were furnished to the borough free of charge, but should any be mislaid or destroyed the borough will be obliged to replace them at its own expense.

A petition from residents of the vicinity of Coal and White streets praying for an electric light was read and referred to the lamp and police committee. There does not seem to be an inclination to grant the request.

The only members of Council present at this meeting were James, Gable, Cookley, Stout, Betteridge, McGuire, Van Dusen and Lamb—"De Ale." A HERALD reporter learned to-day that the reason the seven other members were not present was because they were not notified of the meeting until an hour last night that did not give them a chance to get there.

MINNESOTA PERSONALS.

Information Concerning Former Towns-men in the West.

The personal mention given below is given by Editor H. C. Boyer, of the HERALD, who recently concluded an extended western trip:

Ever Morgan, son of John W. Morgan, of town, who was superintendent of the cable road at St. Paul for several years, resigned the position a few weeks ago in order to introduce and sell a very valuable patent of his to the cable roads of the country. Those in a position to know say Mr. Morgan has a good thing. He knows it, too, or he would not have given up the position he held for so many years. During the recent convention at Minneapolis Mr. Morgan was a constant visitor to the Pennsylvania headquarters and went with the boys on their sight-seeing tours. He is enthusiastic over the northwest and thinks there is no place in the United States like that part of the country.

Judge George W. Barch, of Salt Lake City, Utah, was a prominent attendant at the Minneapolis convention and very popular with the large Utah delegation. Judge Barch was formerly a resident of Shenandoah and after serving as principal became the first superintendent of our public schools. He left here for Utah and after studying law became a judge. He is largely interested in Utah real estate and enterprises. He has become possessed of a considerable portion of this world's goods and if Utah becomes a state he will be made its Governor. There were two Utah delegations to the national convention—regular and liberal, both asking representation. The national committee reported in favor of the regular, but the convention admitted one of each delegation. According to Judge Barch and his friends this latter action was no encouragement to the formation of a state government in the interests of the Republican party. The Republican party, Judge Barch claimed, was recognized by the National Republican Committee in 1831. The Liberal party, he said, was composed of Democrats and Republicans, or, more properly speaking, Democrats and Mugwumps—self-styled "Tuscarora" Democrats and "National Republicans of Utah."

This latter branch of the Liberal party is composed of men who claim to be Republicans in national affairs but Liberals in local affairs, and in convention had refused to say they would nominate and support a Republican for the office of delegate to Congress, this being the only strictly political office whereby they could show their devotion to the National Republican party. Judge Barch claimed that the admission of the Liberal delegate would leave Utah a territory and Democratic.

Dr. J. E. Shadle, who left this town over three years ago, proved his wisdom when he settled in St. Paul. He has had a streak of luck since the first day he put foot in that city and his success has been phenomenal. He does only an office business and his fees average $3,000 per month. He makes a specialty of nose and throat diseases and his patients travel from far and near. He has treated the Governors and railway magnates of several states. He has a nice home, several carriages, a liveried coachman, &c., and lately invested $30,000 in a lot having a frontage of 100 feet and located a considerable distance from the centre of the city.

C. L. Berkemeyer, formerly of Slatington, Pa., is another specimen of the Pennsylvania Dutch who went to Minneapolis several years ago and is now one of the most prominent and successful business men in that booming, hustling city. He left Lehigh county almost bankrupt after spending years of hard work in the carriage manufacturing business. He is engaged in the slate business, is interested in quarry, and has furnished nearly all the slate black-boards and slate for other purposes now in use in both St. Paul and Minneapolis, besides other cities of the west and northwest. He is a hustler, every inch of him, and a good fellow, too. He is well known in this county and sent his regards to his numerous friends.

Lyman B. Holbert, the well known druggist, who filled positions in Holoporter's, McCarthy's and Wasley's drug stores, is also located in St. Paul and is following his usual avocation, besides speculating, (successfully, too). For a time he has been a sufferer from yellow jaundice, but has now fully recovered. He is another enthusiast of the northwest and thinks it is the only place in the country for young men and women who have any push and perseverance in them. It seems the very air has something to do with a person's success in this part of the country.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren TreScott are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dread, all cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones."—Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold, yet you may get a trial bottle free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store.

Old But Successful.

Some boys on Main street last night amused themselves by fooling the pedestrians. They filled an old pocketbook with paper and threw it on the pavement. If any one attempted to pick it up they would pull it away with a string they had attached to it. Though the trick is an old one, several people were fooled and the youngsters had plenty fun.

No better known remedy exists for all forms of Rheumatic diseases than the Genuine Imported Anchor Pain Expeller. 50 cents a bottle. To be had at C. H. Hagenbuch, P. P. D. Kirin, J. M. Hillan and other druggist.

Electric Railway Change.

Hereafter the electric railway cars will leave the corner of Main and Centre streets at 5:30 a. m., daily, and every 25 minutes thereafter until midnight, at which hour the last car will leave.

A fire started this morning on Mahanoy street, below Catawissa, in Mahanoy City and the two fire companies were called out, but a bucket brigade made their services unnecessary.
