SIMPLY DONE THEIR DUTY.

The Ashland Record says: Messrs Scott and Lenker, National delegates to the Republican convention, are being lionized because, it is asserted, they did their duty. Evidently doing one's duty in politics is a rare virtue in some political circles. To the careful observer there is a flavor about this whole business that smacks very much of an attempt on the part of certain politicians, who have been known in the past to be derelict in the performance of their duty, to seek to cover their own shortcomings and at the same time give themselves a boost, by exalting the virtues of others. For example there is Jack Whitehouse and R. H. Koch on the rostrum pouring forth the pent up eloquence of their virtuous souls at the Lenker ovation Wednesday night at Schuylkill Haven.

It is also a remarkable omission that the name of that other Statesman on principle, Hon. S. C. Losch, is evening at 7 o'clock omitted from the list of orators. What political secrets lie buried under the bosom of his ample shirt front. What an interesting tale he could tell Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and posiwere he minded to elucidate just a lively cures Piles, or no payment required. little bit. Scott and Lenker supported Harrison because they were sent to the convention for that purpose. Having done their duty it is not necessary to set up either or both of them as little tin gods.

THE gall of the Republicans who are crying themselves hoarse over the renomination of Harrison and denouncing those who favored Blaine is the pure old-time hypocritical stuff. These very shouters are the men who knifed the nominees of the Republican party the past four years and now they take all the credit for Harrison's renomination. If these people are serious in their claim for credit for the renomination, and serious in their pledges to support the ticket, let them keep in mind Harrison's use of Lin coin's declaration, "With malice towards none." This is no time for breeding dissensions. Now is the time to organize and organize thor oughly for the election of Harrison and Reid, and in that work Blaine, Ciarkson, Platt and Quay can do invaluable work. Hence, let there be peace and let the Republicans of all factions in this country put their shoulders to the wheel to help elect the whole Republican ticket, from the Poor Director to the President, likewise the Senator in the 29th district and the candidates for the Legislature. If our Republican contemporaries

Is "JIM" FRANEY serious when he says to the people of Shenandoab, 'Now that you have voted to inyou a brewery." Whether he is or not, no brewery will come until "Jim" is sure it will pay-and pay well.

Ir was a minister who defeated Blaine for President in 1884, and it was a minister who defeated him for the nomination in 1892.

@ATARRH : :: IN CHILDREN

For over two years my little girl's life was made miserable by a case of Catarrh. The discharge from the nose was large, constant and very offensive. Her eves became inflamed, the lids swollen and very painful. After trying various remedies, I gave her S.S. The first bottle seemed to S.S. aggravate the disease, but the symptoms soon abated, and in a short time she was cured.
