FROM THE WINDY CITY

Doings and Sayings of Democrats There Assembled.

CHAIRMAN BRICE AGAINST HILL.

He Says That the Nomination of the Junior Senator from New York is Altogether Out of the Question—Chicago East Filling Up—Estimates as to the Strength of the Candidates—Illinois People Regard Morrison's Boom as a Joke—Opinions of Cleveland's Former Law Partner—Energetic Work of the Hill Boomers.

CHICAGO, June 18.—While the brass bands and the badge-wearing brigades are not not on the ground yet, there are enough convention boomers here to make the city lively 24 hours of the day, and the jolly little row in New York more than makes up for any deficiency in numbers. Every train that rolls in here now unloads big and little guns, and though the battle is not yet on the skirmish lines are deployed and the rattle of musketry is being heard on every hand.

Representatives of the New York factions have been busy as beavers day and night ever since their arrival here. With even as few as there are of them, there is such a demonstration of feeling as to indicate a disposition to eat each other up rather than to make a mere test of strength.

The avowed object of the "anti-snap" New Yorkers is to make an impression on the delegates from other States with grand decorum and the manners of eminent respectability, and to convince them that the regular New York delegation does not represent the sentiment of the Democrats of that State.

There are not enough people here yet to give any positive drift to the situation. It is not yet known what Mr. Cleveland is far in the lead of every body. If a majority could nominate he would have the nomination surely. His friends profess to believe that there will be no difficulty about his getting the necessary two-thirds on the first ballot, yet Mr. Fairchild says very frankly that he does not think it possible for them to know certainly at this time whether or not they have enough votes to nominate, and that he does not believe there will be any way of counting noses before the meeting of the convention.

Some talk is heard concerning Congressman W. R. Morrison as a dark horse. It is mainly prompted by Congressman Foreman and Egan, who have established themselves at the Palmer house. They have a number of lieutenants with them who will be used for the purpose of promoting the Interstate Commerce Commission's boom when it is thought the proper time has arrived. Whoever an Illinois man is to be found, however, the idea of Morrison finding any important figure is regarded only as a joke.

The Wigwag has been thoroughly inspected in accordance with directions of the city building department by Inspectors Agnew, Maher and Chapin. Particular attention was paid to the roof trusses and supports as well as to the addition. They unanimously arrived at the conclusion that the structure was well constructed, and absolutely safe.

The Hill men have literally covered the interior of the Auditorium Hotel with lithographs of their candidate, and the stranger gets the impression that they have hired or bought the structure for their own uses and entered upon possession.
