DID YOU EVER!

Think what it cost to manufacture Baking Powder? Did you ever think how baking powder is made? Did you ever think there must be a large profit in it somewhere? The manufacturer of a certain baking powder pay out nearly a million dollars or more a year advertising his powder, trying to make people believe it is the best made. Their baking powder is sold at 4c per pound. The retailer makes his profit, the jobber makes his profit, the manufacturer makes his profit, and the consumer pays for all these and the newspaper advertising also.

Why do we say this? We expect it will please you. Why should you pay 25c or 40c profit on every pound of powder you buy?

Don't forget we strive to give our customers advantage of inside prices at which we buy our goods.

COURT NOTES IN INTERESTING FORM

AN INSIGHT OF SOME LOCAL CASES.
WRITTEN BY ONE WELL POSTED

Episodes in the County Court in Which Town People Figure. Sentences Received by People of Town.

WHEN the doors of the Pottsville court house are thrown open and the judges take their seats upon the benches to try cases the railroad companies issue orders to their employes to prepare for a big passenger business.

for invariably there is a rush to the seat of justice from all parts of the county. Criminal court week is a special incentive for travel, which is sometimes voluntary and sometimes otherwise.

The train that left the local depot this morning was packed with people of all stations in life. Some went down to court to "see the sights and hear their lawyers talk." Others went down to tell the grand jury how little they know of certain cases.

There is Harry T. Hall, for instance. Harry secured a boundless number of orders for photographs, but the mill in his photograph gallery on West Centre street worked slow and it took too long to build up profits.

Hall has secured the services of two lawyers and is confident that he will be acquitted of the charge against him. The Commonwealth is equally confident that Hall will be convicted and that he will receive a heavy sentence. The jury will decide.

There are few people in town who keep track of the daily happenings who do not know, or who have not heard, of Mary McGover. She has repeatedly figured before the justices of town and the Pottsville court, notwithstanding she has a family of six children dependent upon her.

The panorama moves and brings to view Richard Murphy, also of Shenandoah. Richard is 16 years old. According to the testimony in his case Richard was discharged by a mine boss and when he went home his mother dusted his jacket with a broom handle. Richards temper overbalanced his good judgment. He turned upon his mother and "bit her a couple of whelps." Richards sentence was 30 days.

and Max Goldman. In this case the court denies the motion for a new trial. Goldman and Ring were formerly engaged in the boot and shoe business at the corner of Main and Oak streets. Their place was suddenly closed up and certain creditors caused their arrest on a charge of fraud.

In due time the case was tried and the jury rendered a verdict of "guilty." The verdict had hardly been announced before Goldman and Ring disappeared. No one seemed to know where they had gone and I Robbins, of Pottsville, who was one of the bondsmen, felt a little uneasy.

In the search for bail the friends announced that they would give a bonus of $250 to the man who would furnish the security.

A night or two after the agreement with Robbins, Goldman and Ring returned to town. Mr. Robbins was also in town, but did not meet the arrivals. He deputized Constable Boland to deliver the address of welcome, which was done as Goldman, Ring and a few of their friends were indulging in a quiet game of cards at about midnight.

To make a long story short, Goldman and Ring paled. After the shock passed off they accompanied the constable to the lockup and remained there until the next morning, when they were taken to Pottsville. They succeeded in again securing bail. Ring went to New York and Goldman remained in town.

The last act of the play is the denial of the motion for a new trial. Goldman and Ring have two alternatives—an appeal to the Supreme Court and taking chances of a reversal of the decision refusing the new trial or an appearance before the court for sentence.

By paying 25 cents to our agents and $2.75 at the gallery, for one dozen of our best cabinets, we will present you with a 1x17 crayon of yourself or any of your friends. Our agents, Messrs. A small, neat and cheap little novelty that has made its appearance is "The Marvel" postage stamp box or locket. It may be used as a charm or a locket and carries postage stamps on both sides. If desired a small "photo" may be carried on one side. It is an attractive and convenient article and will absolutely prevent stamps from sticking together in hot weather.

The Annunciation T. A. B. Band and a large number of its admirers left town this morning to enjoy a day out at Lakeside. As the weather was all that could be desired and as Lakeside is second to no place in the state as a resort for pleasure and recreation we feel warranted in saying that as the HERALD goes to press the band and its friends are partaking of the cup of joy overflowing. The popularity of Lakeside is extending to proportions wholly unexpected by its promoters.

Imitations have been put upon the market so closely resembling Allcock's Porous Plasters in general appearance as to be well calculated to deceive. It is, however, in general appearance only that they compare with Allcock's, for they are worse than worthless, inasmuch as they contain deleterious ingredients which are apt to cause serious injury. Remember that Allcock's are the only genuine porous plasters—the best external remedy ever produced; and when purchasing plasters do not only ask for but see that you get Allcock's Porous Plasters.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY

FLAG RAISING AT THE HIGH SCHOOL.
THE PROGRAMME IS ARRANGED

The Flag to be Presented by a Well Known Speaker From Philadelphia—The Grant Band and a Choir.

ARRANGEMENTS for the celebration of the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence—Fourth of July—is being made on all sides and the observance this year promises to eclipse all previous efforts our citizens have made.

The programme of exercises is a very interesting one. It includes music by the Grant band, singing by a choir under the leadership of Prof. Thomas B. Hughes, presentation speech by one of the most eloquent men in the state, H. J. Deily, of Philadelphia, and addresses by several well known and able gentlemen.

"Tom" Grant is home from Scranton. E. Anstock is doing jury duty this week. William Schmicker spent to-day at Pottsville.

Charles Strelgel, of Pottsville, who was visiting friends in town, has returned to his home. Mrs. W. J. Haverstock, of Wilmington, Delaware, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffly.

Mrs. George S. Rohland has gone to Wanamie, Luzerne county, to spend a couple of weeks with her parents. Fred, Agard, of Philadelphia, one of the most popular salesmen on the road, spent yesterday in town drumming up business.

George W. Haessler left this morning to attend the funeral of Mrs. Kreil, at Delano, and after the ceremonies left for Philadelphia to look after business affairs. P. J. Ferguson has received a handsome engraved invitation to be present at the dedication of the World's Fair buildings in Chicago on October 11, 12 and 13, next.

Joseph C. Knapp, of Yatesville, has been suffering greatly with his eyes and has been under medical treatment for several weeks. He is much encouraged and expects soon to see as well as ever.

Timothy Flynn, ex-Tax Collector of Rush township, spent yesterday in town. Mr. Flynn is one of the oldest and best known residents of the county. He used to visit Shenandoah when it had but one house.

VIEWS OF THE WEST.

Interpreted by a Townsman Who Recently Visited There.
The question as to whether the World's Fair shall be closed on Sunday is attracting attention throughout the United States and, of course, the Chicago people are the most interested in it.

While the writer was in Chicago he met Messrs. W. E. Powell, conductor; David H. Moss, adjudicator; William Wallace Heford, soloist; David Brady, accompanist, and Col. James G. Everest, soloist, together with John R. Potts, of William-sport, base, all connected with the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and who have promised to be at the great musical festival to be held at Lakeside on August 16th, next, and take part in the exercises.

On Decoration day Prof. Apnadoc, who was the adjudicator at Lakeside last August, took part in the singing exercises at Chicago.

Should this meet the eye of any one who contemplates going to Denver the party will do well to note that the route for wonderful scenery is via St. Louis on the Missouri Pacific railroad. The road is a most excellent one and the equipments are complete in every particular.

The first question asked of one who returns east after a visit to Chicago is, "What kind of a city is it—the buildings high?" One could write columns on this subject without exhausting it.

To those in this section of the country who contemplate visiting Chicago in 1893 I would say, don't forget to see, in addition to the Exposition, Liberty Prison and the cyclorama of the Chicago fire. The latter is situated on the lake front, not far from the Auditorium. Admission costs only fifty cents, but the sight is worth many times that sum.

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.

The "Stars" Won.
The Star base ball club and a picked nine, all amateur players of town, played a game yesterday afternoon at the trotting park. The Stars won by a score of 21 to 17. The battery of the latter club was Owens and Glover. Graham and McAllister formed the battery for the picked nine.
