THE MUGWUMP VOTE.

"Now I warn this convention, from the experience of every Democrat who has carried the state of New York-and none has failed to do it in nine years except Mr. Clevelandthat you cannot get one Mugwump vote without driving away a hundred Democratic votes. The Democratic party cannot fuse with the party that despises it, which decides its principles. The Republican party differs with us on principles. They differ with us on theories. We march against them in serried hosts. We take from them everything they have in the way of political property. We leave not sticking in their hands one single office which we can take from them. In this we may violate the abstract ethics of civil service reform, but we strengthen the Democratic party. We have to-day in the state of New York a Capitol in which every executive officer is a Democrat, in which both Houses of the Legislature are Democratic; in which there is not a single person, I believe, employed who is not a Democrat. We have produced in that Capitol such a political atmosphere that no Republican can breathe it and live. And every hour our Democratic forces grow stronger."-Bourke Cockran.

Advance in Price of Coal.

New York, June 80.-The Western sales agents met bere and ordered that on Tuesday next the price of coal be advanced 25 cents. Eastern agents also met and ordered the following advances: Stove coal 30 cents, egg 35, and chestmut 35 cents per ton, the prices to go into effect on July 1. to go into effect on July 1.

SECRETARY J. W. FOSTER

James G. Blaine's Successor in the Cabinet.

POLITICIANS GREATLY SURPRISED.

Two Hours and Thirty-five Minutes to Transform a Private Citizen Into Secretary of State - Sketch of the Distinguished Diplomat's Career.

Washington, June 30 .- It took & hours and 35 minutes only to transform a private citizen into Secretary of State of the United States.

At 1:40 the President sent to the Senate the nomination of Mr. J. W. Foster. At 2:03 the Senate confirmed the nomipation. At 2:36 his commission was sent to the President, and he signed It; at 2:45 it was countersigned by Mr. Wharton, as Acting Secretary of S ate, and at 4:15 Mr. Foster took the oath of office of Secretary of State before Mr. Lewellon Brown, chief clerk and notary of the State Department.

It was the quickest work ever known at the State Department.

Senator Alison and Representative Henderson, of Iowa, united in saying the appointee was well equipped for the position. "He has been of very great service about the State Department," said Representative Henderson, "and a better qualified may could not been better qualified man could not have been chosen."

Bepresentative Blount, Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, because it gave Indiana another Cabinet appointment. He said, however, that he regarded the appointment as a good one, as Mr. Foster was unsatally well equipped in knowledge of matters pertaining to the State Department. Senator Dolph said that to him the nomination was a very satisfactory one.

"I have known General Foster for many years," said he. "He is thoroughly capable and is intimately acquainted with diplomatic affairs."

Senator Blackburn expressed similar There was general satisfaction at the Depew a prominent place.

Hon. John W. Foster has had a diplomatic carrer probably unequaled in American history. Born in Indiana 55 years ago, he was educated in the public schools and graduated from the State university. He was admitted to the bar and in connection with his practice of the law, engaged in newspaper work, being connected with the Evansville "Tribune."

He served in the war of the Rebellion, and after its close took a prominent part in the politics of the State.

In 1872 he served as chairman of the In 1872 he served as chairman of the Republican State General Committee, and in the next year he was appointed by President Grant Minister to Mexico.

He served successively as Minister to Russia and Spain, acquitting himself with great credit, and winning for his country a higher regard than it had previously enjoyed at these courts.

While Mr. Cleveland was in the presidential office he complimented Mr.

When the McKinley bill made it incumbent upon the department to con-summate the reciprocal trade arrange-ments provided for by Section 8, of that act, Mr. Foster was placed in charge of the negotiations.

His selection was vindicated by the facility and success with which these arrangements were perfected.

Recently, he has had charge of the Behring Sea negotiations and was agent of the United States to prepare the case for presentation to the arbitrators. Since his retirement from regular dip lomatic service of the government, Mr Foster has acted as counsellor for the Chinese, Spanish and Mexican legations in Washington, and his acceptance of office, it is understood, involved a considerable personal financial sacrifice. Mr. Foster is a handsome gentleman
