Survivor of the Boston Balloon An cension Tells of the Accident. The Boston, July 6. -Delos E. Goldsmith, the only survivor of those who ascended in the balloon Monday, told the story of the crip as he lay on a cot in the hospital this morning. He said: "When the balloon rose in the air the sun was declining and the scene from the car was beautiful. We all anticipated an enjoyable trip.

GOLDSMITH'S STORY.

"At first it seemed as if the balloon would take a westerly course, but a strong wind suddenly arose and swept it in the direction of South Boston. was soon evident that we were heading for the harbor. "It was then that Prof. Rogers said he would land on Thompson's Island. To fail of this all of us knew meant to be c rried out to sea. "The Professor seemed to realize this, as he became a trifle nervous. He pulled the escape valve cord, but the cord refused to work.

"It was then a question of life or death.

"Again and again he pulled. For a moment the huge mass shook and quivered. Soon our position became un-comfortable because of the odor of the gas. To mitigate this the hold on the cord was relaxed.

"To our amazement the valve refused to close. Prof. Rogers kept his hold on the rope. "Suddenly a noise overhead caused us to look up. There was a small rent in the balloon which as the gas escaped increased to a yard. At first slowly and then like a dart the balloon descended.

"In this awful descent it occurred to me that two carrier pigeons were in the bottom of the car. With one wrench I pulled the cover from the cage and they were free, a moment later we struck the water,

'It seemed as if I went ten feet below the surface.

"I knew we would have to swim and before we struck the water I had thrown my cost away. I had no time to remove my shoes, but while in the water I lay on my back and removed them. Then I became tangled up in the netting.

became tangled up in the netting. "When we came up I wiggled free and jumped out of the basket. The land seemed far away, though I am told it was only 500 yards. "All this time I heard Prof. Rogers behind me, and I supposed he too was awimming for the shore. I felt sick at the stomach as I swam, from the effects of breathing the gas, and if I had not been picked up quickly I would have been picked up quickly I would have 8000 given out.

"Whether Prot. Rogers died from the effects of the gas or from his fail I do not know. He was near me all the time until he sank in my wake."

Goldsmith is 23 years of age. He is fond of athletics, and is an expert yachtman and swimmer. He is suffering se-verely from the nervous shock, but will be able, probably, to leave the hospital to-day.

A DRAWN BATTLE.

Chicago Police Fail to Dislodge the Enemy at the Van Buren Street Dock.

CHICAGO, July 6 .- The attempt of the police to execute the Mayor's order to compel the owners of the Van Buren, line of pleasure boats to move their boats from the dock so that the World's Fair steamers might have an undisturbed monopoly met with desperate resistance. The police resorted to nothing more formidable than their clubs, but the steamboat men used axes, caulking mallets and clubs, and squirted hot water from the bollers at their foes.

A half dozen arrests were made, and a number of men from both sides were taken to the hospital for treatment. At noon Inspector Hubbard, commanding the policemen, ordered a re-treat for dinner, leaving a squad to guard the two boats captured. After dinner the black squadron was still under arms, while the city forces evidently had little desire to break the truce.

First Hostile Move of Carnegie Cleverly Blocked.

THE MEN WIN AT EVERY POINT.

Advance Detachment of Deputies to Protect the Homestead Mills Quietly But Firmly Escorted Out of Town-The Feeling Intense-Bloodshed May Occur.

HOMESTEAD, PR., July 6. - The first aggressive move in an attempt on the part of the Carnegie Steel Company to start their mills in opposition to the wishes of the locked-out men was made yesterday, but was unsuccessful.

The mill workers came off victorious at every point.

In the morning the Carnegie Steel Company applied to Sheriff McCleary of Allegheny county for help in guarding their Homestead property and protection for those men whom, they claim, are willing and anxious to go to work, but are in fear of bodily harm from the taken. strikers.

Sheriff McCleary, accompanied by ex-Sheriffs Gray and Cully, came from Pittsburg at noon and repaired to the strikers' headquarters, announcing that they would assume control of the Car-negle Steel Company's property, and would send some deputies to guard the works later in the day, but before doing so, wished a personal inspection of the grounds.

grounds. They asked for a pass to visit the in-terior of the mill, which was not only given by the Advisory Committee, but a body guard of 10 mea were furnished sheriff to show him everything in sight,

After an inspection of the works the sheriff was escorted to headquarters, where a committe was awaiting him. The Chairman of the Advisory Committee addressed the sheriff as follows: Sheriff, the Homestead people, both before this trouble came and since its precipitation, have expressed their intention of not only guarding their own property, but the property of their employers, the Carnegie Steel Company, as well. The property is not endaugered, but the bringing into Homestead of deputies ostensibly for the purpose of guarding property which is not in danger, is unuccessary. 'Now, we, the people of Homestead, wish to make an offer. We will place from 50 to 500 of our best citizens inside from 50 to 500 of oth best citizens inside of that mill to guard that property, if the firm think it is in danger, and these men will protect the property with their own lives if necessary, and further than that, a bond of $10,000 will be given for the faithful vigilance of each man post-ed. We don't want deputy sheriffs here, as it will precipitate trouble, and, there-fore, make this offer."

Sheriff McCleary said that he was un-able to accept the offer, and stated that he had been instructed to bring 50 deputy sheriffs to Homestead during the afternoon and would do so.

"You bring them at your own risk; we hereby dissolve the Advisory Com-mittee, and we will not be responsible for any trouble which may accrue from their coming," said the Chairman.

When Deputy Szeriff Cluley and his staff reached Homstead they were met by a committee of the men and it did not take long to convince them that they were in the way.

They were in a very short time es-corted to the steamer Edna, taken aboard and landed down the river on the opposite side at Glenwood, where they took an electric car for Pittsburg. The feeling in Homestead is more in-tense than ever. A conflict is bound to come, and the cooler heads of the locked out men are having a hard time to prevent outbreaks. A petition is in circulation at Home-stead asking Governor Pattison to come to Homestead and see for himself how peaceful everything is. RAISED THE FLAG OF ANARCHY.

SILVER MEN SKIRMISHING. The Senate Free Coinage Hill Before the House. WASHINGTON, July 6 - The struggle over the hill for the free coinage of silver, which passed the Senate last week, opened in the House yesterday. It was more of a skirmish than a battle.

The issue was joined as soon as the Free Coinage bill was taken from the Speaker's table. Its natural reference would, of course, have been to the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures, of which Bland, of Missouri, is chairman.

Gen. Tracey, of New York, who so successfuly helped the Republicans to lead the last fight in the House against the Bland Free Coinage bill, again as-sumed the leadership, by moving to re-fer the Stewart bill to Committee on Banking and Currency, of which Mr. Bacon, of New York, an anti-silver man, is chairman.

The issue was thus apparently joined, but the House was unable to reach the issue for hours. It see-sawed between motions to adjourn, and calls of the House necessitated by the absence of a quorum, and after passing the after-noon in this ineffectual manner, in shear weariness and despair of reaching any definite result au adjournment was

BISMARCK SPEAKS OUT ARE WE WILL NOT OBJECT TO PROSECUTION.

Such a Dramatic Conclusion to His Political Career Would Be Interesting in the Highest Degree-The Article Said to Have Greatly Exasperated the Emperor. BERLIN, July 6 .- Prince Bismarck did not sign the severely sarcastic article in the "Hamburger N schrichten" entitled "The Opinion of Prince Bismarck." The article is believed, however, to be of his authorship.

The writer replies at length to the article in the "North German Gazette," in which Bismarck was decounced and threatened with prosecution for the statements in his Vienna Interview.

The writer declines to view the article seriously. The article, he says, was redictious, and he does not believe that Chancellor Caprivi or any other Minister of State inspired it. It was aimost certainly the more personal opinion of the editor.

If Ministers should continue, the writer in the "Nachrichten" declares, in their present paths, and if practical consequences follow the measures they mve adopted, they will have to hear things very different from Prince Bis-marck's utterances at Vienna. When Prince Bismarck will take a seat in the Reichstig his criticisms will not be restricted by those limits which now surround him.

Upright Englishmen and English newspapers, too, says the "Nachrichten," consider the imperial government at liberty to silence Bismarca by judicial proceedings. It would be interesting, in the highest degree, if an attempt should be made in that direction. We do not believe that such a step would be unwelcome to Bismarck. He has hardly to raise an objection to such a dramatic conclusion to his political career, even if the consequences should be more serious to him than is possible, under the existing law.

The article in the Hamburger organ of Prince Bismarck has renewed the an ger of the Emperor, and it is said h is again considering the prosecution of Bismarck.

It is also reported that Bismarck views the course of the "North German Gazette" as daving been inspired by the Kaiser directly, without the interven-tion of Caprivi, and that the article may even have been the Kaiser's own luction. pr

It is known that the Kaiser once sent a semi-editorial article to the Paris cor-respondent of the London "Times," "Times," and there is prevalent opinion that he wrote the article against Bis-marck which has been generally cred-treater Carnier ited to Caprivi.

Firrsmuno, July 6 .- At Bower Hill, a mining town a few miles from Pittsburg on the Pan Handle Railroad, Monday, 25 Hungariaus, Poles and Germans gathered in the public square and ran a flag to the top of a 25 foot pole.

No one knew the object of the men until they saw the emblem of Anarchy floating in the breeze.

The men who raised the fing began cheering and singing songs insuiting to Americans in general. The news of the affair spread throughout the town. This was more than the American miners could stand, and one, who took the lead, raised a band of 20 men. Forming themselves into a company, and armed for action, they marched to the public square. When the Anarchists saw them coming, they fied to the woods, leaving their flag at the top of the pole.

The Americans expected a fight, but the Anarchists gave none. The field being clear, the American miners soon tore the red flag from the pole and ran up the Stars and Stripes. The red flag was then trampled in the dust and torn to sureds. A guard was then appointed, which acted as the pro-tector of the American flag.
