CHOLERA RIOT IN RUSSIA.

The Masses Had Heard That Patients Were Buried Alive.

St. Petersburg, July 15.—Owing to a report that the doctors were causing cholera patients to be buried alive, the lower classes of the city of Saratoff rose in revolt against the authorities and the doctors on the 10th inst.

The excited populace wrecked and plundered the police station, cholera hospitals and the residences of the Chief of Police and physicians.

Several patients were dragged out of one hospital to save them, as the ignorant mob thought, from being buried alive. The medical assistants were attacked, and two of them were killed.

The rioters threatened to take full possession of the city, and would undoubtedly have done so had it not been for the opportune arrival of the troops who had been summoned.

The mob resisted the soldiers, and the latter were ordered to fire upon them. A volley was poured into the mob, killing three of them and wounding four others. The rioters then dispersed.

WRETCHED TRAIN SERVICE.

Passengers Complain of Their Treatment by the Northern R. R. of New Jersey.

PIERMONT, N. J., July 15.—Considerable amusement is caused here nearly every afternoon by the trains of the Northern Railroad of New Jersey getting stuck. The station is situated on a double curve, and there is a slight grade, rendering the worn-out engines in use by the company about useless.

Some trains are delayed from five to fifteen minutes nearly every day. This time is spent by the poor dilapidated locomotive in making frantic efforts to do something, while the train passengers fume and fret and call the management names.

The Northern is making money enough out of the upper end of its line to fix up and regrade its tracks, build new stations and give better train service.

Englewood, as everybody knows, with about a quarter of the travel, has everything that the commuter's heart can desire in the way of elegant stations, etc., because, forsooth, the owners of the road live there.

MONTREAL, July 15.—Within a few months the exodus of French Canadians from this province to the United States has been so great that public attention has been called to it. So enormous is the exodus that there is a movement in progress to devise, if possible, some plan to check it.
