Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Saviour, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, look in all, eight bottles it has cured me, and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at C. H. Hagenbuch's drug store, regular size, 50c. and $1.00.

Hollenpeter, Esq., appeared before the School Board last night and stated that the property at the corner of Cherry and Jardin streets, owned by him and claimed by the board as a site for a new school building, was not for sale, but that if the board should insist upon having it the price would be $5,000. Mr. Langfelt said he was receiving $23 a month in rents from the place. The board promptly stamped the figure too high and a discussion ended without any definite result.

DEFEATED IN THE HOUSE.

The $5,000,000 Appropriation Amendment Voted Down—Sunday Closing.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—In anticipation of the vote on the World's Fair appropriation there was quite a full attendance of members in the House.

On motion of Mr. McMillan (Dem., Tenn.) the resolution fixing adjournment on the 25th inst., reported by the Committee on Ways and Means, was laid over for the present.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, Mr. Lester (Dem. Ga.) in the chair, the pending amendment being the appropriation for the World's Fair.

The House then proceeded to vote on the amendments offered. The increase made by the Senate in the appropriation for Government exhibits from $10,500 to $500,000 was disagreed to; also to all increases of the Senate relating to the World's Columbian Exposition.

When the $5,000,000 souvenir coin clause was reached, Mr. Atkinson (Rep., Pa.) offered an amendment forbidding any use of the appropriation until satisfactory proof is given by the Fair authorities that no intoxicating liquors shall be sold, except for medicinal, mechanical or scientific purposes. Defeated, yeas 41, nays 189.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Patterson (Dem., Tenn.) and voted down, appropriating $50,000 for statistical information regarding the moral, religious, and educational development of the colored race.

Mr. O'Neill (Rep., Pa.) endeavored to have the $5,000,000 voted as a loan to be paid back, before any other indebtedness, and also to divert $1,500,000 of this amount to be refunded to stockholders of the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia in 1876. These propositions were voted down.

The vote now recurred on the Senate proposition appropriating $5,000,000. On a viva voce vote this was defeated—yeas 68; nays 182. Tellers were then ordered.

The vote by tellers, Messrs. Hooker of New York and Halman acting as tellers, was: yeas, 91; nays, 118.

On a viva voce vote on concurring in the Senate amendment to close the Fair on Sunday was carried, 78 to 74. Tellers were then ordered.

The vote by tellers on concurring in the amendment, was 102 yeas, 72 nays. Announcement received with applause.

The appropriation of $48,000 for 50,000 bronze medals and diplomas was agreed to in Committee of the Whole.

ALICE MITCHELL'S TRIAL.

Testimony Showing That Insanity Was Inherent in the Family.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 26.—The second day's proceedings in the Alice Mitchell trial were witnessed by a large crowd. The deposition of Juliet Bishop of Brookville, Ind., was read. She is Mrs. Mitchell's step-daughter, and testified that Mrs. Mitchell once made an effort to kill her. So strong was her resentment that Mrs. Bishop was compelled to leave home.

A number of depositions were read showing the insanity of Mrs. Mitchell's relatives. Dr. Thomas Griswold Comstock of St. Louis treated Mrs. Mitchell in St. Louis when she was suffering from acute mania. He said that heredity was probably the original cause of insanity and asserted that it was more potent from a mother to a daughter than otherwise.

Robert Mitchell, Alice's half-brother, testified that he searched her room after the tragedy and found in it, tops, marbles, baseballs, etc. She also had a rose sent her by Freda and several letters. He also testified that Alice acted like a boy.

From the tenor of the letters that passed between Freda Ward and Alice Mitchell, one is led to the conclusion that each was infatuated with the other, and that Alice loved Freda as man loves woman and Freda loved Alice as woman regards man. The letters written by both the young women were made public on the witness-stand and their contents were astounding.

If Alice is crazy so was Freda, because the emotions and mentality of both were alike.

A prominent physician, discussing the case from a scientific standpoint, said the story of these two girls gave rise to a problem for psychologists, viz.—Can one woman love another as a man without being insane, and when this love is reciprocated are not both insane?
