MAY ESCAPE THE GALLOWS. Strennous Efforts Being Made in Col. H. C. King's Behalf.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 26 .- It is generally believed here that the application for a writ of habeas corpus filed by the attorneys of Col. Henry Clay King before United States Circuit Judge Jackson, will result in favor of Colonel King and that he will escape the death penalty.

he will escape the death penalty.

Colonel H. Clay King is under sentence to be hanged on August 12 for the murder of David H. Foston. He is now confined in an iron ribbed cell in the Memphis jail within sight of the one occupied by Alice Mitchell, the pretty and petite murderess of her lover friend, Freda Ward.

It was the morning of March 10, 1891, when the deed was done. Mr. Foston was walking along the street in the very heart of the city, where everybody knew heart of the city, where everybody knew him. He had just lifted his hat to a lady, when King, wild eyed with rage and maddened by drink, sprang out upon the sidewalk. Poston held out his hand, but it was dashed aside, and king, placing the muzzle of a heavy revolver against Poston's body, pulled the trigger and sent a bullet clean through his victim. It was a cowardly shot and as deadly as cowardly. Poston staggered but a few paces and fell into the arms of a friend. He was curried home and filed on the second day after receiving his wound.

After King had fired the fatal shot he

After King han lived the ratal and a made no effort to escape, but gave himself up to the authorities. The excitement around the scene of the tragedy was intense, and threats of lynching became so ominous that the wretched prisoner begged to be permitted to retain his re-volver for self defense until he reached the shelter of the jail, and this was so corded him.

CONSPIRATORS UNDER ARREST

Believed that Frick's Shooting Was a Plot of the Reds.

BERKMAN STOPPED A WEEK WITH ONE OF THEM.

The First Cine Obtained Through An Express Package-Startling Developments Expected Soon-Frick's Condition Unchanged-The Case of the Millriaman Inms Making a Great Stir-Many of the National Guard Say They Will Not Re-Enlist-The Release of O'Donnell and

Physauno, July 26.—The murderons attack upon Henry C. Frick, chairman of the Carnegie Company, was not the work of a crazy Anarchist acting solely upon his own impulses, and imbued with the idea that he was doing the country a service by ridding it of a great iron master.

Instead, it was an outcome of a conspiracy of the worst elements of the Russian Anarchists deliberately conscived, and Berkman, the would-be assassin, was either the tool or the willing ally of the conspirators

This is the conclusion that the leading police authorities of Pittsburg have arrived at, and they claim to be supported in it by advices from New York, which they refuse to make public at present, for fear that justice may be thwarted. The first important link in the chain of The first important link in the chain of evidence pointing toward this conclusion was forged yesterday, in the arrest of a local Anarchist with whom Berkman had been living for more than a week, and to whose abode he appears to have gone at the suggestion of the notorious Herr Most. The man's name is Karl Knold, and he lives on Cherry street, a small thoroughfare across the river in Allechery. Allegheny.

Knold protests, of course that he had no knowledge of Berkman's plans, but there are many other damaging circumstances He admits that Berkman came to his ouse on the 14th of July. He says that Berkman told him he had come to Pittsburg to seek employment and told him he knew Herr Most.

The authorities, it is believed, have documentary evidence that not only strongly connects Knold with Berkman, but will justify other arrests. The developments to day are likely to be start-

The information that led to the arrest of Anarchist Knold was gained through the arrival of an express package ad-dressed to Berkman in care of Knold. Conrad Echard, another rampant An-archist, is also in jall charged with com-

His extraordinary vitality was strikingly demonstrated yesterday, for although it was the hottest day that Pittsburg has ex-perienced in nearly ten years, his wounds gave him apparently little trouble while mentally he was bright and active. His wounds were examined and dressed this morning, but there was not the faint-est trace of blood poisoning or of any great amount of inflammation than would be expected under the circumstances, and the results of the examination were de-

so many lives,
It was the court's imperative duty to dmit the defendant to ball, and that ball would be fixed at $10,000.

The decision was received with a burn of satisfaction from the court room, and it was fully a minute before the tipstaffs could secure silence.

It was then announced that no evidence would be offered against Boss, Foy and Allen, and bail in the same amount was fixed for each man. Bail was promptly given for all four defendants, and they were released. Robert Sterling, the starved, shabbily dressed young fellow from Chicago, who was arrested on Second avenue late Standay night while telling a small crowd that he had walked all the way from that the had walked all the way from that the hell Andrew Carnerie has been

The orders signed by Mr. Frick and posted at the Homestead works this mornog, to the effect that men returning to work would be insured against removal, the firm to the strikers. In this connection a representative of the firm makes an important statement:

THE HOT WAVE

Many Prestrations From the Expensive Beat Reported.

New York, July 26. - Yesterday was the hottest 25th of July since 1885, when the temperature reached 91 degrees, and the hottest day of the year.

At 11 o'clock the thermometer registers 87 with 82 per cent. of humidity, 10 per cent, more than normal.

At 2 p. m. the mercury reached 92, but a shower came up suddenly and the mer-cury went down to 90. After the storm-it again began to rise and at 4 p. m. was at 91.

"The warm wave rolled easterly from Kansas," said Mr. Dunn, the weather

"New York was favored at 8 o'clock by two degress less of heat than any other Atlantic city had. It was 78 deg. here. At Portland, Boston, Philadelphia, Washington and Lynchburg the thermometer registered 80 deg. In fact, all over the Atlantic States the thermometer registered between 80 deg and 82 deg. "St. Louis was the warmest place. It was 82 deg. there. In the Upper Lake region it was cooler, ranging from 66 deg. to 68 deg.

"This warm spell will last until Wed-nesday night, at least," was Mr. Dunn's nesday night, at least," was Mr. Dunn's discomforting prediction.

CHCAGO, July 26.—Since Saturday twenty-four sudden deaths, all attributa-ble to the intense heat, have been re-ported. Twelve cases were reported yesterday, and two on Saturday. Fred Bri-kate, a carpenter, was overcome by the heat while at work, and fell to the pave-ment. His neck was broken. Kate Mulment. His neck was broken. Kate Mul-lenhill died at her home. John McGrath dropped dead on the street. James Kean died in an ambulance. Seven unknown persons were found dead.

DETROIT, Mich., July 26,—Fifteen cases of heat prostration, three of which will prove fatal, have been reported as a result of the hottest day of the year in this city. At 2 o'clock yesterday thermometers registered 102 degrees in the shade, while the mercury in the weather bureau office, at the top of a ten-story building, rose to 98 degrees. The heat has been frightful, unaccompanied by the slightest cooling browses.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.-The thermometer in the signal service observatory yesterday registered 101, while on the street the mercury touched 110. There were nearly a hundred prostrations, and many of them will, it is feared, terminate ROME, N. Y., July 26.—Yesterday was the hottest day of the season, the ther-mometer registering 98 in the shade. To-day the air is humid. Thermometer at noon was 85.

Violent Electrical Storm.

Consinu, N.Y., July 26.—One of the most violent electrical storms ever ex-perienced in this section occurred between S and 5 o'clock in the morning. For a long time the heavens presented a dazzling sight. At the Erwin Crossing of Eric and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad, three miles west of this place, the lightning danced around the signal tower, Operator Cahill making his escape just as the tower was struck. In a few minutes it war burned to the ground. Mr. Cahili was thrown to the ground and stunned by the force of the shock.

A Murderer Dies Before Execution. PHILADELPHIA, July 26.-Early in the orning Henry Davis, colored, sentenced to be hanged on September 8 for the mur-der of Job Haas, the coal dealer, died in his cell of consumption. When the death warrant was read some two weeks ago it was noticed that Davis was fast yielding to the fatal disease, and it was doubted then if he would live until the day fixed for his execution. Davis was convicted on circumstantial evidence, but recently, it is said, confessed having committed the deed to a fellow prisoner.

Cyclone at Asbury Park.

ASHURY PARK, N. J., July 26 .- A small ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 26.—A small der freight cars. The frame structure cyclone swept over Asbury Park and Ocean Grove yesterday afternoon. The rain fell in torrents, accompanied by lightning. All the streets near the ocean front were rendered impassable and the cellars filled with water. The Asbury Park Electric Raliway stopped running trains. Lightning at part of the par trains. Lightning struck in several places, and a number of persons were injured but none fatally:

Opening Day of the National Association's Regatta.

NEARLY 5,000 AMATEURS PRESENT

Some of the Crack Events-The Race it Singles for Senior Oursmon Will Attract the Most Attention-The Senior Eight

Sanaroga, N. Y., July 26, -This is the first day of America's biggest rowing regatta, and hundreds of young men who have been building a frame of muscle and sinew the last three months will learn their fate to-day or to-morrow in the Na tional Association races. There are 4,500 oarsmen in town, and such a grand sight as they make, with their bright colors and lusty club calls, has taken the entire watering place by storm.

Every train lands a small army of oars men from New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark, Yonkers, and the suburb of the great metropolis. A big delegation is here from Chicago. They are repre-sentatives of the Farragut, Catlin, Union and Iroquois boat clubs. An immense delegation from the Modoc Boat Club of St. Louis, the Ottumwa Oarsmen of Ot tumwa, Iowa, the Garffeld Boat Club of Salt Lake City, the Minnesota Boat Club of St. Paul, and the Detroit Boat Club of Detroit is also prese

The star event of the regatta will be the race in singles for sculor oarsmen. It is a great many years since the ruling body secured as many distinguished seat sliders for this event. Hawkins, who lives here, but who carries the colors of the Manhat tan Athletac Club, divides with Hedley the attention as a probable winner.

These men have met so many times with such varying results that it is now a toss-up as to which will win. Hedley likes rough water. It was in rough water that he learned to row on the Delaware River. The Philadelphia crowd is here strong, and they believe that their man will defeat the Saratogian to a moral certainty. It will be the one race of the year in which both men will have to row a heart-strain-ing race from start to finish. It will forever settle the question of supremacy be tween the two men.

But it isn't settled that either will win. But it isn't settled that either will win. There is another man who may have a great deal to say when it comes to fast strokes. He is Edward Durnan, and he is a member of the Sunnyside Boat Club of Toronto, Out. He is a nephew of Nel Hanlan, and last year in the West he won the funior and s enior championships at Mississippi Vailey and Northwestern regatins in the same day. Hanlan says he will beat the best amateur in the world in will beat the best amateur in the world in The question is whether his time

The Lau brothers, of the Atalanta Boat Club, Harlem, are already listed as winners. They are in fine shape, and unless their plans are interfered with by Cody and Delaney, of the Nonpareil Rowing Club, also from the Harlem, they should win. Several years' winter wrestling has left theelder Lau in excellent shape their friends are willing to bet 2 to 1 that they will win.

Aside from the senior single-scull shell race, the chief interest in the regatta will race, the chief interest in the regarda wint center in the senior eight-oared shell con-test. The four crews entered for the event are the best in the country. Three of them—the Atalanta, Manhattan Ath-letic and the New York Athletic—come from New York city. The other, the Maifrom New York city. The other, the Malta, represents Philadelphia and the Schuylkill Navy.

The Atalanta eight, with two excep tions, is the same representation which held the championship and beat the pick of America three seasons ago. The men in this boat are a trifle rusty now, and should they start stand very little chance

The Malta crew is somewhat of an un known quantity in the race, but the talent does not think for a second that the Quaker City lads will beat either the Cherry Diamond or Winged Foot sentation. The betting is lively on these two crews. Both have an army of sup-porters, and they are not a bit afraid of producing the stuff that makes the mare There is not a sick man in either crew. All are brawny and ready to row for a man's life. The crew of the New York Club was originally known as the Chippie crew, and are rowing in first class

To-night the Executive Committee of the association will meet to elect delegates in the place of those whose terms will have expired. Every club in the as-sociation has a vote, and there will be few With a few exceptions, the ciuls will be represented by active

The committee has decided to call the first race at 3 o'clock to-day instead of 4.

Some of Harrity's Plans.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 26.-William F. Harrity, Chairman of the Democratic Na-tional Committee, arrived in this city last night and immediately went to the State Department, where he took up his duties as Secretary of the Commonwealth. He is not ready to appoint the different com-mittees he says, but will likely do so when he goes to New York to-morrow. Mr. Harrity has completed all arrangements to take up his residence in the vicinity of Long Branch, so as to be close to both Philadelphia and New York.

Severe Storm at Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 26.—The storm at noon was a regular tornado at Port Richmond. The Philadelphia & Reading car repair shops, a square in length, were de-molished and a number of workmen were injured. One hundred and twenty-five men were employed at the plant and the majority escaped injury by crawling un-der freight cars. The frame structure

Campes, N. J., July 26.—James Lee, aged 16 years, was struck by lightning at noon in Barret's spar yard and instantly killed. The left leg of his pantaloons and his left shoe were torn from his body. There was a livid streak down the left aids where the electric current had passed. The flesh all over the body soon turned blue.
