ROBERT RAY HAMILTON'S BODY.

It is Now En Route for New York From the West.

New York, July 27.—The body of Robert Ray Hamilton, which was buried in the south end of the Yellowstons Park, is on its way to this city for interment. The fact came to light yesterday through the application of the undertaking firm of Adair & Aldred to the Board of Health to permit the body to pass through the city. The application was granted.

The application to the Board of Health was accompanied by the records of the Coroner's inquest held in the West, which effectually dispose of the theory that Hamilton is still living. Neither Gen. Schuyler Hamilton, his father, nor Schuyler Hamilton, jr., his brother, is at present in the city, the latter being in Europe.

Later—it is stated this morning that Hamilton's body was brought into the city yesterday secretly and buried in Greenwood Cemetery. It lies in the burial plot of his grandfather.

Internal Revenue Receipts. WASHINGTON, July 27.—John W. Mason, Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury a preliminary report as to the operations of his bureau for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892. The report says: "The total collections from all sources of internal revenue for the fiscal year just ended were $153,857,548.45, which sum has been duly accounted for and covered into the Treasury of the United States. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1891, the total collections were $146,035,415.97."

INSANE PATIENTS.

Taken From Schuylkill Haven to the Harrisburg Institution. Yesterday Poor Director Tracy and Dr. Carpenter, of Pottsville, with assistants, took six patients from the insane asylum at Schuylkill Haven to the state asylum at Harrisburg. The patients were Richard Coogan, Middleport; Henry Hummel, Pinegrove; Katie Hobbs, Shenandoah; Mary Brennan, Minersville; Bridget O'Donnell, Coal Dale; and Mary Zattlemeyer, New Ringgold.

The Moresa Company Store. There is great complaint among Hungarian residents of Moresa on account of the efforts that are being made to compel them to deal at the company stores. They allege that the managers of the store threaten them that if they do not deal at the store they will be discharged and thrown out of their houses, and every possible means is used to compel them to deal at the store. A number of the Hungarian employes have signed their signatures to a statement setting forth their grievances and it is probable that the attention of the State Factory Inspector will be directed to the matter.

Charming Costumes. Very pretty light-weight silk—sarah, mervelleux, satin, bengaline, etc., polka dotted with silk of contrasting color, make charming toilets with a skirt and low-cut corset of the dotted silk, and a gümpe of plain sarah or China silk the color of the dot. A pretty costume of fawn-colored sarah, dotted with pale mauve, has a bell skirt of the goods, with a tiny pinked ruche at the foot of pleated mauve sarah. The corset is quite low and pointed front and back, and to be worn with it is a gümpe of plain mauve sarah with full bishop sleeves with cuffs and collar of the seeded silk; scraps of mauve moire ribbon go over the shoulders from the corset, with graceful bows at the top. A black-satin sarah dotted with gold, a gray with rose-color, and a soft doe-color China silk seeded with vivid Roman red were severally made up in similar fashion, black lace in two instances being substituted for ruches. Olive-green velvet ribbon was used with good effect on a dress of shot silk, dotted with old rose.—N. Y. Post.

GEN. BUTLER INDIGNANT.

He Denounces the Treatment Accorded to Militiamen Here.

Boston, July 27.—Gen. Butler, in an interview, expresses himself very forcibly against the recent punishment of Private Lams, at Homestead.

Said he: "That punishment was not permitted in the war by a rule of war that I know of. Cruel and unusual punishments are as much prohibited by the Constitution in the time of war as in the time of peace, and that prohibition should cover every case.

"I know of no law, either in war or peace, that prevents a private soldier from expressing his sentiments upon any question whatever, provided it is not done in such a boisterous manner as to disturb the peace, and I know of no proceeding which will justify punishing a man cruelly and excessively for expressing his sentiments by the Colonel, and then trying him by court-martial and punishing him again for the same offense.

"The proceeding is barbarous, cruel and unjustifiable by any law in peace or in war, and if it is not reprobated so fully and thoroughly by public sentiment that it will never occur again, it will do much to discourage our State militia and prevent them from coming on when called upon, because no man will go voluntarily to perform duty where such punishments may follow if he disagrees with his colonel in political, social, moral or religious sentiments."

"Has Private Lams any redress in this case?"

"If there is an honest jury in Pennsylvania, he has. It was wilyly unjustifiable. In the first place the colonel should be tried by a military commission of the National Guards, and his punishment by that tribunal can only extend so far as to take away his commission.

"Then he should be tried by a jury for a cruel assault and put in jail or fined, and then he should be sued by the man and made to pay many thousand dollars. If he can pay it, for the outrage. That is all that ought to happen to the colonel that I can think of now."

DEPARTURE OF TROOPS.

Two Regiments Leave Homestead—Three Will Remain.

HOMESTEAD, July 27.—The City Troop of Philadelphia was the first to leave Camp Black, Homestead. At 2:30 o'clock the troop was started on its journey home over the Pennsylvania Railroad. The 8th Regiment, under Col. Magee, struck its tents and marched to City Farm station of the Pennsylvania road.

The 14th Regiment will go home to-day and the 18th may not be 48 hours behind it. Gen. Snowden has been given discretion by Gov. Pattison to dispose of his troops as he sees fit, and he will probably send home a regiment or two a day until all but three regiments have gone.

Carnegie's Presence Not Needed. PITTSBURGH, July 27.—The Carnegie Company has called Mr. Carnegie, in response to his query, that his presence is not needed here and that it is not necessary for him to come.

WINNERS AT SARATOGA.

Great Racing by the National Amateur Oarsmen's Association.

SARATOGA, N. Y., July 27.—It was after 5 o'clock in the afternoon when Referee Stimpson decided that the lake surface was calm enough to allow the rowing races of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen to begin. Three o'clock was the hour set but the high wind prevailing did not permit the start.

When the water calmed down there was a little delay caused by the executive committee listening to protests against Edward Durnan, the Canadian oarsman, who is a cousin of Edward Hanlan. The committee decided to rule him out altogether, although the Canadians protested loudly.

The races showed a surprising lot of crack amateurs, and the heats so far as rowed were closely contested.

Charles Courtney, Ellis Ward, Edward Hanlan and Henry Rogers were among the famous professionals who witnessed the races. Hanlan and Rogers appearing in rowing attire in their shells.

All the races set down on the programme were rowed except the senior four, darkness preventing that. The races were chiefly remarkable from the fact that favorites in most instances came in the rear of the procession.

One heat of the junior singles and both heats of the doubles were close and exciting, and in some of the heats anybody was a winner until close to the finish. Each race was 1-1/2 mile with a turn. The winners were as follows:

Senior singles—First heat, Edwin Hedley, Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia.

Second heat—William Caffrey, Crescent Boat Club of Boston.

Third heat—John J. Ryan, Sunnyside Boat Club of Toronto, Canada.

Junior singles—James Hurley, Don Rowing Club of Toronto.

Second heat—Peter Lehany, Albany Rowing Club.

Third heat—H. W. Cady, New York Manhattan Club.

Double sculls—First heat, Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia.

Second heat—Cattin Boat Club of Chicago.
